Paddock, Episcopal bishop of eastern Oregon, visited friends in The Dalles this week. Aside from relating some of his own experiences, which included life with the fighting doughboys at the front, Bishop Paddock gave details regarding the death of Deaconess Alice J. Knight, who acted as his secretary and assistant in eastern Oregon for about 10 years. Bishop Paddock, who went to France early in 1918 with an ambulance unit

FALING DECISION IS DUE
JUDGE TAZWELL WILL RULE IN CONTEST CASE THIS WEEK.
Litigation Involves About $750,000 and Has Been Before Local Courts for Several Years.
Decision in the Xarifa Jane Faling will contest, which occupied a large portion of the time of the county court during nine months of 1918, is promised by Judge Tazwell this week. Judge Tazwell hoped to prevent the necessity of an appeal to the circuit court and supreme court by holding off his decision until he was advanced to the circuit judgeship next Thursday, so that the case could go direct to the supreme court, but because of possible legal tangles involving the validity of such action, the judge determined yesterday to finish up the case while still in the office of county judge.
