AUSTRIANS ARRIVE

Envoys Received Courteously by Allied Representatives.

DR. RENNER HEADS PARTY

Germans, Attending Conference, Are Refused Privilege of Greeting Austrian Delegates.

met the Austrians courteously. and although there was no official handshaking, many members of the party were greeted by unofficial handshakes from old acquaintances as they were being shown to the waiting auto-

Dr. Renner Heads Party. The delegates then proceeded under military escort to the villas set aside for them overlooking the valley of the Seine and Paris and lacking the high fences and sentries so much in evi-dence at Versailles. Chancellor Renner was apparently in excellent spirits, and in the course of his remarks said:

"I hope I may go away with as joyful a heart as I bring."

Although strict military regulations were enforced and the crowds of villagers held back by sentries at the railway station and on the avenues through which the delegates were hurried to their abiding place, these precautions were unnecessary, for the crowds displayed mild curiosity rather than hos-

Friendly Spirit Displayed.

been barred. It seemed like a fete day, unconnected with war, and the good spirits of the crowd awaiting the Aus-

the windows as the train entered the station, uncertain of their reception, but Chancellor Renner was sure of his ground and welcomed the friendly spirit displayed with heartiness, which was reciprocated in a measure by those assembled. spirit displayed with heartiness, which was reciprocated in a measure by those assembled.

Greeting Is Courteous.

Professor Lammasch was accompa-nied by his wife and daughter and there were several women secretaries, who were shown the greatest courtesy. The journey hither.

The Austrian chancellor, in his speech on arrival and later in conversation, spoke German, but excused himself as being unable to speak

Members of the Austrian delegation. questioned on their arrival, intimated that they would demand the attach-ment of German Bohemia and German Tyrol to Germany and declared that without these concessions they would be unable to sign the treaty. This was not said with such conviction as would indicate a firm determination, and the impression was gained that they were ready to sign, even if annexation to Germany was not permitted.

PARIS, May 14.—Belief that the peace treaty with Austria would be handed to the delegates of that nation by the end of the present week was him. expressed today.

The allied powers to be represented at St. Germain in the negotiations with the Austrians will be less numerous than those at Versailles, comprising only the states which declared war one German will be less of the treaty, declares that they mean the ruin of only the states which declared war one Germany if they are enforced. or broke diplomatic relations with Austria-Hungary.

gation at St. Germain, should provide of a commercial high court to have charge of commercial affairs in the republics formed from the old empire go to the bad in fast company. His and the court should have authority

How does she do it, that Fifth Avenue girl? How does she get that glint in her hair, that's like a bit of sunlight painted in? Where has her wealth taken her, that she got this magic, colorful touch that makes her hair gloriously beautiful?
Why, she went to the smartest hair-dresser in town, and he told her he was going to give her a golden glint shampoo. She knew that anything this particular hair-dresser recom-mended was absolutely safe, so she was quite content to try it. And after she had had one golden glint, shampoo, she was never satisfied with That's why her hair looks as if bathed in perpetual sunlight. She uses golden glint regularly.

Now the Fifth Avenue girl demands golden glint shampoo wherever she goes, and finds it in all high class hairdress-ing establishments. Ask for a Cinderella golden glint, in order to get the best.

BROADWAY DYE WORKS MASTER DYERS AND CLEANERS. Phone Enst 625.

Court to Stay Differences. "Otherwise," he said, "the political differences of the various nationalities will cause a continuance of the pres-ent commercial chaos with the result that the superior trade organization will come in and eventually dominate the country politically as it did form-erly. Also there are likely to be new wars under present conditions.

authority in regulating trade and it is also important that there be a con-troller in charge of the railroads and VIENNA, May 13 .- (By the Associat-VIENNA, May 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Polish attacks in the region of Lemberg in the last few days failed completely, according to reports received here from Ukrainian sources. The Poles attempted a strong infantry charge against the Ukrainians, but were moved down with machine gun Although 1 fire, leaving hundreds of dead behind them as they retired.

them as they retired.

The same message indicates heavy fighting near Kiev, occasioned by bolsheviki attacks on the army of Simon Petiura. The fighting is said to be especially heavy near Bericheff, southwest of Kiev.

BELGIUM'S CLAIM RESULTS IN NEW COMPLICATIONS.

Objections to Making, Stream Free Waterway Find Favor in Influential British Circles.

