STORKS RETURN TO NESTS

Annual Visits to Strasbourg Resume After Stopping Since 1914.

STRASBOURG, April 23.—(French wireless service.)—Storks, which ceased their annual visits to Strasbourg in the spring of 1914, returned this week to the old nests on a building on the left side of the Place de Broglie in the center of Strasbourg. Several of the birds, the first in five years, now occupy the nests.

Their unexpected return in the present circumstances is commented upon with pleasure by the native population, who have always held that the storks brought good luck.

Two more claimants to having the first rose in full bloom are Mrs. Nathan Wilcox of Linton road, who has a yellow climber in full bloom, the first one showing their petals on Wednesday, April 16. Mrs. R. Loveridge of 325 East Broadway has a magnificent climber, the Madame Alfred Carrier, a white blossom about three inches in diameter, which is a profuse bloomer. The first rose unfurled its petals on April 19, and Mrs. Loveridge claims the distinction of being the first one to have roses in full bloom each season. The climber was pruned last November, and it is covered with buds, the trailers reaching beyond the second story of the house.

Mrs. Newton D. Baker, wife of the secretary of war, will sing.

COUPLE WED BY LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE

MAN IN DENVER TAKES BRIDE IN ASHLAND.

Witnesses at Both Ends of Line Distinctly Hear Services Read by Clergyman.

ASHLAND, Or., April 23.—(Special.)—A wedding ceremony by long distance telephone was a unique occurrence in Ashland Sunday, when Miss Rose Thomas, a popular teacher of the Ashland schools, became the wife of Robert Throne, who is located in Denver, Colo.

The ceremony took place between 10 and 10:30 in the evening, when the bride, accompanied by her brother, A. W. Thomas, and wife as witnesses, went to the local telephone exchange. The bridegroom in Denver put the call through, and Rev. James Thomas, a Denver clergyman accompanying him, read the service over the telephone in the presence of necessary witnesses. The service was distinctly heard in Ashland, even by the witnesses.

The bride is the daughter of A. W. Thomas of Ashland, and has been a member of the Hawthorne school faculty for a number of years. She taught the fifth grade. Her friends in this city were much interested in her novel wedding.

TWO CLAIM FIRST ROSES

Mrs. Wilcox and Mrs. Loveridge Have Early Blooms.

LAD ABUSED, IS CHARGE

Charles Sar Shoots Wife and Later Son as They Soundly Sleep in Cabin.

MADRAS, Or., April 23.—(Special.)—After murdering his wife, Mrs. Susie Reighen Hardwick Sar, aged 41, and her son, David Hardwick, aged 16, as they awoke in their beds in their homestead about five miles from this place, some time last night, Charles Sar, a rancher, aged 43, placed the rifle between his feet, pulled the trigger with one foot and died instantly, shot through the temple. His body was found on the bed beside that of his wife of two years, he fully clothed and she in her night clothing.

Sar was a naturalized Swede, coming to this section of the country from the east some place, but no one seems to know just where, and the only relative of whom any trace can be found here is a sister who lives in Germany. The Reighens, Mrs. Sar's parents, had lived here for a number of years, Sar meeting Mrs. Hardwick while working as a ranch hand on one of the Reighen farms near Madras.
