the box in the sixth inning and win-

Tom Seaton used to pitch for Mc-Credic and it gave him great pain to throw the hooks into Waiter today. Tom pitched one of his good games and he kept right on going in the high until he had the last man out. When Judge McCredie signs the pay check of George Maisel on the first and 15th of each mouth he nearly has a fainting spell. But Maisel showed to-day why he is worth the money he

FOR LEAGUE HONORS

Foresters, Firemen and Cornfoot Tied for First.

BANKERS TO MEET TONIGHT

St. Johns Lumber Company Team and Capitol Hill Club Scheduled for Sunday Contest.

Three teams are tied for first place n the Commercial baseball league. The Foresters, Firemen and Cornfoot Yannigans have each won two games and dropped one this season, while the Mc-Dougal-Overmire aggregation has a toe-hold on the cellar, having lost toe-hold on the cellar, having lost three games.

The schedule for Saturday calls for the Firemen's union to meet the Catholic Order of Foresters on the Columbia Park grounds, while McDougal-Overmire will strive to put one over on the Cornfoot Yannigans at Sellwood Park. Both games will start at 3 o'clock.

With the ticup for first place, some outfit is due to take a drop in the percentage column Saturday afternoon. All of the three teams tied seem to be on an equal footing and a real race is developing among the clubs. The McDougal-Overmire team is undergoing a strengthening process and expects to give its opponents a tussle from now on.
