STANDIFER-CORNFoot DOUBLE-HEADER

Second Game Is Real Contest, Ending 1 to 0.

STANDIFER TAKES SERIES

Al Zwielfel, in Box for Cornfoot, Holds Opponents Scoreless for Seven Innings.

After playing rather ragged ball in the first game of yesterday's double-header on the Vaughn street grounds, the Standifer and Cornfoot teams settled down to business and gave the smattering of fans and fanettes on hand a real game.

Al Zwielfel worked in the box the second game for Cornfoot and shut Standifer out in the seven innings of the contest, allowing no hits and no runs, Cornfoot winning, 1 to 0.

The first game was a hit and boot affair, each club registering nine hits, but Standifer won out, 11 to 5, because his hits were banded out at the right time.

AMATEURS WILL BOX AT M. A. A. C. TONIGHT

City Championships Will Begin at 8:30 o'Clock.

12 OR 15 BOUTS PROMISED

Next Year Is Expected to See Full Resumption of Club and Inter-Club Activities.

For the first time in some years the city amateur boxing championships will be held at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club tonight, the first bout scheduled to go on at 8:30 o'clock.

Not since the old four-round days have the boxing fans had a chance to see the "old-time" amateurs step through the ropes and fight for the city titles at various venues.

Tonight's programme of fisty fevities in the Multnomah club gymnasium will be the first and last of the season. Since the war started it has been impossible to stage anything in the way of boxing tournaments, but Eddie O'Connell, boxing and wrestling instructor at M. A. A. C., is staging tonight's amateur boxing.

Another event that will be resumed next fall at Multnomah club will be for the Edgar Frazer wrestling medal, for which the wrestlers will compete. A medal is given to each grappler who wins a match and after capturing his opponent in each class will be presented with a regulation A. U. medal emblematic of the championship of the city.

Frank Harner, chairman of the boxing and wrestling committee, and Eddie O'Connell have lined up a number of promising looking boxers to show their wares and some real bouts are looked for. Tim Wicker, holder of the 176-pound National A. U. wrestling title, arrived in Portland yesterday.

Wicker is competing under the colors of the Spokane Y. M. C. A. and is represented with a regulation A. U. medal emblematic of the championship of the city.

Echos From Hemen Square.

JESS WILLARD blames Jack Curley and Tom Jones for trying to hurt his reputation. Just how you can hurt something that "ain't" is a question. How do you get that way, Jess?

Of course, if Willard wants to call his war record a reputation, alright, but if he has any head at all on his shoulders he should be willing to let that matter drop.

Willie Meehan lost another fight in Pittsburg. One good thing about Willie is that he never knows when he's whipped.

Romeo Hagen, Seattle middleweight, is at the Letterman hospital in San Francisco recovering from his recent illness incurred in France. He has announced that he will retire from the ring for good.

Fred Fulton has confessed again. This time he admits he is good. Any more at home like you, Fred?

Reports say that the Arena at Toledo, O., for the Willard-Dempsey fight will be four times as large as the one at Reno, Nev. Who are the fellows that were going to oppose this ordeal?

FOUR INJURED IN MISHAPS

TWO HURT WHEN STREET CAR STRIKES AUTOMOBILE. Logger Struck by Broken Cable and Another Hit by Car Brake at Good Samaritan Hospital.

Miss Bett Warren, 21, and Edmond Craig, were injured yesterday forenoon when the auto in which they were passengers collided with a streetcar on Knott street. Both were taken to Good Samaritan hospital.

Miss Warren has an injured back, not considered serious, while the boy was cut about the hands and face. Both live at 222 E. Third street, South Beach.

Good Samaritan hospital also reported the injury of John Twombly, logger, and Peter Swanson, head rigger, employees of the Fish Hawk Lumber company, at Carey, Or., who were struck by a broken cable while at work Saturday afternoon.

Twombly has a fractured ankle, and Swanson is cut and bruised about the head and face. Their injuries are not serious.

Stead, of 791 Kearney street, an employee of the Larken & Green Logging company, is at Good Samaritan hospital with a dislocated jaw and severe bruises. While operating a logging train Saturday afternoon the brake slipped, striking Stead in the jaw.

ANCIENT MOUNDS VISITED

Corvallis Students Inspect Curious in Linn County. ALBANY, Or., May 18.—(Special.)—More than 60 students of the Oregon Agricultural college, led by Professor J. B. Horner, professor of history, visited Linn county yesterday and inspected the ancient mounds of the Tangent. In Albany they inspected the mounds of Dr. J. L. Hill and J. G. Crawford, who collected many curious things from the mounds.

The students visited also the United Presbyterian church here and heard a history of the organization. This church was formed by uniting the Associate Presbyterians and the Associate Reform Presbyterians, two old Scotch Presbyterian branches, each affected for the first time in Linn county, established two churches, one at Union Point, south of Crownsville, and one at Oakdale, southwest of Albany.
