CHRONICLE IS FOR JOHNSON

San Francisco Newspaper Ends Long Fight on Senator.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11 .- The San Francisco Chronicle, for many years a political opponent of United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson, will announce tomorrow in a full-page editorial its support of a movement to obtain for Senator Johnson the republican nomination for president.

The editorial refers to the Chron-leles former opposition to Mr. Johnson but points out that it was based solely on differences concerning state policies

CHAT NO. 24.

The Rose Festival is on all sum mer at THE OAKS amusement park, most delightful summer playground in the west.

We have the roses here and we have the pleasure. Come out today and join in the fun.

There isn't a more convenient or pleasant place from which to view the nirplane; flights over the city than at THE OAKS.

After the parade today, when everyone is warm and tired, THE OAKS will be ready to receive Rose Festival visitors and the home folks who are always with us, and to provide the very best obtainable in reflued and refreshing entertainment. In the big auditorium we have the famous Armstrong Folly company and its big beauty chorus. The most pleasant dancing pavillon in the city, with the best music, will offer a special Rose Festival dance this Take an Oaks car at First and Alder any time after 10 A. M. Six-cent fare. Come out today for a big day of happiness.
