BEWARE OF BURGLAR. DETECTIVE'S ADVICE

Don't Try to Shoot Him, He'll See You First.

Minneapolis Police Ask Co-operation of Citizens in Putting Stop to Crime Wave.

MINNEAPOLIS.-Citizens must co evidence to burglars that their homes which hazard the safety of vessels near are temporarily unoccupied. Safety the loading area, when the harbor is measures to foil burgiars are urged by Mr. Ray, whose statement follows:

"Liberty bonds held by nearly every Minneapolis family, and as a rule kept from Port Orford during 1919. in their homes, along with jewelry and money, and the carelessness and ignorance of the householder in matters pertaining to the protection of property against theft, have increased in incentive to theft in a tremendous deferment.

Porch CSlimbers Dangerous.

"There will be an awakening of the potential rogues who are eager to get that which belongs to others. Day and night the thief is scheming, locating money and valuables and devising means of obtaining possession of such valuables. The crook can think, and to purpose, when the matter of self-interest is the object. Crime is not confined to the shrewd professional type that knows where danger lurks and how to avoid it. The plentitude of valuable collateral appeals to the cupidity of the morally weak, and this calls for a special amount of protection from the police and householder. "There will be an awakening of the

from the police and householder.

"The second-story burglar,' the 'porch climber,' the 'dinner worker,' mean one and the same line of crime.

Don't Attack Burglar Advice.

"Should you awake and find a burglar in your house, do not attempt to attack him. Many persons have committed suicide by making such attempts. The burglar is wide-awake and always armed, cool and collected, and has every advantage, and will light or kill if danger of capture confronts him. On discovery of a burglar in your house, start talking to 'John or 'George,' and ask if someone is not the house. Keep talking, and after a little time given for the burglar to step out of the house, get up and turn on the light. You will find the burglar sone. Once a burglar finds that members of the household are awake he will depart at once. In such cases use all haste in telephoning the police station, whose number should be kept in a convenient place for quick action. When phoning give yourn ame and address.

"Don't fail to stop your newspaper during your absence from home. An accumulation of newspapers on the front porch is assurance to the burglar that no one is at home.

"Don't fail to have your walks shov-pon't fall to change locks downstairs ir in apartments when taking a new place. The Yale type of lock is the only lock that will not yield to the burglar's picks, but such a lock should be installed in such a way that the latch cannot be reached with a thin seek knife from the authorized with a thin seek knife from the autho cannot be reached with a thin case knife from the outside. "Don't aifl to keep all windows which lead to the fire escapes securely "Don't hide money under carpets, in vases, drawers or beds, for such are the first places a burglar looks for val-

"Don't pay charges on packages of merchandise marked 'C. O. D." until you have established the fact that the package really belongs to you. There is a class of criminals who watch the newspapers for notices of deaths of the heads of families and then send a confederate with a C. O. D. package in the name of the deceased. The family, thinking it is something that was ordered before death, willingly pays the dered before death, willingly pays the C. O. D. charges, only to find that they have been shamefully swindled.

Chain Lock Advocated. "The chain lock, which permits the door to open a few inches, allowing the housewife to get a view of the visitor while interviewing him in safety, is a mighty good thing to have an oll front and back doors for use day or

"It is a mistake to give newspapers items respecting your departure from the city. Criminals keep posted on huch notes and are likely to make your home a call during your absence.

Should you be attacked, if possible be sure to get a good look at your as-sailant's face for future identification. When you contemplate a trip of any length of time, pack up your silver-ware, brick-a-brac and valuable rugs, and place them in storage, and you will be sure of having the mon your

Such rauds can be eliminated by the chief of police in every city by issuing in-tructions to all citizens not to donate any money to charity solicitaors with-out a letter or card signed by the chief of police personally. Before issuing such letter or card, the chief of police should make a complete investigation of each applicant to se that his cause is justified and honest. Every reliable charity should be willing to give its hearty co-operation in protecting the public against such fraud. "Prudence gives a definite answer to

A Great Opportunity

Under former management this house had be reputation of being one of the best Suz-ner Resort boarding houses in the state. It is located near the center of Newport n Nye creek, in a sunny nook, easily ac-cessible to the beach. The house is furnished for 60 guests, bas of and cold water, electric light, telephone. The dining room and lobby are heated ith two large fireplaces. The dining room ill reat 120 people. The kitchen is furnished with a 12-foot, ur-oven French range. There are two and one-half acres in the rounds, nearly all under cultivation, making an ideal opportunity for a small dairy hicken ranch and home garden that could be conducted in connection with the house. There is a beautiful trout stream, well stocked with trout, that passes through the
