

OUTCOME OF SENATE FIGHT IS UNCERTAIN

Republicans Discuss Action of Progressive Group.

BORAH STILL DETERMINED

Idaho Member Declares He Will Never Vote for Penrose, But Cannot Speak for Others.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Republican senators continued today to discuss plans for organization of the new senate preparatory to the meeting of the party caucus Wednesday.

Leaders of both the regular and progressive groups tonight said the situation apparently was unchanged except as to the number of the latter group willing to carry their opposition to Senators Penrose and Warren to the floor of the senate.

Several senators considered as belonging to the regular group asserted that but two or three progressives would carry their attack to the floor, while the progressives said they did not know how many of them "would go the limit."

The progressives were said to have admitted their willingness to support Senator Smoot for the senate appropriations committee, but refused to favor him as president pro tem.

Formal notice of the attitude of the progressive group was given to Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader by Senators Borah and Johnson, and it was understood that they were told by the party leader that their fight was going to be considered at Wednesday's conference.

GERMANS PROTEST TERMS

that is protesting against the signing. In the name of the independent socialist party, Richard Weiler told the workmen's councils of Greater Berlin that such "a dictated peace of cruel severity," as the Germans put it, would pose upon Germany could not be a lasting peace.

Herr Mueller, another of the independent leaders, seized the occasion again to assail the old imperialistic regime in Germany, which he declared incurred blood guilt by the invasion of France and Belgium and the destruction of mines and industries.

Arguing against the prevalent protests, Karl Kautsky, writing in the independent organ, Die Freiheit, says: "shall we sign the peace if it is not to be modified, or have we not any other choice? If it were a peace of destruction, a death sentence, as it is called, agreement to it would be suicide.

But hard as the conditions are, they do not lead to the downfall of the German people, even though they will make life terribly difficult. A genuine downfall, a rapid physical downfall, would come, however, if we declined to sign the peace, and reverted to a state of war. After a few weeks of fruitless opposition, costing millions and many lives, we would be forced to capitulate."

Negotiations Hoped For. The semi-official Wolff bureau last night issued a statement to the effect that the reply of Premier Clemenceau to the note of the German peace delegation regarding the peace treaty, although it seems to reject a discussion, implies a renewed adherence to the agreement of October and November, 1918 (armistice), and hints that practical proposals may be made for negotiations on the draft.

The statement adds: "That such negotiations are contemplated appears from the fact that the allies on Saturday asked for several printed copies of the German proposals on the league of nations and the labor charter. Premier Clemenceau's reply to the German note on the league evades the central point of the question."

BERLIN, May 11, via London.—Government troops have occupied Leipzig. A number of the spartacist leaders are said to have been arrested.

COPENHAGEN, May 12.—The occupation of Leipzig by forces of Gustave Noske, minister of defense, was a complete surprise, says a dispatch from Berlin to the National Tidende. Spartacans made only slight resistance.

Germany Seem Stunned. A state of siege was immediately declared and steps taken to restore authority of the government.

COBLENZ, May 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—The impression gained by American officers through talking with Germans regarding the peace terms is that many of them are bitter and sullen, but are inclined to resign themselves to accept any terms no matter how harsh. No concrete plan of action has been suggested in the event the German delegates at Versailles refuse to sign the treaty.

American officers say the common people in the occupied area had widely divergent views, but that as a whole, they appear more or less stunned. Some are in a spirit of bravado.

One American who had circulated freely among the civilians reported that none of them expected that Germany would accept the terms. They said they could not see how the people would be able to pay the indemnities.

Several civilians, according to the summary, expressed the opinion that the peace conditions were very hard, but still were not as severe as some had expected, and that they would rather that Germany should accept them than invite consequences of refusal.

COBLENZ, May 12.—Dr. Otto Bauer, foreign minister of German-Austria, in a speech to the workers, protested against the German terms handed to the Germans at Versailles. An account of his speech is printed by the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin, a copy of which has been received here.

Plan Meets Objections. Dr. Bauer objected to the plan for making German-Austria a neutralized state and concluded: "This small German-Austria cannot exist alone. Unless we join with big Germany we shall not even be German-Austria."

VERSAILLES, May 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Herr Giesberts and Herr Landsberg of the German peace delegation, accompanied by several secretaries, will leave Versailles tonight for Berlin.

The departure of Landsberg and Giesberts is in no sense to be interpreted as a breach in the peace negotiations. These plenipotentiaries not only have the important ministerial portfolios, respectively, of justice and posts and telegraphs, but are among the most influential political leaders in Germany.

