

THIRD GAME ROW GRABBER BEARS

7000 Yelling Fans See Oaks Tied in 8th, Beaten in 9th.

PINCH HITTERS EFFECTIVE

Walker, Kochler, Siglin, Baker, Bogart and Cox Unset Del's Men and Give Portland Series.

Pacific Coast League Standings. At Portland—Series 4, Oakland 3. At Seattle—Series 4, Seattle 3. At Portland—Series 4, Oakland 3. At Seattle—Series 4, Seattle 3.

BY HARRY M. GRAYSON. It appeared as though Carl Hollings were going to win his second game of the series yesterday afternoon until the eighth inning when Manager McClellan used Baker and Bogart as pinch hitters to advantage.

Enter Mr. Arthur Koehler, who has caught the bug of the seventh, Walter's count of a bad cold contracted by Del Baker. He passed up a couple which were not entirely to his liking and then looked the pellet into left field, charging Cox across with the winning tally.

Introducing Mr. Koehler. Enter Mr. Arthur Koehler, who has caught the bug of the seventh, Walter's count of a bad cold contracted by Del Baker. He passed up a couple which were not entirely to his liking and then looked the pellet into left field, charging Cox across with the winning tally.

Rowdy Elliott drove in two Oakland runs in the second when he singled in the center after having pitched the same spot and Willie Stump pitched double to left.

When Elliott threw low to second in the fifth inning when he pitched a double steal on the part of Frank Fuller and Walker, the latter sprinted across the rubber.

Let it be known that those Beavers of ours took their first series, four games to two. Also, gentle reader, we've won three straight games in the ninth inning, telling them they're going to stop us.

LOS ANGELES, May 4.—A single by Schick, scoring Siglin in the ninth inning, returned defeat into victory for Los Angeles in the afternoon game with Sacramento.

FANS—FATHER AND SON.

Carl E. Fenton, who died in Dallas yesterday.

FENTON RANKED AS STAR

ALL-ROUND OREGON ATHLETE FAMED THROUGH NATION. Won High Honors on All Varsity Teams, and Toured Africa With Dallas Quinlet.

In the death of Carl E. Fenton Oregon loses one of its foremost amateur athletes and one whose achievements will remain long in the memory of those who follow college athletics of the Pacific coast.

SEALS WIN WEEK'S SERIES, 5-2. Bees, Outclassed in Batting Contest. Lost Sunday's Games. SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—San Francisco won both games from Salt Lake, making the week's series 5 to 2.

ST. HELENS HIGH IS VICTOR. 14-10-3 Score Over Clatskanie Practically Wins Pennant. ST. HELENS, Or., May 4.—(Special.)—The St. Helens high school baseball team practically clinched the lower Columbia river championship when it scored a 14-10-3 victory over Clatskanie high school on the home grounds yesterday afternoon.

SEATTLE WINS FROM VERNON. Four Runs in Ninth Inning Turn Defeat Into Victory. SEATTLE, Wash., May 4.—Staging an eleventh-hour rally, Seattle put across four runs in the ninth inning of today's game and turned into victory what appeared until the last inning to be defeat for the home team.

INDIANA WINS, 6 TO 1. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., May 4.—Indiana easily won a western conference baseball game from Wisconsin here yesterday, 6 to 1.

PHILADELPHIA TOPS IN GAME WITH NEW YORK, 4 TO 3. BROOKLYN DEFEATS BOSTON. NEW YORK, May 4.—In the first Sunday major league baseball game played under the new "local option" law, Philadelphia topped New York 4 to 3.

TEMPLETON, SEAVEY ENLIGHTENED TO SHOOT

Portland Men Tie With 97 in 100-Bird Event Sunday.

HANDICAP CLOSE CONTEST

Stevens of Athena Gets Run of 25; Making Maximum and Saving Long Shoot-Off.

PENDLETON, Or., May 4.—(Special.)—Hugh Poston, professional, shared honors here today in the practice event of the state trapshoot with Frank Templeton and Jim Seavey, both of Portland.

