Members of Port Commission Renew Oaths in Compliance With Amendment' to Charter.

Complying with provisions of an amendment to the charter, enacted at the last sees ion of the legislature, which provided for a new personnel on the Port of Portland commission, a majority of the members met yesterday and renewed their oaths of office and elected officers. The old board resigned in favor of the new appointees soon after the legislature adjourned, in order to permit their successors to begin their duties without awaiting the designated time, so all were new incumbents except Drake C. O'Reilly, the one holdover member.

cumbents except Drake C. O'Reilly, the one holdover member.

The election yesterday resulted in reseating Max H. Houser as president, Frank M. Warren vice-president and J. D. Kenworthy secretary, while Phil Metschan Jr. was elected treasurer in place of Mr. O'Reilly. The latter had been treasurer since his election to the board several years ago, and at the time the new hoard took office he consented to continue his duties until the time officially designated for the new hoard members to take their seats, June 2.

Monthly Bills Favored. It was voted yesterday to make a change in the system of calling for bids every quarter for supplying meats and groceries to dredges and steamers of the proteries to dredges and steamers of the Port fleet, the members being in favor of having bids filed every month, so those ready for consideration yester-day were ordered returned unopened. The next bids will be considered at the regular meeting June 12. It was thought a material variance in prices might take place in three menths, so it was deemed best to take advantage of any reduction in the interest of

In accepting the new sternwheeler Portland, which is to be operated as a towboat by the Port, for vessels in the harbor as well as between this city and Astoria, $1000 was retained from con-tractors until final inspection of the vessel by representatives of the United States steamvessel inspection survey, which will be about July 1. An offhand estimate is that the Portland will finalestimate is that the Fortana with that y cost close to $115,000 and she is rated the largest and most powerful of any of the river fleet. Hullwork and the cabin of the vessel cost $45,000, the bolier $14,000, and the machinery, purchased at San Francisco and removed from the steamer Telephone, more than $900. In addition there is the fee of the designer, labor charges in connec-tion with the installation of the machinery, and cost of all furnishings.

Amendments Planned.

In going over the dredging programme the board acted favorably on an application of the Commission of Public Docks that the dredge Portland be permitted to remain at the St.

Johns terminal to dig slip No. 2. It was also voted to permit the dredge Tualatin to operate two weeks longer on North Portland harbor, where a fill is being made on the site of the forthcoming livestock exhibition. The Portland is paid for at the rate of $400 a day and the Tualatin at $600 a day. Dredging performed in front of Albina dock by the Pacific Bridge company, which was temporarily stopped because Amendments Planned.

Friends of Dr. MacLeod in Paris who saw the boy cabled their confidence that he was Dr. MacLeod's son. Mrs. Phillips of Flushing, however, was notified by the war department that her son Rowland Jr. had been killed in action with the old 65th regiment. She was also told of her son's death by a returned officer of that regiment. Mrs. Emma Phillips of Evanston on the other hand had been expecting her son home any day in good health, and is now worried lest the transport sustain her fears that it is her boy who has lost his memory. Dr. and Mrs. MacLeod visited Mrs. Phillips in Flushing yesterday, and comparing notes and photographs found that their sons were the same age and of very similar appearance. They had received about the same educational advantages. Young Phillips' father is a captain serving with the Red Cross in France. He was at the boy's grave. Mrs. Phillips told Dr. and Mrs. MacLeod. Nevertheless, she said she would cable him to go to the hospital in Parsi to see whether the soldier who is being will be sent home under General Pershing's orders is the boy who was identified as young MacLeod last April. Whether the identification is correct, however, is something that only time can show.

ADVANCES UP TO NINETEEN ROTARIANS TO VISIT UTAH POINTS ARE REGISTERED. Big Subjects to Be Discussed at Steel Issues Foremost in Matter of Tenth Annual Convention.

SALT LAKE CITY.—The tenth annual convention of the International Association of Rotary clubs, to be held here June 16 to 20, inclusive, will be NEW TORK, June 2.—With an overturn of shares approaching the 2,000,000 mark and influenced by heavy public buying, all classes of speculative and investment issues advanced sharply today on the stock exchange, gains ranging from fractions to 19 points in a session crowded with excitement. Many stocks scored advances which resulted in new high records. Only the Mercantille Marine stocks exhibited weakness and their declines were largely made up late in sympathy with the general upward rush.

Authoritative denial late in the session of a report that steel interests had conferred on prices of the commodity to the government was followed by strong demand for steel issues during the final hour.
Nova Scotia Steel extended its rise to 19 points, Cruchile to 13 and Guif to 6, while United States Steel's advance of 13% carried this issue to a new high figure, 110%, Olis and motors advanced with Studebaker reaching new high ground at 124%.
The strength of motors was attributed to reiterated reports of combinations.

An early demand for investment railroads was not sustained, but representative issues like Southern Pacific established good advances. Sales amounted to 1,800, 000 shares.

PARTY EQUALITY PROMISED

National Republican Chairman Re assures Women's Committee. WASHINGTON .- Important subjects dealing with party organization were discussed at a republican conference here under the auspices of the republican women's national executive committee. Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, in an address outlining the part to be played by women in the affairs of the party under the recently adopted plan, asserted the women were not to be given secondary consideration, but would get the full consideration due all other individuals in the party.

Reports on organization work preparatory to the next campaign were heard from representatives of three groups of states. Mrs. Florence Porter of California spoke for the states in fealing with party organization were Mrs. Florence Porter of California spoke for the states in which women have complete franchies: Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter of Kaneas for the partially enfranchised states, and Miss Maude Weimore of Rhode Island for the group without the ballot. "There is but one possible rule for a political party," said Chairman Hays in his address, "and that is that the rights of the individual membership to participate in the management of the party's affairs must be and remain equally sacred and sacredly equal. The republican women in this country are a part of the party membership. In many states this has long been so. "They come into this party activity not as women but as voters, entitled to participate and participating in so far as the present legal limitations permit, just as other voters. Their activity is not supplementary, ancillary or secondary at all—there are units in the party membership, and where the suffrage for them is new they come in just as men have come in when they have reached the legal voting age.
