DOUGLAS STORRS IS CONVICTED BY JURY

Ruth Garrison's ex-Sweetheart Guilty of Seduction.

NEW TRIAL TO BE ASKED

Attorneys for Defendant Allege Instructions of Court Were Improper; Evidence Opposed.

OKANOGAN, Wash., June 8.—Douglas W. Storrs, charged with seduction in connection with his alleged relations, with Miss Ruth Garrison, 18-year-old Seattle girl, who poisoned Storrs' wife. Grace Glatz Storrs, in Scattle last spring, today was found guilty by a jury in the court of Superior Judge John S. Jurey. The verdict was arrived at late Saturday night, after the second ballot, according to reports, and was yeturned in court today.

The trial began last Thursday, Miss Garrison, now an inmate of the insanity ward of the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, being a witnes for the prosecution. She testified to her relations with Storrs, but declared that Storrs made no advances, assuming all OKANOGAN, Wash., June 8 .- Doug