Landsberg is regarded as the brains of the majority specialists, while Giesberts is very high in the councils of the Catholic party and the Catholic labor unions. Their counsel is, therefore, required by the government in determining its attitude toward the peace conditions.

It is understood that both the ministers will return to Versailles in case the peace treaty is signed.

FIVE MEXICANS EXECUTED

CANANEA BANDITS ROUNDED UP BY GUARDS.

Five Bridges on Branch of Mexican National Railway Reported Destroyed by Villistas.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., May 12.—Five members of the band of 22 outlaws which raided Cananea, Sonora, Mexico, Friday morning, killing five policemen and escaping with money and loot totaling about $50,000 in value, were reported in Cananea today to have been captured Sunday by Sonora rural guards under General Carlos Plank, and have been executed.

As a precautionary measure, two troops of the First United States cavalry under command of Major Wilson Heaton were sent to San Bernardino ranch, 76 miles east of Douglas, to strengthen the border patrol. Other border patrols to the west of here are understood to have been strengthened also.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Five bridges on the branch of the National Railways of Mexico between Torreon and Chihuahua City have been destroyed by Villista forces, according to dispatches from Mexico City, quoting "high officials" of the Mexican government. The dispatches said that when traffic is restored again, every train will be preceded by "an exploring train" carrying a guard of federal troops.

Troops are being moved from Torreon to protect workmen engaged in rebuilding wrecked bridges.

EL PASO, May 12.—One of the bridges on the National Railways of Mexico, burned by Villa forces was the great Ortiz bridge over the Conchos river.

General Manuel Dieguez is commanding the federal forces at Torreon and was ready to move northward when the burning of the bridges was reported.

Mexican officials here declare that as soon as General Dieguez joins General Castro, commanding at Chihuahua City, the federal forces at that point will number 15,000 men.

Villa agents here admit that Villa has been forced to postpone his expected attack on Chihuahua City because of the strength of the federal forces.

EL PASO, Tex., May 12.—According to information received here from Parlat today, Francisco Villa retook that city Thursday and made prisoners of the garrison of 260 men under Colonel Gomez, who had occupied the town but two days before.

TACOMA WILL INTERVENE

Protest Made to Interstate Commerce Commission on Grain Rates.

TACOMA, Wash., May 12.—(Special.)—The city council will intervene before the interstate commerce commission to protest against the action started by Portland to get freight rates on grain from the inland empire lower than that of Puget sound ports.

The matter was presented to the council today by City Attorney U. E. Harmon, who declared that Seattle and other Puget sound ports are being discriminated against by the action of the interstate commerce commission.

city council at their meeting Monday afternoon to succeed the late Roland W. Cotterill as member of the council.

The honor came to Major Carroll quite unexpected, as he was not a candidate for the position and did not even know of the vacancy on the council until his arrival in Seattle Sunday afternoon after more than two years' service overseas, having been invalided home for treatment at the Letterman hospital in San Francisco where he spent a month.

Decision to cast their votes for Major Carroll was reached late Monday morning by a group of councilmen who had determined to support only a returned soldier for the position but had been unable to agree upon a candidate until Major Carroll's name was suggested.

SCARLET FEVER SCARE CAUSED BY POISON OAK

"ONE of the aftereffects of the spectacular flying circus that visited Portland Monday," says the Portland (Or.) Telegram, "was a hurry-up call to City Health Officer Parrish. Several bad cases of scarlet fever had broken out in St. Johns, it was reported. With trepidation as to a possible epidemic of the disease, Dr. Parrish rushed early to the scene of action. Instead of the scarlet fever, three well-developed cases of poison oak were discovered by the guardian of the city's health. The three children had forgotten there was such a thing as poison oak in their mad efforts to catch a close view of the birdmen and their planes at Mook's bottom."

If the mothers of these children had had a bottle of Santsseptice Lotion at hand and had applied it, they would have been spared the apprehension caused by the supposed visitation of a dreaded disease. Santsseptice is magical in its results in cases of even the most virulent poisoning; it allays instantly the itching and the irritation. After a few applications the eruption and discoloration of the skin entirely disappear. Santsseptice also heals quickly and easily other irritations of the skin, such as fever-and cold sores, chafing, sunburn, windburn and the eruptions and inflammation caused by insect bites. It is remarkable in its soothing, healing action. Santsseptice is easily procured at most drug stores. If your druggist cannot supply it, send 50 cents, with his name, to the Ebenezer Laboratories, Portland, Or., for full-size bottle, postpaid.—Adv.
