$46,000 IS YET SOUGHT

WOMAN'S BUILDING FUNDS DE-SIRED IMMEDIATELY.

Extra Solicitors Chief Need and Alumni Members Are Asked to Volunteer Services.

With commencement drawing nearer at the University of Oregon, the committee which is conducting the canvass for funds for the erection of the proposed Woman's building on the college campus is trying desperately to secure enough workers from among alumni to complete the campaign, and ways and means of securing these workers was one of the principal subjects under consideration at the luncheon of workers at the Hazelwood yesterday noon.

The field to be covered is large, and the teams that have been secured cannot begin to cover all of it in the time that is available before commencement.

Headquarters of the campaign are at 421 Oregon building, and all alumni who are able to give a portion of their time to the work are urged to telephone this office, Broadway 1071, and notify the secretary where they can be found and what time they will be able to give to the campaign.

"The State Chamber of Commerce has increased the campaign and many other organizations have contributed to the fund and have given it their backing," said Chairman Homer Angell, in charge of the Portland canvass, "and we feel that the situation is so well understood by the public that if we can only get workers enough to cover the field fully, the sum that still remains to be raised will be secured in plenty of time."

Arrangements are to be made to have Colonel Leader, stopping in Portland from a trip over the state, appear before the various clubs of the city and speak in behalf of the building fund.

With only about $46,000 remaining to be secured out of the original $100,000 required, all possible efforts are to be employed to carry the canvass to a speedy and successful conclusion.

Columbia—Lila Lee, "Rustling a Bride."
Majestic—Tom Moore, "Thirty a Week."
Star—"The Spreading Evil."

"Doug" at Two Theaters.
A PHOTOPLAY novelty will be introduced to Portland filmdom commencing next Saturday, when the latest Douglas Fairbanks production, "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo," will be shown simultaneously at the Peoples and Star theaters.

"Our experience in presenting big photoplays, and particularly in the case of 'Mickey,' which ran for two weeks at the Peoples theater, has shown the impossibility of accommodating the public of Portland," explains John C. Stille, manager of the Peoples Amusement company. "So with this new Fairbanks picture, which we consider even a bigger attraction than 'Mickey,' we have arranged to show the picture at both of our downtown theaters at the same time."

"The Knickerbocker Buckaroo" is a seven-reeler, cost $344,000 to produce, and required six months in the making. Fairbanks, one of the biggest of all screen stars, is said to have put the result of his entire screen experience into making this picture the very biggest thing he has ever presented to the public.

A picture has never before been shown at two theaters in Portland at the same time, and the local film world has a keen eye to the experiment.

Majestic.
Tom Moore, that rollicking Irishman recently elevated to screen stardom, opens an engagement at the Majestic theater today in the automobile racing comedy-drama, "Thirty a Week." Tom has the role of a chauffeur-racing driver in his new picture. He wedd the pretty daughter of his employer and discovers that he's launched on a particularly choppy matrimonial sea, with a rival conspiring to force a divorce. Tallulah Bankhead, granddaughter of United States Senator Bankhead, is Tom's leading woman.

"Bucking the Snow to Mount Hood," the unique scenic, showing how a one-ton Chevrolet truck, fully loaded, broke all records for motor-driven vehicles on a run to Mount Hood, is a special attraction on the programme, while a Harold Lloyd comedy and Pathe weekly are other subjects.

Present for Myrick.
Before his departure last night for Butte, Mont., where he will become manager of the Riatta theater for Jensen & Von Herberg, E. J. Myrick, retiring manager of the Liberty theater, was presented with a beautifully engraved gold fountain pen by his employees.

"I wish we could give him an automobile," asserted one little usher, and she expressed the degree of affection the attaches of the Liberty feel for their departing chief.

Screen Gossip.
An abatement in crime has followed the opening of Sunday motion picture shows in many towns of New York state, according to statistics compiled by officials.

Donald McBride, associated with the Drews in many of their comedies, is to be with Mrs. Sidney Drew in her first new pictures. He will play a frivolous bachelor character and Polly will be his sister.

