

EIGHT QUALIFY FOR SECOND ROUND PLAY

First Day's Golf Events Are Keenly Contested.

WOMEN'S DRAWINGS TODAY

Wilhelm-Straight and Macleay-Kay Matches Expected to Feature This Morning's Slate.

Play in the championship flight of the Oregon state golf championships at the Waverley Country club yesterday resulted in Jack R. Straight, Andrew E. White, Walter E. Pearson, Forest Watson, Richard E. Letter and Frederick L. Macleay of the Waverley Country club and Rudolph Wilhelm and Eruel Kay of the Portland Golf club qualifying for the second round to be played this afternoon.

This morning's matches should bring out some excellent golf, as Rudolph Wilhelm meets Jack Straight, and Rudolph Macleay meets Eruel Kay in 1905, and Eruel Kay meets Walter G. Povargue, famed Pacific coast golfer, in a recent tournament at Raleigh station, and provides Mr. Macleay with formidable opposition.

Millard Rosenblatt, sensational young Reed college boy, who golfs for the Tualatin Country club, was put out of the championship running by Rudolph Wilhelm, present champion, who tees off under Raleigh station colors. Wilhelm beat Rosenblatt 6 up and 5 to play. It was one of the best matches of the day.

JESS SETS RAPID PACE

Hempel Dazed in Spirited Go with Big Champion.

Dempsey, Still Suffering from Old Wound Over Eye, Confines Work to Running Seven Miles.

TOLEDO, O., June 11.—Six spirited rounds of boxing and five miles of road work constituted the training program for Jess Willard today.

The champion stepped three rounds each with Jack Hempel and Walter Monahan and boxing experts regarded his glove work as the most impressive since he started training here 10 days ago. He used a ratty left jab with telling effect on Monahan and set upon a furious pace for Hempel that the latter was in a dizzy condition after the final round.

Dempsey, still chafing under the restraint placed on him, went through a lively workout but was not permitted to put on the gloves. He covered about seven miles on the road, tugged at the weights, punched the bag and shadow-boxed. Although the wound over his eye is healing rapidly, Manager Jack Kearns decided not to take any risks of having the cut reopened. So it is probable that the challenger will not do any boxing until Friday, or possibly Saturday.

Promoter Rickard tonight received word from Major Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, president of the army, navy and civilian board of boxing control, explaining the report that Biddle had selected William G. Rocap of Philadelphia as referee of the contest.

When an inexperienced candidate first goes to compete in a championship, he generally arrives several days before the event, and, in his keenness to tune his golf up to a concert pitch, he plays far too much. As a consequence he is stale by the time that the all-important tournament is due to begin. He should take a hint from the procedure of the more experienced golfer. Arrive three days before the start of the tournament, play one round on the first day, (a three or four-ball match for choice, inasmuch as, in that kind of a game, you will not be so likely to try so keenly as in a single); two hard rounds on the second day; and one round on the morning of the third day.

HOW TO PLAY GOLF

THERE are many delicate inner workings in the game of golf. They are hard to define, but are ever active, and the way to know them is to seize every opportunity of engaging in keen rivalry. Experience is almost as essential to success as is skill in hitting the ball; and once the player has obtained the rudiments of the game, he should engage in as many club competitions and earnestly contested matches as possible. They constitute a splendid schooling. In connection with competitions choose as a partner a player who is a little better than yourself. It is a great incentive to start out with the determination to be as good as somebody whom you recognize as your superior. ROLLER MARATHON TO DECIDE TITLE TODAY

Thirty Youngsters to Start at 11 A. M. on Three-Mile Trip.

POLICE TO PATROL COURSE

Eight Prizes Await Winners in Event to Be Staged Under Auspices of The Oregonian.

There will be a new champion today. He will be the roller marathon champion of Oregon. Starting at 11 o'clock A. M. about 30 youngsters, who have entered the annual roller marathon being staged under the au-sponsorship of The Oregonian in conjunction with the Victory Rose Festival, will start on their near three-mile journey.

Under the direction of D. A. Grout, superintendent of the Portland public schools, every youngster who has entered will be escorted from school this morning. The youngsters will be so notified by their respective principals.

Most of the youngsters have already skated over the course. The start will be made from the south side of the Liberty Temple and the finish will be at the Oregonian building, Sixth and Alder streets. The sight of 30 boys ranging in age from 9 to 14 years dashing through the city's streets is one that has attracted thousands of people before.

Police to Patrol Course. The course will be looked after by the police department and the boys scouts of America. Dangerous curves will be patrolled and automobiles will accompany the boys over the course to pick up stragglers and see that no youngsters stray further than is necessary.

Today's marathon will be the third event of its kind. It originated in 1915 when Freddie Lough went over the course being used today—which is a little less than three miles long—in 14 minutes, 2-3 seconds. In 1918, Carl Tuma skated over a longer course, one trifle less than four miles in length, making the distance in 17 minutes, 25-3 seconds. Of course, both of these boys are now too old to compete and a new champion will be named today. No marathons were run in 1917 and last year.

Entrants to Report at 10:15 A. M. The roller marathon editor wants each entrant to report to him at 10:15 A. M. this morning in room 215 Oregonian building and urge all to be on time to avoid delay in starting the race.