BY JAMES M. TUOHY. (Copyright by the New York World, Pub-lished by Arrangement.) PARIS, May 14 .- Unexpected complications have arisen in connection with the Beigian claim that the River Scheldt be made a free waterway, giving Bel-gium access to the sea from Antwerp

It is said that strategic objections to making the Scheldt free find favor in influential British quarters, if not in the British admiralty itself. With ac-Under official escort the correspond-ents and others were conducted cere-monitously to the station through streets from which other traffic had neutral, the capture of Antwerp by Ger-

Such an agreement, to be effective, should be embodied in a convention recognized by the other powers concerned in the treaty of 1839, Great Britain being one of those powers.

Beigian control of the Scheidt would lead to creatly improved any increase. nates were quartered in one of the requisitioned hotels.

After their arrival at the villas the Austrian delegates again thanked the escerting officers for their courteous reception and chatted for a time, contrasting the sunshine and warmth of France with the snows and bleakness of Austria and Switzerland and the journey hither.

PAROLED MEN ALL WORKING

(Continued From First Page.) mechanics. A year or so back he was a "gun man" in more than slang—a professional hold-up operator, with the "gun" ready to launch its bullet. Rather nonchalantly he pulled out his bankbook. It bore evidence that his last week's wage was $97. The last "job" he did in the underworld netted him a gold watch, $3 in change and from one to 10 years in the posifrom one to 10 years in the penitentiary.

An ex-"lifer," paroled after 11 years in prison, made his financial report in cash. He doesn't believe in banks. Delving into a trousers pocket ne yanked out $500 in currency as proof

"Say, you're taking an awful chance

One Goes to Night School.

"One of the men who came to see me VIENNA, May 13.— (By the Associated Press.)—The peace conference, during the stay of the Austrian deleing marine engineering and is almost and win back his place.

"Just the other day we received word that a parole violator was in Paris, wearing the croix de guerre and having been cited several times for conspicuous gallantry—wounded and all that. We have sent for his picture so that he may be positively licentified, and I will ask the board to reinstate him as a citizen.

Seventy Per Cent Make Good.

"Seventy per cent of the men paroied"

The note on the question of prisoners family and the question of prisoners of the return of prisoners of war and civilians with the least possible delay. The delegation regarding Daimatia. In this statement, he said:

"I hope that free America will not take the responsibility of appearing like an oppressor to the eyes of millions of Italians desiring to reunite with their mother country."

Professor Luzzatti likewise expressed the president wilson "would"

gards and that he turned to crime again for that reason.

"The boys have their own opinions of this sort of fellow. When one of them today showed that he had earned $97 last week in the yards another laughed and said: 'Julius Ward couldn't live on that.'

live on that."

"Of all the men who appeared before me today only one needed a talk on bracing up. The rest were all as well dressed as I am and had their check books in their pockets. And he just happened to be one of those weaklings who are content to live in a cheap lodging house and earn a few dimes a day."

Under the provisions of the parcie

Under the provisions of the parole system the men are permitted to make application for reinstatement to citizenship at the end of a year. Meetings similar to that of yesterday will be held in Portland on the second Wednesday of each month. "We hope to develop a closer inti-macy between the paroled men and the parole office," said Mr. Keller, Dry slabwood and inside wood, green stamps, for cash. Holman Fuel Co. Main 353, A 3353.—Adv.

Phone your want ads to The Orego-nian. Main 7070, A 6095.

"Such a high court should have final Workmen Are Restrained With Much Difficulty.

PEACE IS SCORED

Although Terms Are Not Acceptable, Practical Counter Proposals Are Said to Be Lacking.

PARIS, May 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—Karl Renner, Austrian chandedlor, brought his peace delegation and attendants to St. Germain, near Paris, today, and at a later date will appear before the representatives of the allied of Austrian manufactured goods for use here. This and associated powers to receive the conditions which will spell peace for conditions which will spell peace for conditions which will spell peace for the decided by the first and peace are peaced of the allied to secure food in Europe instead of depending upon American importations, and the relative peace are will appear before the expressionatives of the allied of austrian manufactured goods for galvanize the national assembly into flour and potatoes for use here. This section of the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the device of the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion. He says all parties have decident in the proposition of the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the poor action. He says all parties have decident in the proposition of the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the plan of the United States repeal and assist in a second Easter rebellion peace for the plan of the

The correspondent says that if the government signs the terms as presented it will be overthrown by the militarists riding the nationalist wave. If there is much further delay, he says, the government will fall through the communists who will incite the work-without passing, as now, through Dutch BERLIN, May 11 .- (By the Associated Press.)—Declaring that the terms of the of peace presented by the allied and against Germany, associated governments to Germany "contemplate the physical, moral and intellectual paralysis of the German people"; that Germans were "hypno-tized" by statements made by Presiden Wilson, and that he himself is looking spirits of the crowd awaiting the Austrians appeared to be shared by them, for they emerged smiling from their special train.

