CITY HIGH SCHOOLS
WILL GRADUATE 532

Principals to Award Diplomas
at Exercises Tonight.

SIMPLICITY TO DOMINATE

Each Class to Contain Group of Returned Soldiers—Portland Men to Deliver Addresses.

Diplomas will be awarded to 532 boys and girls in the morning and tomorrow night at graduation exercises held by each of the eight Portland public schools of high school or equal standing. Commencement exercises for Washington, Franklin, Jefferson, High School of Commerce, Girls' Polytechnic and James John high schools will be held this evening. Lincoln high school and the Benson Polytechnic school will award diplomas at exercises held tomorrow evening.

With the exception of the girls' polytechnic school each class will hold its commencement exercises in its own school auditorium. Because the assembly room of the Girls' Polytechnic school is small, the auditorium of the Couch school will be used.

Portland Men to Speak.
Portland professional men have been chosen to give the graduating addresses in all schools except Benson, at which Dr. D. V. Poling of the Oregon Agricultural college will speak. Dr.
William A. Waldo, of the White temple, will speak at the High School of Commerce. Professor J. H. Harrison, of Reed college, will give the commencement address at the Girls' Polytechnic school, and Professor Norman F. Coleman, also of Reed college, has been chosen as the speaker at the James John high school.

H. R. Albee, former Portland mayor, will address the seniors of the Jefferson high school. Dr. E. H. Pence, of the Westminster Presbyterian church, has been chosen by the Franklin graduating class, while the seniors of Washington high school selected as their speaker Dr. William W. Youngson, district
Methodist superintendent. Tomorrow
Methodist superintendent. Tomorrow evening Dr. Jonah R. Wise will give the Lincoln high school address and Dr. Poling will speak to seniors of the Benson school.

Jefferson Class Largest.
Jefferson will graduate the largest class of any high school in the city.
Its members number 148, while those of Lincoln high school, which will graduate the second largest class, number 107. The smallest class to be graduated tomorrow evening will be the Benson school, which has 66 students. The number of students in each class is due to the fact that polytechnic students were sent to other high schools of the city during the autumn term when the Benson building was occupied by the student army training corps. The number being graduated from other high schools is as follows: Franklin, 27; Girls' polytechnic, 25; High School of Commerce, 23; James John, 17; Washington, 102.

The total number to be graduated from Portland academic schools this week is several hundred less than last year, because many school boys enlisted. In each of the high schools a small group of returned soldiers will be graduated with the regular high school students.

Exercises in all schools will be exceedingly simple. In the Jefferson high school the wearing of flowers and the receiving of bouquets at the school has been prohibited to reduce expenses and promote a spirit of democracy. A large number of the graduates in every school will wear dresses they themselves made. Every graduate of the Girls' Polytechnic school made the dress she will wear at graduation. Dresses worn by Jefferson seniors, girls will each be of white organdy and none will exceed $8 in cost. Ten dollars is the cost limit set by the school. The Franklin high school on graduating dresses No special material will be used in the crowns, white being the only stipulation in addition to cost.

Principals to Award Diplomas.
Principals of the high schools will award diplomas, except at the Girls' Polytechnic school, where O. M.
Plummer, school director, will act.
High school principals are: Hopkins Jenkins, Jefferson; S. F. Ball, Franklin; T. T. Davis, Lincoln; H. H. Herdman, Washington; C. E. Clark, Benson;
Miss Anna E. Arnold, Girls' Polytechnic; W. T. Fletcher, James John, and A. H.
Sprout, High School of Commerce.

PORTLANDER SEES PONTIFF E. E. MCGINN HONORED BY AUDIENCE AT ROME.
Knights of Columbus Worker Looks on Devastated Regions of France Before Return to U. S.
Among those American war workers who were honored by an audience with the pope while in Rome was Edward Everett McGinn, brother of Judge Henry McGinn and member of a Portland family, who returned Sunday from overseas. Mr. McGinn was in the hospital department of the Knights of Columbus and was stationed at Paris the larger part of his year in the service.
In April, just prior to his departure, he visited the devastated regions about Chateau Thierry, Meau, Rheims and Verdun. His work took him to the hospitals in and near Paris, where he distributed gifts and cheer to the many wounded men.
"There was no charge for anything we did and what made a hit with the boys was the fact that what was given was given without the necessity of producing a pocketbook," said Mr. Mc-

Ginn yesterday in speaking of his experiences.
The hospitals he was connected with were at Joinville, St. Denis, Bellevue and Neuilly, the last being one founded by Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Sr. and considered the best for surgery in France.
Mr. McGinn was in Italy last March at a time when, he says, Americans were in high favor and many courtesies were granted them. His return trip was made through England, where he passed two weeks.
Fire Loss Estimated at $7000.
Fire of undetermined cause early yesterday caused nearly $7000 loss to property owners around First and Alder streets. Among the losers were: Salvation Army corps No. 4, 1234 First street, $500 in furniture; F. C. Smith estate, owners of the building, $2500; water damage to a second-hand store under the Salvation Army hall and the Western Fish company, 126 First, $50.
The blaze lasted two hours and eight fire companies fought the flames. The blaze started in a shed at the rear of the building.
TENDERLOIN STEAK 22c.
At Frank L. Smith's 225 Alder street, Smith's tender omelet roast beef, $1.50 Very fine shoulders of mutton, $1.50 Very fine shoulders of kid, $1.50 Round steak, $1.50 Liver, $1.50
