o'clock this evening and tomorrow will play again at 3 and 8.

In his two days' engagement at the Rialto Taberski will play against the best of Portland pocket billiard stars instead of having a regular playing partner travel with him. Taberski believes that the fans of each city would rather see their own stellar lights in action against him than a stranger.

The four Portland men whom Manager Harry D. Green of the Rialto billard parlors has selected to play Taberski in the four match games of 125 balls each are Milo Condon. Charles Webber, Jack C. Bugbee and Fred Gaisley. Milo Condon is the three-cushion champion of Oregon and Portland and is also a crack pocket billiard player. is also a crack pocket billiard player. Portland billiard circles, Webber and Gaisley specializing in the pocket billiard game, while Bugbee is also a well-known three-cushion player.

The set of balls which Taberski plays with in his match games are of pure ivory and are valued at $500. In the usual games the only ivory ball is the cueball, but every one of the 15 shot balls are also ivory in Taberski's special set. This fact makes them take wonderful courses around the green cloth and cushions.

After each match Taberski will give an exhibition of fancy shots.