HUNS "HYPNOTIZED" - EBERT

Peace Terms Declared Beginning of Industrial Paralysis.

It was a cosmopolitan crowd which awaited the delegation and the French. English, Italian, Japanese and American journalists and officers. Some of the Austrians gazed inquiringly from the windows as the train entered the spirition unwastale and the respectant to the British naval position than if the river were free for Belgian access to the sea.

Belgian access to the sea.

The Belgians complain that this view takes into account only measures to mitigate the consequences of possible future invasion of Belgium while provision should be made against the possibility of such invasion, and that her interests are thus sacrificed on the altar of naval strategy. Belgium to the still hoped that American democracy would not accept the treaty framed at the peace conference. He rejected with disdain the suggestion than if the river were free for Belgian access to the sea.

The Belgians complain that this view takes into account only measures to mitigate the consequences of possible for the invasion of Belgium while provision should be made against the possibility of such invasion, and that he ripected with disdain the suggestion than if the river were free for Belgian access to the sea.

The Belgians complain that this view takes into account only measures to mitigate the consequences of possible for the invasion and that the present German powernment would resign rather than accept or rejected with disday that he still hoped that American democracy would not accept the treaty framed at the peace conference. He rejected with disday that he still hoped that American democracy would not accept the treaty framed at the peace conference of the rejected with disday that he still hoped that American democracy would not accept the treaty f said. "is only beginning to awake from the hypnosis into which it has been lulled because of its solid faith in the sincerity and truthfulness of Mr. Wilson's programme and his 14 points. The awakening will be terrifying, and we all leads forward to it with provent and all look forward to it with gravest ap-prehensions. In the face of the cold, naked realities we still consciously by the Germans.

The plan contemplated is to use an allied naval force stationed at Flemburg, in which the United States, Great Britain and France would join. Sev-tral battalions of infantry would also be used to police the territory.

(Continued From First Page.)

war and labor subjects were delivered Saar Arrangement Protested. A note on territorial questions pro-tests particularly against the Saar Valley arrangement and the transfer of the Maimedy, Moresnet and Eupen districts to Belgium, as well as the forced evacuation of a part of Schleswig.

A note on reparations does not pro-test against the payment by Germany republics formed from the old empire and the court should have authority for a long period of years, Captain "These men are all right. Very few of them ever disappoint us. Back home we have a service flag with 60 stars and two of them are gold ones. The ex-prisoner, as a general rule, was eager to serve the flag. He felt that in this way he could prove his manhood and win back his place.

Seventy Per Cent Make Good.

"Seventy per cent of the men paroied from the Oregon penitentiary make good. Where the police arrested Julius Ward the other day, a desperate young hold-up, he is reported to have said that he couldn't make good in the ship-yards and that he turned to crime again for that reason.

Oral Discussions Wanted.

Professor Luzzatti likewise expressed the hope that President Wilson "would not put France and England to the alternative of breaking their agreements (with Italy) or breaking with the difficulties. It ought today to be all the easier to reconcile the different viewpoints and clear up certain obscurviewpoints and clear up certain obscur ties still existing on certain details of the problem

"For instance, as a result of the di-versity of the viewpoint of the law in the different countries interested, the the different countries interested, the German delegation considers it indispensable that prisoners of war and the civilians undergoing penalties for other infractions than those of discipline should be in a group that ought to be repatriated unconditionally. Germany has recognized this principle regarding prisoners of war and civilians of the allied and associated powers in its Huns Would Meet Austrians. 'The German delegation deems in necessary for reasons of equity to accord certain improvements in the treat-ment of prisoners, military and civil-ians pending the time when they may

COBLENZ, May 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—Marshal Poch is due to arrive at Coblenz on Thursday, He is making a trip which is taking him to the different headquarters of the occu pied areas. The marshal will come here from Mayence and will be escorted down the Rhine by French gunboats. He will be entertained at luncheon by Lieutenant-General Hunter Liggett, commander of the American 3d army, and will then proceed to Cologne under eturn to their own country.

Poland is laying claim to some of the warships surrendered by Germany. She presented her claims to the council of foreign ministers this afternoon

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Officials here do not believe that renewed ef-forts by the British government to secure an agreement calling for the poolmen into a general strike. In either the workevent the treaty must bring internal chaos to Germany and confusion to Europe.

