

FOOD PROMISE ALSO LURES HUNGRY HUNS

Envoys Prepare to Make Long Stay in Versailles.

DELEGATES EAGER TO GO

Talk That Germans May Decline to Sign Dictated Peace Said to Be Not All Bluff.

BY CYRIL BROWN. (Copyright by the New York World, Published by Arrangement.) BERLIN, via Copenhagen, April 29. (Special.)—The German peace delegates who have gone to Versailles took along extra shirts, socks and collars sufficient for a long stay. It is seriously expected in official quarters that the dignified envoys are taking no chance with the French housewives who might strike and refuse to wash their linen.

There is no worry over food, however, for the tip has been passed from the financial commission to Berlin that victuals will be plentiful and that the Versailles trip will really be a junket. That expectation largely explains the scramble to get on board the first train and the hearburnings among those left behind.

The World and Oregonian correspondents had met only one eligible German who did not wish to go. He had been one of Count von Bernstorff's lieutenants and he said: "I have seen Versailles under happy circumstances, knowing the Trianon in peace times, and so I begged off from this trip, but my stenographer is crazy to go."

Germans Generally Hungry. This official pointed out an element of pathos in the situation, saying that after four lean years most Germans have such a craving for proper food that the prospect of eating their fill in Versailles seems like a promise of paradise.

Talk that Germany may decline to sign a "dictated" peace is not all bluff. Hypersensitive officials believe the delegates get back to learn home cooking again they will feel that it would have been easier to stick to it than to have indulged themselves in feasting, thereby unloading fresh panes of privation later.

The first departure among the delegates may be regarded as a "feeler mission." It is believed they have instructions to withdraw from Versailles and come home if they find nothing can be done by way of negotiation. If they are "not humiliated" and are permitted to express themselves freely and to win consideration for what they say, a second section, how in reserve and comprising expert advisers, primed with documents and exhibits necessary to a full presentation of Germany's case, will be rushed to their support.

ITALIANS MAY NOT SIGN (Continued from First Page.) gates, who are pressing for the payment of their share of the reparations. No definite decision on either question was reached.

The British peace delegation has given out its views with regard to that section of the covenant of the league of nations dealing with the Monroe doctrine. It is declared that the Monroe doctrine and similar understandings "have shown themselves in history to be not instruments of national ambition but guarantees of peace." It is expressly stated that the Monroe doctrine has "become an international understanding."

Washington Is Selected. It is reported that the first meeting of the league of nations probably will be held in the White House at Washington next October with Woodrow Wilson presiding.

ROME, April 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—Premier Orlando in his address in the chamber of deputies today admitted that he received on April 14 the American memorandum dealing with the Adriatic question and added that until that time he had always been assured that the American delegation had not reached any definite conclusion regarding Italy.

Premier Orlando said that Italy believed that her claims were founded on such high reasons of justice and right that any international treaty or agreement should be set aside so that they might be accepted.

The premier said that the world attention at present is gravely and for Italy "very grave," and that it was the duty of Italy "to preserve the greatest calm and serenity."

The principal duty in this grave hour for the world, and for Italy very grave," said Signor Orlando, "is to preserve the greatest calm and serenity."

the work of the government and on the Italian delegation at the peace conference as well as on the situation created by the last painful events.

"I think it opportune to recall briefly the attitude of the Italian delegation in that phase of the negotiations which began about the middle of March. At that time the preparatory work was finished and a programme for definite deliberation had to be decided upon. Questions concerning peace with Germany were given the precedence, but it was agreed that those regarding Italy should follow immediately."

"There are certain diversions of views between the two governments (Italy and the United States) but they never did believe that such differences were irreconcilable. Indeed, until April 14, when the American memorandum was delivered, I had always been assured that the programme of the Italian territorial claims was based on essential cardinal points of acceptance, which was an absolute condition for the Italian government."

PARIS, April 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—Ambassador Page telegraphed from Rome today that he had never did believe that such differences were irreconcilable. Indeed, until April 14, when the American memorandum was delivered, I had always been assured that the programme of the Italian territorial claims was based on essential cardinal points of acceptance, which was an absolute condition for the Italian government."

A telegram from Sebenico, in Dalmatia, 70 miles southeast of Trieste, published in the Epoca, states that Dr. Anton Korosec, president of the Jugoslav party, has arrived at Spalato and has organized an anti-Italian demonstration there. The telegram adds: "The Italians at Spalato blame the weak attitude of the American naval authorities for permitting public anti-Italian manifestations, notwithstanding the orders of the inter-allied council of admirals."

of pneumonia and medical men who treated the cases diagnosed them as grippe. The opinion prevails that Marshallfield again is in the grip of influenza. Many homes are reported to have from two to five cases, most of whom are confined to their beds. One councilman last night tried to compel reporting of all suspicious cases to the health authorities, but no record was made of any definite action by the council. Today's victim was Mrs. Annie Laasila of Englewood.

MRS. FRED SMITH SUFFERS 15 YEARS Got No Relief From Medicine Until She Took Tanlac—Now Enjoys Life.

"Tanlac is the only thing that has ever helped me, and that's saying a good deal, for I had been trying for 15 years to get relief from my trouble," declared Mrs. C. Fred Smith, who lives at East 827 Ermlina street, Spokane, to a Tanlac representative a few days ago. Mrs. Smith has lived in Spokane for 25 years.

"In all those years that I suffered," continued Mrs. Smith, "I could not eat anything in the vegetable line; even baked potatoes and gravy would cause severe pains in my stomach, and apples and other fruit would make me suffer so after I had eaten them that I got so I avoided them, although I had always liked fruit. No matter how little I ate, I would be bothered with gas on my stomach and I was restless and I couldn't sleep and was irritable and nervous and would get very depressed and was always craving food but didn't dare eat what I wanted most."

"I tried several treatments and also took everything that anyone would suggest but got no results, and then a friend of mine in Portland told me about the good Tanlac was doing for people who had troubles just like mine, so I tried it, although I didn't have much faith in it at first, because I had taken so many different medicines without being benefited, but Tanlac helped me and I certainly believe in it now. My relief has been truly wonderful and I now eat anything I want, even cabbage and sauerkraut, and I surely relish fruit now; in fact, I never knew that fruit tasted so good before! I have taken five bottles of Tanlac and it has built up my system and improved my appetite so much that I just feel like a new person. I have a large house and I do all my own work, and have 40 chickens to look after but I do everything with ease and never get tired, although I always felt tired before I began taking Tanlac. I am not nervous any more, nor irritable and I sleep like a child all night long and it rests me, too. I am so much better in every way that I am getting so I can really enjoy life once more and I certainly can speak well of Tanlac."
