first cutting in California has been com-pleted, some alfalfa and other hay having been injured by late rain. The growth of alfalfa and clover, generally was satisfactory, and showers and warn weather in Nevada were very favorable for the germination of alfalfa seed recently sown.

Most ranges, meadows and pastures are in good condition; irrigation is being practiced in Jerome district, Idaho, and good rains would help pastures in Utah and on California lowlands. Desert ranges are helding out well. Cattle and sheep are thriving and in the southeast are moving to summer range. Lambing is beginning tunder favorable conditions in Utah, continues in the northern states, and is nearly completed in the southwest. Shearing is progressing; it is nearly finished in northern California where the clip is reported to be unusually good and many growers have alsually good and many growers have al-

Investment Issues Also Share in Sudden Upturn-Wide Advances in Specialties.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Buying of "reorganized" or low-grade rails on a scale almost without parallel in several years
was the interesting feature of today's stock market and gentributed more than any other factor to the turnover, which again attained huge dimensions.

The demand for transportations included
not only the western and southwestern oil rails of recent prominence, but also encompassed many issues which have become little more than a memory to the average trader.

Dividend-paying rails and allied issues of ntrinsic value were I to 4 points higher. Steel yielded a fraction at the outset, but allied almost 2 points when affiliated issues egan to advance and closed at a gain of point, others of the same class gaining to 2 points.

I to 2 points.

Shippings, oils and motors and their specialties responded to another broad inquiry at extreme gains of 2 to 8 points, United States Rubber eclipsing all other issues in its advance of the final hour. Total sales amounted to 1,950,000 shares.

Bonds, were irregular, investments making slight gains. Liberty and foreign issues were steady to firm. Total sales, parvalue, aggregated $13,250,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

FLUENCES MARKET. Chicago Closes Nervous, But With Substantial Gains - Harvest

News Weakens Oats.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Builish constructions placed on a speech at Duiuth today by Julius H. Barnes, national wheat administrator, did a good deal to bring about a material fresh advance in the corn market here, but later the bearish aspects of the address received more careful study. Corn closed nervous, 24 43-te net higher, with July 11.03-14 pl.65 h and September 11.61 h $1.02-14. Oats finished the off to the advance, and provisions varying from 5c decline to a rise of 25c.

Throughout the session dealings in corn were on a broad scale, with aggressive commission-house buying most of the time until after midday, when the prevailing tendency awung toward eales to realize profits. The rapid fluctuations in the market, however, depended chiefly on the varying opinions in regard to the view of Mr. Barnes aheut wheat and flour. Some notice later was taken of proposed imports of corn from Arrica into this country.