THE HAGUE, May 14.—The Dutch government denies that it has decided to be binding and it was all beauty. THE HAGUE, May 14.—The Dutch government denies that it has decided to surrender former Emperor William. The question at present, it contends, concerns only Germany and the entents.

In the supreme economic councit, the decisions of which must be unanimous was arrested with Melfowes and Mc-bayes and the supreme economic councit, the decisions of which must be unanimous was arrested with Melfowes and Mc-bayes and Mc-bayes and Mc-bayes are supremented by the supreme economic councit, the decisions of which must be unanimous was arrested with Melfowes and Mc-bayes are supremented by the supreme economic councit, the decisions of which must be unanimous was arrested with Melfowes and Mc-bayes are supremented by the supremented by on the subject.

The United States has 654,000 tons of German shipping, including some of the finest and largest of the former German liners. Approximately 350,000 tons of American shipping was lost in the submarine warfare, and the difference probably will be retained by the United States and paid for in the final settlement of this country's claims against Germany.

Henvoy" left behind by when the latter left former revolutionary army and was "ambassador of the United States."

LONDON, May 14.—E one of the members of the sent by Irish societies. States to Europe, still States to Europe, still sent on the latter left former revolutionary army and was "ambassador of the United States."

PEACE DEMAND UNCERTAIN

HELD MOST IMPORTANT.

Process of Extracting Indemnity From Runied Country Declared Beginning of Germany's End.

Copyright by the New York World, Pub-LONDON, May 14.—(Special cable.)-The Manchester Guardian says: "There are two main aspects of the proposed peace treaty-the territorial and the economic-and the second appears to considerable portion of the dark of willow and the second appears to the faith which found its epithem in the names of Wilson and the United States and the conception of the United States and the conception of the democracy of the league of nations, "We cannot believe that this has all been an illusion, and that the confidence and hopes of a whole people have been duped in a manner unknown to history. Even uncommendation of the control o cling to the faith which found its epit- us at present to be far more important.

election speeches, and if it is determined to enforce them will ruin the whole business."

FOCH TO ACT IF HUNS BALK ITALIANS ARE FORTIFYING

LARGE FORCES LANDING ON COAST OF DALMATIA.

Italy's Position Set Forth by Professor Luzzatti After Intervelw With King Victor Emmanuel.

LONDON, May 14.—The Italians are landing large military forces at Zara and Sebenico on the coast of Dalmatia, according to a Reuter dispatch from Beigrade, the Serbian capital. The troops are being moved eastward and are fortifying the ridges and passes.

ROME, May 14 .- (Havas.) -- Gabriele D'Annunzio, the author-aviator and Professor Luigi Luzzatti had a long interview yesterday with King Victor Emmanuel. Afterward Professor Luz-

Phone your want ads to The Oregonian. Main 7070, A 6095.

Irrigated Farm Lands

in the heart of the best corn, alfalfa, grain, potato, fruit and livestock country in the United States.

In Malheur Co. Eastern Oregon Under New Warm Springs Irrigation Project

Over 3000 Acres for Sale by Owner WRITE OR SEE B. B. WOOD, ONTARIO, Or.

Conspiracy to Obtain False Passports Acknowledged.

GERMAN ENVOY IMPLICATED

Arrests Coupled With Announce ment of Arms Landed in Ireland for "Another Rebellion."

get to Europe from this country on a passport made out to him under an-other name as an American citizen. "General" Liam Mellowes, arrested here simultaneously with Dr. McCarten and charged with the same offense.

James McDermot, arrested here with Mellowes.

The arrests of McCarten, Mellowes and McDermot came with the an-nouncement that arms had been landed in Ireland for another "Easter rebel-lion" in 1918, to be financed with Ger-man money. A German who gave his name as Baron Max Recklinghausen when the latter left for Berlin. lowes was a "general" in the Irish revolutionary army and Dr. McCarten was "ambassador of the Irish republic

LONDON, May 14.—Edward F. Dunne, one of the members of the delegation cent by Irish societies in the United States to Europe, still declined today to comment on the report that David Lloyd George, the British prime miniser, had decided not to see the Amerians or to admit that he had received my such advices, Mr. Dunne and Mr. Ryan will remain neutral, the capture of Antwerp by Germany, it is argued, would constitute a forward to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American to the future "with gravest less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions," President less serious menace to the British naval apprehensions are the said today that he still hoped that American the sa British government.

knocklong, Ireland, May 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—Four police officers who were taking a Sinn Fein prisoner to Cork were attacked by an armed band at the Knocklong station today. The armed men rescued the prisoner and killed one of the policemen and seriously injured another. A third policeman is missing. third policeman is missing.

