Noble, proprietors of the Maulding and Noble soft drink establishment and branch postoffice station at East Thirtieth and Tenino streets, Sellwood, pleaded guilty to an indictment for gambling, before President Judge Stapleton yesterday and were fined $50 each. Men who had played cards in the room at the rear of the soft drink parlor complained to the district attorney's office about a month ago that much money had passed hands there.

TERWILLIGER ROAD HARDSURFACED—The last unit of roadway in Terwilliger boulevard is now hardsurfaced, the work having been completed by the municipal paving repair plant Monday night, according to Paving Superintendent R. S. Dutton. Last year the city hardsurfaced a long stretch of the roadway, but the upper end of the roadway beginning at Hamilton avenue was not completed because of lack of money in the park department appropriation. Park Superintendent Keyser secured an additional appropriation this year of $4000 to finish the work. The job included 1297 feet of roadway.

JAPANESE COUNCILMAN PAYS RESPECTS.—Goro Mashimo, prominent merchant and member of the municipal assembly, or city council of Tokyo, Japan, was a visitor in the city hall Monday, calling on the members of the Portland city council and paying his respects to them. Mr. Mashimo is making a tour of American cities, studying municipal problems and the American manner in which they are handled.

HIKERS LEAVE FRIDAY MORNING.—The Multnomah Amateur Athletic club hiking trip to Waktum lake, for the week-end outing, will leave Union station at 7:30 Friday morning. Friends and members of the Multnomah club who desire to join the excursion should notify Thomas Griffin, Main 1297, or telephone the Multnomah club, Marshall 5186, not later than tomorrow night. The trip promises to be rather strenuous, and hikers are advised to come equipped with sufficient food for three days and their warm clothing.

MAX PLEAS GUILTY, SENSATION AT ROROLEN.—J. J. McCall, indicted on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses, pleaded guilty before Presiding Judge Stapleton yesterday, was sentenced to from one to five years in the penitentiary and paroled. Upon pleas of his mother and wife opportunity was given him to make restitution after a scathing lecture from Judge Stapleton.

CHINESE ARE FINED.—Municipal Judge Rossman Monday fined 10 Chinese, $150 for having a lottery outfit in his possession. Lee Wa paid a fine of $50 for having opiates in his possession, and got a sentence of 10 days in jail for selling them. The judge fined Bob Coleman $100 for violating the prohibition law.

CASE AGAINST AUTO OCCUPANT DISMISSED.—Municipal Judge Rossman yesterday dismissed the case against C. C. Vincent, who was injured Monday afternoon in an automobile accident at Grand avenue and Clay street. It had been alleged that Vincent was driving the auto under the influence of liquor when the machine collided with an electric car, but the court held the testimony insufficient in Vincent's case.

FARM HELP SPECIALIST RESIGNS.—J. W. Brewer, farm help specialist of the United States department of agriculture for Oregon during the past 18 months, has resigned his position. He will take a position with the California Fruit Products company, at Alameda, Cal., beginning June 10. Mr. Brewer will go to Corvallis tomorrow night for a short visit with his family. A. J. Bale has been named as his successor in the Portland office.

DR. ENHROTT TO LECTURE.—Rev. Albert Enhrott, former pastor of the East Side Baptist church, of Portland, now survey and promotion manager of the State Law Enforcement and Protective League of California, will give a lecture tomorrow evening in Christensen's hall on subjects related to the work he is now doing. The lecture, which will begin at 8 o'clock, is free to the public.

FIRE IN RESIDENCE EXTINGUISHED.—The home of N. A. Koblenz, 35 East Fifty-third street, was threatened by a fire, Friday night, when a gas stove flame was discovered in the kitchen. Mr. Koblenz extinguished the blaze with a garden hose, but not before 30 of his canary birds had been suffocated. The property damage was small. The origin of the blaze is not known.

MORE ADVERTISING HELD NEED IN STATE DEVELOPMENT.

Many Women Interested in Problems Confronting Manufacturers Present at Meeting.

"Shop talk" featured Monday night's meeting of the Associated Industries of Oregon, the speakers dealing with questions pertaining to the development of Oregon as a manufacturing district, the need for greater advertising and the importance of cooperation with people throughout the state.

Following the addresses refreshments were served. Each guest, on leaving, was presented with a sample of products made by more than 25 of the Portland firms.

The meeting was largely attended by women interested in problems confronting the manufacturers, and in the outline of the organization's plan, as presented by Chairman Huntington.

TRAIN HITS LOADED AUTO Mrs. B. F. Loomis Only One of Eight Occupants Injured.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 27.—(Special.)—An automobile belonging to B. F. Loomis, South Aberdeen grocer, and driven by his son, Maxwell Loomis, was struck Sunday afternoon by a Milwaukee train and carried in front of the engine for a distance of 55 feet, then shunted to one side, going a distance of nearly 200 feet.

Eight persons were in the car, including Mrs. Loomis and four daughters. Mrs. Loomis was the only one hurt, her injuries consisting of a broken leg and some bruises.

FIRST FARM UNIT STARTED O. A. C. Men in Charge of Work on 60-Acre Tract.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 27.—(Special.)—The first farm settlement unit, purchased by the state, is now being developed by a scheme planned by H. D. Scudder, Clair Wilkes and Palmer Patton of the farm management department of O. A. C. The tract of land is a 60-acre diversified farm plot two miles south of Independence. The farm will be developed on funds loaned by the state to the settler.

The land settlement board, appointed by the governor, has been authorized to select sites in five different parts of the state. Plans will be drawn up and the sites equipped by the state. Two farms will be in eastern Oregon, one on the coast and one in southern Oregon.

SHIPYARD MEN ON STRIKE Riggers and Helpers in Seattle Want 80 Cents an Hour.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 27.—(Special.)—Approximately 50 riggers and helpers walked out from the Duttie shipyard Monday morning in a body in a strike for 80 cents an hour, the wage of mechanics, instead of the 74 cents they have been receiving.

The men report that they expect riggers and helpers in other plants to walk out with them. The men contend that as they are classed as mechanics in their local No. 104, they should be recognized as such at the shipyards.

Mrs. Rachel Walters Dies. EUGENE, Or., May 27.—(Special.)—Mrs. Rachel Walters, a pioneer of 1847, was buried at Alpine a few days ago. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. O. P. Waggoner, in Portland, at the age of 75 years. She was for a number of years a resident of Eugene until the death of her husband, J. W. Walters, in April, 1918. She was the stepmother of Fred C. Walters, president of the Emira Lumber company.
