J. H. Joyce of the Hazelwood, who is a member of the local committee, is planning some interesting features for the convention. "We will demonstrate that the jce cream and confection business is a big asset to the state. We are not to be considered merely caterers to the child with the penny. We have as our most reliable patrons the men and women of the state who daily are giving more and more patronage to our food articles." J. D. Mickle, state dairy and food commissioner, will be one of the speakers.

Decision Is Expected to Result in Heavier Traffic on Sellwood Line Cars.

Interpretation of orders of the public ervice commission of Oregon with reference to transfers between interurba lines and municipal lines by officials of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company is that transfers cannot be issued to passengers going to or coming from the Oaks.

The patrons of the amusement park contend that in view of the fact that the resort is within the city limits of Portland the issuance of transfers should be governed as on other lines within the city, notwithstanding the trains are operated on the same tracks as the traffic to Oregon City, But many of the cars that handle the resort travel

LACK OF MONEY BLAMED

Dr. Parrish Announces Plans for Changes to Go Even Further Than Jury Suggested.

Immediate steps will be taken to carry out the suggestions of the jury of seven citizens which investigated the death of Eugene Tuck, in improvements at the emergency hospital and complete reorganization in the health bureau's work at the city jail, accordng to Dr. George Parrish, city health

"My plans for the future include a general revision of the system in vogue, at present, at the emergency hospital. I plan to go even further than the sug-gestions offered, by recommending cer-tain improvements which have been needed for some time, but have not been carried out because of lack of money in the health bureau's yearly appropriation.

Co-operation Is Promised. "In connection with the criticism which has been placed upon me personally, I wish to say that if mistakes have been made in this case, special care will be taken that they will not occur again. I have worked 14 hours each day in the health bureau and during unusual times I have worked even longer. Operators were in accord with this policy of the government, and continued manufacturing in the face of sales returns which were, at times, as much as $4 per thousand feet under operating cost.

"Commercial business now has resumed in good volume. Values, influenced by demand and excessive supply, are strengthening. However, the recovery has not yet reached the $26 average to which the industry was declared to be entitled by the war industries board, while costs, since the signing of the armistice, have increased 23 cents per thousand feet, taking the industry as a whole. The war industries board price fixation was primarily based on conditions within the industry as reported by the federal trade commission.
