SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 16 .- (Special.)-Harry Gardner was invincible today and Wild Bill Rodgers' band of Vipping Senators, still rankling with the sting of yesierday's defeat, sent over a barrage of safe ones upon the hill occupied by Penner; then they went over the top for an aggregate of nine runs. The Beavers made the first at-tack and put one over in the first, and faded from then on. Final score, 9 to 1.

The locals grabbed theirs in clusters, Fifteen safe blows, three of them doubles, were crowded mostly into three innings. The first, sixth and eighth were the big producers. Four safe swats in each of these cantos put seven of the Sacramento runs across; two in the first, two in the sixth and three in the eighth. The other two came in the third and fourth; hits and runs in these frames being respectively one Portland's lone tally in the first came over upon Blue's single and stolen base and a pair of infield outs staged by Sigiin and Rader. But four more hits were gathered from Gardner's delivery and these were scattered.

Don Rader horned into another sentitional double rich and head "Beha"

Blue were the Beaver hitting heroes, each gathering a pair of singles. Fallentine replaced Baker behind the bat in the seventh and broke into the league in the eighth, his only time up, with a sharp single into right. Roy Middleton hit safely four times in five trips, while Art Griggs poled three safe ones, out of four turns at the platter. Scars: Sacrament

PORTLAND TWIRLERS IN SAD, SAD SHAPE

Real Pitcher From East.

CALIFORNIA RAVES AGAIN

Sport Gossip From Down Coast Is Varied, Both as to Quality and in Its Variety.

BY HARRY M. GRAYSON

It's a safe bet that while Pitcher Penner was being whanged for those 15 hits yesterday afternoon at Sacramento that Manager Walter Henry McCredie was wording another S. O. S. to President Frank Navin of the Detroit American league club. Lickings administered with the Mar-shalltown youth on the mound are be-coming as familiar as the simple love that two policemen and two thieves make four, so don't be surprised to see some good chucker hiking west to join the Mackian machine before long. Penner's one good showing this sea-son was made when he whitewashed the Oaks here. Vernon and Seattle pounded him justily, and his work on the first road trip was poor. Ken re-ported in good shape, for he twirled winter ball around Los Angeles so it is not condition that is holding him

With Guy Cooper webbly and George with Guy Cooper wobbly and George Pennington III, although he is gamely taking his turn on the hillock, we're in a sorry plight for heavers. If Cooper does not show anything on his next trial, and if Pennington's illness should happen to become more severe, that heretofore heralded wonderful pitching staff promises to fade away like a pound of soap in a hard day's

"All champions when they box in the north"—headline in an Oakland, Cal, newspaper. It heads the story of Morris Lux's loss to Jake Abel at Seattle. Once more that well-known San Fran-cisco and Oakland spirit is shown. "Anyone not from around the seal rocks is a bum," said one of the greatest middleweight boxers in the world while the welterweight championship from Billy Wright at Tacoma. Wright beat Johnny McCarthy of San Francisco. What clearer claim could Abel have to the title?

They fall for more "bunk" in Cali-ornia than does any other state, so why worry? Next thing we know those California boys will be featuring Ad Santel once more, Pitcher Harry Wesver, righ-hander, has been purchased by Oakland from the Cubs on the recommendation of Rowdy Elliott. He reports at Salt Lake Tuesday and will supplant Ira Colwell, who is the property of Brooklyn out here on an option. Colwell has failed to round into shape.

Paddy Maher, who promoted boxing contests here when Jack Grant wore knickerbockers, is the intest candidate for the matchmaking job to be dished out by the municipal boxing commission when it meets shortly after May 29, the date when the new 10-round bill becomes a law.

We had here when the new 10-round bill becomes a law.

If Paddy should be chosen he would no doubt resurrect Aurelio Herrera, Rufe Turner, Jimmy Britt and a few of the other kids who were boxing when Paddy was the big gun. The last time that Paddy staged shows at the old exposition building he specialized in what he termed the "grand old guys of the game." If memory serves us correctly Paddy claims the distinction of staging the last 10-round bout we had here when he attempted to we had here when he attempted to pull the "fountain of youth" stuff with Mysterious Billy Smith and Al Niel doing the heavy lines.

Yep—Paddy says he's a can-did-date and won't take "no" for an answer.

No less an authority than Mike Mc-Nulty firmly believes that Mike Gib-bons can defeat both Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey. That's a rawther broad statement, but McNulty is not alone in his contention. Many close followers think likewise. When they made Gibbons someone lost the mold.

H. Chandler Egan, formerly national and western amateur golf champion, intends leaving his apple blossoms at Medford long enough to compete at Spokane in the northwest championships next month, say various and sun-dry rumors floating from southern Ore-It is another piece of that the competition is to be the best

With Egan, Heinrich Schmidt, now playing under the colors of the Gray's Harbor Country club; Rudolph Wilhelm, Oregon state champion, and other celebrities under the big tent, the Inland Empire city is assured of some great golf. There is certain to be a formidable invasion of California golf-
