KLAMATH FALLS, OR., April 29, 1919—The undersigned will receive bids at the office of the reclamation service. Klamath Falls, Or., until 2 o'clock P. M. June 5, 1919, when the same will be publicly opened for the reclamation service. Klamath Falls, Or., until 2 o'clock P. M. June 5, 1919, when the same will be publicly opened for the reclaiming of about 1990 acres of swamp land in Crystal Creek marsh: 1000 acres in Hank's marsh, and 1980 acres in Pelican Bay marsh, upper Klamath lake. Oregon, within the Klamath project. No rental will be exacted for the use of the land, but the successful bidder will be required to begin work within six months from the date of the contract, to complete the work within three years from said date and to give bond in the sum of $40,000 for the reclamation of the Hank's marsh lands and a bond of $20,000 for the reclamation of the Hank's marsh lands and a bond of $20,000 for the reclamation of the Pelican Bay marsh lands; said bonds to be with an acceptable surety company as surety, conditioned for a faithful compliance with the terms and provisions of the respective contracts. Bidders may submit proposals for any or all three tracts, but in awarding the contract each tract will be considered as a separate unit. Each bidder must state the shortest period of time for which he will accept the use of the land as a consideration for reclaming it, which period will be considered in awarding contract. Bidders and others have opened. For further information and a copy of the specifications and contracts to be entered into apply to U. S. Reclamation Service, Klamath Falls, Oregon.
