Luzerne Blue, who takes delight in playing the role of a Dick Mcrriwell at the eleventh hour, hit the attrehed Reach over second base in the ninth inning of yesterday's baseball matinee, which permitted Pitcher John C Oldham to leg it over the rubber, giving Portland the first game of the series. Final score, Portland 4, Salt Lake 2. As a result of the loss the Bees dropped into fifth place.

Into fifth place.

Chubby Gawge Pennington continues to be the hard-luck chucker of Allan T. Baum's great western circuit. After Sallor Richard Cox's double and a brace of errors by Earl Sheely registered three runs for the Beavers in the lucky seventh and put Pennington in a position to chalk up his third victory of the season he was taken out in the rinth and Red Oldham, who pitched to but two batsmen, gets credit for the win.

Eddie Herr's best bet, Lefty Leverenz, toiled on the hillock for the visitors. He permitted 12 hits, the bunching of three of them in the fatal minth beating him. Pennington was nicked for 11 safe wallops during his occupancy.

Cox' Hitting Is Timely. Cox' Hitting Is Timely.

Cox hitting at psychological moments covers a multitude of sim. With the Mackian machine three runs to the bad in the seventh, Dixle Walker bounced one against the right center-field fence for two hassocks. Koehler drew free transportation, Cox duplicated Walker's feat, Dixle and Koehler scoring. Pennington popped out to Spencer, but when Sheely foozled Rader's grounder and then tossed badly to Leverenz, who covered the bag, Cox regisrenz, who covered the bag, Cox regis-erens, who covered the bag, Cox registered with the tying run.

With one out in the ninth, Oldham singled across second. Rader fouled to Sheely, but Tex Wisterzil singled, putting Oldham on third, and took second on the throw in. As explained in the foregoing, Blue bounced the pellet across the keystone. Ernie Johnson made an herculean effort to spear it, but the sphere bounded too high, Oldham digging his cleats in the rubber with the winning marker.

Spencer Stars for Visitors. Ed "Tubby" Spencer, who came down from Detroit to the Bees this spring, drove in all three of Salt Lake's runs. He singled in the second inning, chasing Marty Krug and Eddie Mulligan over the top, and Mulligan registered his second run of the game in the sixth when "Tubby" whacked the horsehide into left center field.

Two double plays pulled Leverenz out of the mire on that many occasions.

Two double plays pulled Leverenz out of the mire on that many occasions. Spencer made three hits out of four times up, while Maisel obtained three hits and laid down a nifty sacrifice. Cliff Markle is scheduled to oppose Penner or Jones this afternoon with the game commencing at 4:20 P. M. as it did yesterday, in order that the fans may first see the Victory Rose Festiva.
