BARBER ASSERTS HE IS BLACKMAIL VICTIM

J. J. Langston Sues J. N. Hart, Attorney, and Others.

$3000 EXTORTED, CHARGED

Plaintiff Avers That by Coercion and Threats He Was Forced to Give $500 in Cash and Note.

J. N. Hart, a Portland attorney, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Staley are accused by J. J. Langston, proprietor of a bar-ber shop at 203 Third street, of ex-torting $3000 from him in cash and a note by coercion and threats, in a suit filed in the circuit court yesterday, which demands cancellation of mort-gages totaling $2500 and the return of

The plaintiff asserts that on Friday, April 25, Attorney Hart, acting for himself and the Staleys, summoned him to his office in the Gerlinger building. There Hart is said to have produced a revolver from a desk, telling Langston that it belonged to Staley, who had threatened to kill Langston. Hart said that he had taken the weapon from Staley to prevent murder, it is alleged, and then demanded the payment of

CHAMPOEG MECCA TODAY

SEVENTY-SIXTH ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDING IS EVENT.

First Public Showing of Gegoux Picture of Historic Meeting Will Be Feature.

The seventy-sixth anniversary of the organization of the first American civil government west of the Rocky mountains and the eighteenth celebration of the same, at old Champoeg, 33 miles south of Portland on the east bank of the Willamette, will be held today. The picnic excursion for founders' day will leave the Ash street dock at the foot of Pine street this morning at 7:30 o'clock on the steamer Pomona, and no stops will be made except at Oregon City and Wilsonville. Returning the boat will leave Champoeg at 4 P. M. and make connection at Wilsonville with both north and southbound

One of the features of the day will be the first public appearance of the painting. "Birth of Civil Government," by Theodore Gegoux, which will be exhibited in the memorial building. Five years ago Mr. Gegoux became interested in the dramatic event of May 2, 1842, and decided to attempt a painting. He found a small building near the scene and established his studio there. The picture has had several narrow es-One of the features of the day will be The picture has had several narrow es-capes from destruction and only re-cently Mr. Gegoux's studio was destroyed by fire and all his effects were lost. EUGENE ASKS GAME FARM

REPORTED DISSENSION AMONG CHAMBER MEN DENIED.

Only Thought Was That Location on Main Road, if Possible, Might Be Better.

EUGENE, Or., May 2 .- (Special.) -There is no dispute among the members of the Eugene Chamber of Commerce regarding establishing of the proposed state game farm at Eugene, according to Bruce B. Brundage, chief of the game and fish bureau of the chamber Mr. Brundage refutes the story that peared in a Portland paper Thursday evening to the effect that the attempt to locate a game farm here is the reto locate a game farm here is the re-sult of a political agreement made be-tween State Game Warden Shoemaker and Representative L. E. Bean of Lane county, during the session of the leg-islature.

Regarding the charge that there is dissension among the members of the chamber as to location of the game farm here, Mr. Brundage said: "The fish and game bureau simply thought that if another site were pos-sible along the Pacific highway, in-stead of the Reddish farm, which is off stead of the Redaish farm, which is off the main road, it would be better to establish the farm there, as this would give travelers the opportunity of seeing what Oregon is doing in regard to game raising and restocking. There was no disagreeable argument what-ever among the members, or any un-derhanded work."