Knocklong is a small town in county Limerick, about 18 miles southeast of the city of Limerick. It is on the Great Southern and Western railways.

International Situation.

There's something about them

you'll like-

Herbert

London Cigarettes

5 Acre Suburban

Home

just off Powell Valley road, not far from limits of city of Portland, Nearly new, thoroughly modern house 1½-story bungalow type, very large living room with fireplace, large dining room and kitchen on first floor, three nice large bedrooms; large, light, alry batheroom in white enamel; full cement basement with furnace, wash trays, etc.; billiard room or den; garage for two cars and other outbuildings; five acres of splendid land, all in cultivation.

This is one of the choicest suburban homes between here and Gresham, hard-surfaced roadway all the way. Must be sold quickly and is offered at the extremely low price of $6500. This could not be duplicated for $10,000.

We also have to offer 25 acres of fine land adjoining, part under cultivation, for $5500.

Those in the market for very desirable properties described above will do well to see us.

The Crossley-Vigars Co.

Strong Ties Between This Bank and Business

CERVICE is the link of satisfaction con-Onecting the Northwestern National Bank and its twenty-seven thousand patrons. Its helpfulness entitles it to be known as the "big brother bank" of business.

Free Books on Gardening and Canning

May we help add to the output of your garden and to the thrift of your household by handing you our books on Gardening and the Home Canning and Drying of Vegetables and Fruits? Inquire at the Savings Department.

> The Northwestern National Bank Northwestern Bank Building to take place has not yet been an

The council of four has replied to suggestions incorporated in notes from the German delegates regarding labor and the repatriation of prisoners. Three additional German notes have been delivered to the council.

One of the last notes of the Germans, which deals with the economic clauses of the treaty, asserts that en-forcement of the terms will mean the ruin of Germany. Another note touches on the Saur valley arrangement, the not pay for damages on the principle that she was responsible for the war. A member each from the British, French, American, Italian and Japanese delegations has been appointed by the council of four to deal with the objections and proposals of the German plenipotentiaries.

Efforts are being made by the British cace delegation for the pooling, on he basis of tonnage lost during the sar, of former German merchant vessels seized by the allies. Poland is seized by the allies.

Twenty to the package

DANCING GUARANTEED IN EIGHT LESSONS LADIES $2.50 GENTLEMEN $5.00 DE HONEY'S

> BEAUTIFUL ACADEMY TWENTY-THIRD AND WASHINGTON. New classes for beginners start Mon-

one of Geneva's cinemas. A film was produced early in the week entitled "We Shall Never Forget." One of the incidents depicted by the film was the sinking of the Lusitania.

The Germans apparently are losing pride in that supreme act of wholesale murder, because their consul in Geneva demanded that the film should be pro

As the result the manager of the inema cut out portions of the obnox-ous film, including the Lusitania in-ident and one or two others which reninded the Germans of their disregard of the rights of humanity and the rules

BUDAPEST MAY FALL SOON

Allies Said to Be Delaying Attack to Save Efforts.

VIENNA, Tuesday, May 13 .- (French Wireless Service.)-The allied troops which are marching on Budapest will not make any hurried advance on the city, according to information reaching

Read The Oregonian classified ads.

To All Joining These Classes This Week To All Joining These Classes This Week
Take one or four lessons a week.
Tickets are good until used. The only school teaching from 8 to 11. Plenty of practice. No embarrassment. Separate step room and extra teachers for backward pupils. A thorough printed description of all dances free for pupils. We have large and select classes, and the social feature alone is worth Jouble the price, and this is the only school where they guarantee to teach you to dance. Private lessons given all hours. Call afternoon or e vening. Learn from professional dancers who can dance and teach dancing. Learn the gingle fox trot and new jazz steps. Phone Main 7656.

SEE FOR YOURSELF. Any person taking private or class essons in any other school who will present their ticket at the door at any of my classes this week will receive a esson from me free. See who can early dance and teach the people to (GEyes carefully examined) and properly fitted with glasses without the use of (drugs by skilled specialists. Complete lens grinding afactory on the premises.

(THE SIGN OF PERFECT) SERVICE

SAVE YOUR EYES

OPTICAL INSTITUTE

200-210-11 CORBETT BLDG., FIFTH AND MORRISON Since 1908.