Trophy Shoot Close. Omer Stevens, Athena sportsman, halted a prospective long shoot-off by breaking 25 straight.

Weather Is Good. Today's shooting was only practice. The weather was ideal except for a short time during the early part of the afternoon when clouds obscured the skyline.

Three women are entered in the events here. Mrs. Schilling, Mrs. Bowker of Heppner and Mrs. Jones of Boise. All of them showed up well in the day's events.

Trustee Offers $100 for Prize if Three Make Mile in Time. Athletic interest at Reed college for the coming week centers around the offer of $100 to the athletic association by James B. Kerr, of the board of trustees.

ST. HELENS HIGH IS VICTOR. 14-10-3 Score Over Clatskanie Practically Wins Pennant. ST. HELENS, Or., May 4.—(Special.)—The St. Helens high school baseball team practically clinched the lower Columbia river championship when it scored a 14-10-3 victory over Clatskanie high school on the home grounds yesterday afternoon.

FRENCH TRACKS TO OPEN HORSE RACING SEASON WILL BE RESUMED AFTER FIVE YEARS. Fashionable Dressmakers Along Rue de La Paix and Avenue de L'Opera Busy With Gowns.

PARIS, May 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—The resumption of horse racing on the French tracks after nearly five years of interruption is helping Paris to realize that the fighting is not an end. The racing season will open Monday at Maisson Lafitte.

HOW TO PLAY GOLF. DISSECTING the golf drive into its component parts for the purpose of detailed consideration you find that it naturally falls into four divisions: stance, grip, swing of the club, and action of the body during the swing.

PULMAN SOPHOMORES WIN STATE COLLEGE HOLDS ANNUAL INTER-CLASS TRACK MEET. PULLMAN, Wash., May 3.—(Special.)—Washington State college sophomores won the annual inter-class track meet

JUNIOR DIVING MEET AWARDED MULTNOMAH

Winged M Tank Picked for National Indoor Event.

DATE IN NOVEMBER LIKELY

Local Club Officials Surprised When Announcement Made, as Honor Was Not Expected.

November 22 is the probable date of the junior national indoor fancy diving championship, which has been officially awarded to the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club by Frederick W. Rubien, secretary of the American Amateur Athletic union.

BROOKLYN DEFEATS BOSTON

PHILADELPHIA TOPS IN GAME WITH NEW YORK, 4 TO 3.

CINCINNATI, With Sallee on Mound, Wallops Chicago, 8 to 1; St. Louis Loses to Pittsburg, 3 to 1.

BROOKLYN, May 4.—Brooklyn defeated Boston in the first Sunday major league baseball game played under the new "local option" law.

PHILADELPHIA TOPS IN GAME WITH NEW YORK, 4 TO 3. CINCINNATI, With Sallee on Mound, Wallops Chicago, 8 to 1; St. Louis Loses to Pittsburg, 3 to 1.

PHILADELPHIA TOPS IN GAME WITH NEW YORK, 4 TO 3. CINCINNATI, With Sallee on Mound, Wallops Chicago, 8 to 1; St. Louis Loses to Pittsburg, 3 to 1.

Pittsburg 3, St. Louis 1. ST. LOUIS, May 4.—Cooper held St. Louis to five hits, while Pittsburg struck in the fourth, and won the opening game of the series.

DE ORO LACES BILLIARD TITLE. ROBER, CANNEX WINS THREE-CUSHION EVENT, 150 TO 141.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 4.—The Annapolis midshipmen met defeat on the field and track here yesterday before an all-star team of the University of Pennsylvania.

IRON WORKS TEAM WINS. SMITH & WATSON IRON WORKS DEFEATED THE HAWTHORNE BUSINESS MEN'S BASEBALL TEAM, 8 TO 4, YESTERDAY MORNING.

WILLARD SERVICE. Formerly at Sixth and Burnside, is now located at 409 BURNSIDE Near Tenth.

Boston Garter. Worn the World Over. GEORGE FROST CO. MAKERS BOSTON.