The following officials are asked to report promptly at that hour to assist in running off one of the greatest events of its kind ever staged: Aaron M. Frank, director-general; Martin W. Hawkins, clerk of course; C. M. Menzies and James H. Lynch, judges of finish; Mike H. Butler and Dr. Earl Smith, timers; J. P. Jaeger and Jim Morris, chief inspectors; L. A. Spangler, scorer; W. W. Banks, starter; George Roberts Grayson, William R. Smyth, E. Plowden Stott, George A. Anderson, Fred Norman Bay, Wayne F. Lewis, Otto Mikelson, Harvey Newell, W. E. ("Dick") Carlton, George Hurlbert, C. L. Mullen, Ralph Thayer, William Stepp, Jack Herman, Lieutenant Harold E. Potter, assistant inspectors.

Among the fastest skaters entered are: Edward R. Ellis, St. Francis; Edwin J. Bell, Hawthorne; John Amos Erickson and John Reuben Garceau, Ladd; Courts Phillipa, Vernal Brice and Billy Schink, Richmond; Oswald Stevenson, Charles Grayson, Elwood Whinn, Leigh Melton, Billy Mack and Frederic Templeton, Couch; Stephen Bushnell, Kennedy; Eric McLeary, Shattuck, and Irby Runn of Stephens.

Prizes Are Announced. First prize is a gold watch donated by F. Friedlander & Co. It is a Friedlander special open-faced, 29-year case and one that is well worth working for. Second prize is a watch donated by G. Heitkemper company. It is an American open face, gold filled. This watch and the one offered for first prize are so nearly the same in construction and value that the roller marathon editor has agreed to give the boy who wins his choice of the two. The boy awarded second prize will get the other watch.

Third prize is a handsome gold scarf pin, donated by Jaeger Bros. It is solid gold and has a beautiful stone setting.

Fourth prize is a boy's radiolite

WALKOUT IS THREATENED

Workers in Coeur d'Alene Mine District Said Organized.

WALLACE, Ida., June 11.—A declaration that refusal of the mine owners of the Coeur d'Alene district to grant a conference on demands of their employees for an eight-hour day and a wage increase would be followed by walkout of 500 miners in the Bunker Hill and Sullivan properties was made at Kellogg, near here, last night by E. W. Muir, said to be an organizer for the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, it became known today.

Muir declared in a speech to miners that the men would march to the company's offices and demand a conference. He announced that M. McQuay, a federal mediator, was en route here from the east to attempt to prevent a walkout.

Echoes From Hemen Square.

BOBBY EVANS has several offers for his star performers to take part in bouts throughout the northwest on and around July 4.

The best offer so far received by Evans comes from Q. A. Olin, secretary of the Wallace (Idaho) Athletic club, for the services of Joe Gorman to take part in a 20-round go with some good boy to be selected by the Idaho organization during the same hours that Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey are battling for the world's championship at Toledo.

Evans has consented to the terms offered, but wants to learn the name of the boy Gorman will meet before closing the deal.

Harry Druxman, matchmaker of the Moose lodge of Aberdeen, Wash., has telegraphed Evans in quest of talent for a ten-round show he plans on starting at the Grays Harbor metropolis July 4.

Reports from the east say that Mike O'Dowd took on plenty of weight while in France and that he now tips the beams at 165 pounds. His manager, however, claims that he will have little trouble in reducing to the middle-weight poundage.

Chet Neff won from Frankie Tucker at Vernon the other night.

"Terrible Terry" McGovern knocked out Tommy White, Chicago lightweight, in three rounds 19 years ago today. The match took place at Coney Island and White at no time had a chance with the featherweight champion.

The Rev. James A. O'Donnell, curate of St. John's Roman Catholic church of Orange, N. J., was recently named boxing inspector by the state athletic commission of New Jersey.

Veteran sporting men learned with regret recently of the death of George J. Cooke, prominent years ago as one of the leading boxing promoters of New York city. He died as a result of a stroke of apoplexy.

Twenty-five years ago Cooke was one of the prime movers in staging many championship mills under the old Horton law. With William A. Brady and Alex. Brown, he organized the Coney Island Athletic club, at which Jim Jeffries won the title from Bob Fitzsimmons. It was at this club that George Jeffries staged the decision over Tom Sharkey when they battled 25 vicious rounds. Cooke staged the Coffey-Jeffries go and the one between Peter Maher and Kid McCoy. He was the man that induced Frank Craig, "the Harlem coffee cooler," to sail from England to do battle with Tommy Ryan.

Dick Griffin, Fort Worth bantam, is being backed with plenty of "dough" to take the measure of Pete Herman when they meet. Captain L. J. Smith, U. S. A., owner of thousands of acres of virgin oil lands in Texas and Mexico, says so.

The oil men of Fort Worth and the adjoining country will back the little fellow with their best efforts. He has assurance of a match with Herman, the world's title-holder, at Fort Worth," Smith said. "Fort Worth is the new oil town of the Texas fields, and the hangout of Tex Rickard, Jess Willard and a big gang of sporting men.

Griffin has the backing of every man, woman and child in the city, and if Herman will agree to meet him for the championship we will give him a house that will be worth losing the championship to cop the box receipts."
