Oldham Holds Tigers to One Hit Per Inning Until Blow-Up Comes in Seventh Frame.

Yesterday's Results. Portland -- Vernon 8, Portland 1. Seattle -- Oakland 19, Seattle 9, Los Angeles -- Los Angeles 2, Sait

BY HARRY M. GRAYSON. Three hits and a like number of errors gave Vernon five runs in the sev-enth inning of yesterday's baseball matinee, the Tigers winning, 8 to 1, which gives them the series four games

Red Oldham opposed Arthur Fromme Red Oldham opposed Arthur Fromme en the hillock. The former had two had innings in which he allowed half of the II base knocks registered against him. Fromme gave the Beavers only six hits, the bunching of two of them in the second canto permitting the ione McCredie registration. Oldham beat Fromme last Thursday and Art pitched varieties as if he was not Art pitched yesterday as if he was out

Art pitched yesterday as if he was out for revenge.
Had not Vinegar Bill Essick's hired men broken up the game for Fromme in the seventh he would have been a hard guy to beat anyway. Christy Mathewson's old pitching partner was as calm as a midnight sea, and otherwise distinguished himself by tying the score in the third with a home-run drive over the right center field fence. The ball was just commencing to rise The ball was just commencing to rise when it cleared the barrier.

Pitchers Battle Until Seventh.

It was a pitchern' battle until the un-tucky seventh. Portland drew first blood in the second when Art Koehler gained life by forcing Del Baker at second, went to third on Frank Fuller's double and scored on Oldham's single to center. Oldham allowed one Tiger hit in each of the first six innings and until he blew up it leoked as if the battle was billed for extra innings.

Captain Paddy Siglin started things in the seventh by allowing Cook to reach first on his low throw. Fromme forced the southern catcher at second.
Mitchell singled. Chet Chadbourne was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bass.
Muesel lifted a long sacrifice fly to Farmer, who dropped it. Fromme scored when Oldham intrecepted Farmer's throw to the plate, knocking the pel-let out of Baker's reach, Mitchell tal-lied. Chadbourne went t otherd and Blue Shows Inexperience.

Lew Blue showed his inexperience by catching Franz Hosp'e long foul fly, Borton scoring after the catch. The misery ended when Baker caught Al-

Dick Cox up budly. The Paradena chap doubled to start the inning and when Baker bit a semi-liner to Muusel he started to score from second. Of course Dick did not stop to think that we were only seven runs behind and that he had better be careful. Meusel made an easy catch and threw to Mitchell, retiring young Mr. Cox.
