$175 PRIES STOLEN AT AUDITORIUM.
The first real, honest-to-goodness crime to be committed at "Jazz Canyon," at the municipal auditorium, vas perpetrated Saturday night, when a well-dressed youth took advantage of the revelry of a capacity house and stole a $75 sterling silver manicure set which had been donated to the "dadies" club by Jaeger Bros., as first prize in the centest for the ment popular woman attending the festival. The thief, according to reports made to the floor managers, threw his overcost over the case containing the set, the gas disappearing with the coat a moment later. The entertainment committee announced that the prize would be replaced today with a new one. Announcement was also made from the bandstand Saturday night, and every woman present will receive a souvenit, Other new features are contemplated for each night this week.

"From the inception of the drive the question has never been Will we make t?" from Oregon counties but 'How much over are we going?"

"The counties which had the most difficulty in securing their quotas in the fourth loan were among the first over this time. Those were Jackson Douglas, Josephine and Lane. One reason they went over strong was that their population had increased by the return of shipyard workers and de-mobilized soldiers.

"I would like to say a word of praise for Dr. Bernard Balley who, as county chairman, brought Lane county through with an oversubscription of 10 per cent in spite of the heavy financial loss among farmers of that section from the drouth of last summer. He traveled thousands of miles in his

a week ago Saturday by the kindness of local bankers who made up the $2,500,-000 deficit. This is entirely a misapprehension. "Portland banks did not take a dollar of the loan those last two days," contends Mr. Smith. "The sti: ulus of the last day was the most phenomenal patriotic demonstration this country has ever seen. Every cent that came in on a flood of popular response to the appeal to make Portland a winner those last days was from the general public. The vast majority of the bonds pur-chased were in the $50 and $100
