

GOVERNMENT STOCKS PAID AT AUCTION SALE

Over 3,000,000 Pounds of Government Stock Sold.

COMPETITION IS SPIRITED

Practically No Withdrawals of Northwestern Offerings; California Clip Also Disposed Of.

The third and probably last auction sale of government-owned wool to be held in this city took place at the Columbia Basin wool warehouse yesterday.

Charles H. Green, government wool administrator, who acted as auctioneer, said the sale was a highly successful one, from a government standpoint, as the prices realized were better than those at the two previous sales.

The range of prices on northwestern territory wool was from 42 cents for good average grades with choice bringing 47 to 52 cents.

Among the large lots sold, with the quantity, the name of the purchaser and the price were the following:

- 23,345 average fine and fine medium, E. J. Burke, 40 cents.
18,914 average fine and fine medium, American Woolen Mills, 44 cents.

Among the large lots sold, with the quantity, the name of the purchaser and the price were the following:

- 12,588 average fine and fine medium, American Woolen Mills, 45 cents.
12,348 average fine and fine medium, American Woolen Mills, 44 cents.
