Dutch Press Calls Peace Treaty Crime

GERMANY CONTINUES WAR

War Continued Forever, Says Rotterdamse Courant.

GERMAN MINDS STUNNED

The Dutch press has called the treaty a crime, and has expressed the opinion that the treaty is likely to lead to war. The press has also expressed the opinion that the treaty is likely to lead to the German peoples being more war-minded than ever before.

FLACOR, May 11—The German government has issued a statement in which it has expressed its unwillingness to sign the treaty. The government has stated that it is not satisfied with the terms of the treaty, and has called upon the Allies to make alterations in the terms before it will sign the treaty.

THE RESULT COUNTS MOST

As you smoke a Van Dyck Cigar you will realize that here at last is something very choice.

This superior quality is due to many reasons. An unusual stock of the better tobaccos is drawn from to secure a blend that is very choice. Ripe manufacturing experience contributes workmanship beyond the common kind.

But the reasons will not interest you anywhere as much as the result—the very choice result.