Eugene O'Brien is another star worth more dead than alive. Lewis J. Selznick has insured Eugene for $1,000,000, thus protecting the producer against the possibility of the star dashing in front of a motor car, drowning or man-aging in any other way to suddenly snuff out his existence.

Artaft is to present an all-star cast in "Huckleberry Finn."

Eddie Foy and his progeny will make recently elevated to screen stardom, opens an engagement at the Majestic this summer. They will be called Foy Fun Films.

Lester Cuneo, former Metro villain, is back in the U. S. A. after a year and a half in France.

Eileen Percy, stolen from the Century Grove by "Doug" Fairbanks for pictures, will be seen with Sessue Hayakawa in "The Gray Horizon."

George LeGuere and Lucy Cotton from the stellar combination in "Sun-up," to be made in New York. Le Guere was with Shirley Mason in those "Seven Deadly Sins."

Cullen Landis, a juvenile comer, has signed a five-year contract with Goldwyn. His first story will be with Mabel Normand.

Will M. Ritchey, Paramount staff writer, says that 90 per cent of the writers of rejected scenarios might sell if they would only take their time in submitting, rewriting first several times.

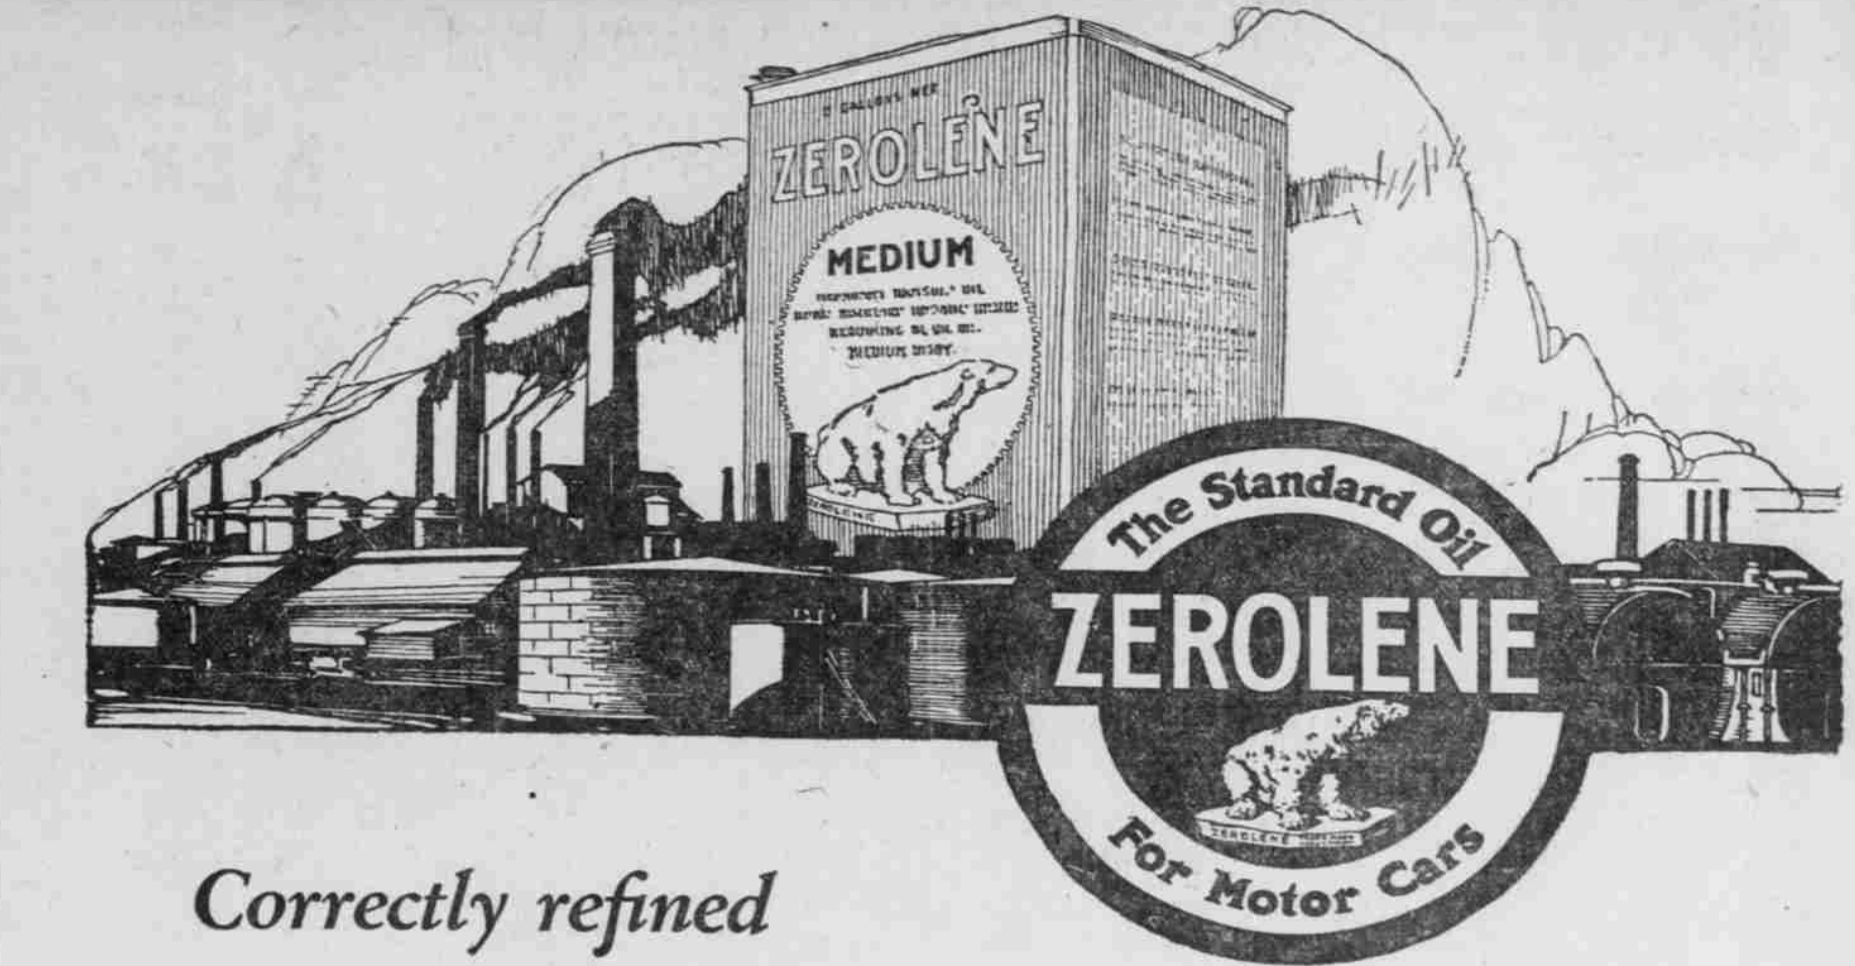

Lewis J. Cody, the latest he-vamp of the screen, has gone to New York to give Broadway a treat.

Jack Gilbert has joined the Morosco studios and will be working with Marguerite Clark under the direction of Walter Edwards.

Alfred Whitman has signed a contract to appear in stock at the Los Angeles Morosco theater.

Lois Wilson is now working with Bryant Washburn and may remain for two or more pictures.

AND THE "World's Record Snow Climb By Auto"

—the most remarkable pictures ever taken of any self-propelling vehicle traveling in deep snow. Taken in Oregon by the Lifeograph Co. and showing a local Chevrolet dealers, and has been admitted nationally to be a word's record. The truck used was purchased by one of the passengers immediately after completion of the test. It was the standard Chevrolet $1510.00 one-ton truck, the lowest priced worm-gear driven truck in captivity, with a regular, everyday, Chevrolet value-in-head motor.

Truck owners have claimed this feat impossible, but the pictures don't lie—they merely surprise you.
