

WILSON PLEDGES AD TO IRISH SOCIETIES

Representatives Hold Brief Interview With President.

PEACE OUTLOOK BRIGHTENS

Colonel House Plans to Urge Upon British Necessity of Settling Irish Question.

PARIS, June 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—President Wilson today told representatives of Irish societies in America that he would do what he could unofficially to bring the Irish question to the attention of the other peace commissioners.

Announcement to this effect was made by Frank F. Walsh and Edward F. Dunne, representatives of the Irish Americans, after they had had a 30 minute conference with the president. The promise made by the president was in reply to a question from Messrs. Walsh and Dunne as to what the president intended doing in view of the resolution adopted by the senate urging that the American delegation take steps to have representatives of Ireland heard by the peace conference.

Messrs. Walsh and Dunne said that they went over the situation in Ireland generally in their talk with the president.

DUBLIN, June 11.—A Paris dispatch to the Freeman's Journal claims authority for the statement that the Irish question will probably be raised in the peace conference.

Colonel E. M. House, one of the delegates to the peace conference, will, it is said, visit England during the fortnight which will then be declared, urge upon the British government the necessity of settling the Irish question.

It is said that he also intends to visit Ireland to investigate conditions and ascertain the sentiment of the people here.

SUPPORT OF ENEMIES CHARGED

Practice, if Carried on, Held Dangerous to Nation's League.

LONDON, June 11.—(Special Cable.)—"American Support of England's Enemies" in the heading of a letter which the Morning Post gives prominence, from Sir Edward Carson, in which the Irish unionist leader says:

"The resolution of the senate of the United States of America, supporting the enemies of Great Britain in Ireland, is an unparalleled international infamy which cannot fail to beget in us, to sap the foundations of the league of nations. The resolution may well give grave anxiety to those who desire the success of that project and to those who are concerned with the future relations of this country and the United States."

Following upon the recent mission of Americans in Ireland, it will create other difficulties in the government of that country and will give impetus to the campaign of murder and assassination already rife there.

"The fact that the resolution was passed for political purposes, in order to weaken the position of President Wilson and as a maneuver in the game of political parties in America, is a demonstration of the uses to which the policy of the league of nations may be diverted, and it makes one think seriously as to whether international difficulties may not be increased rather than diminished if, at the outset of this new international venture, an act of indecency of such a character is to pass without protest."

Arrangements are to be made for the wide publication in the United States of the report of the Irish-American delegates. Mr. Walsh is inundated with cables requesting statements and newspaper and magazine articles and interviews on the Irish situation, according to Mr. Kelly's dispatch, to which he adds:

"I am informed on authority that the view of President Wilson and his colleagues has so far been that they are not at liberty to state an official discussion of Irish matters in the peace conference. Unless the resolution of the United States senate shall cause a radical change in their plans, they will stand officially by their policy of international etiquette. The value of the resolution will then be measured by its effect on the American peace commission, but on the British government."

In an interview today, Mr. Walsh expressed great satisfaction with the senate resolution and expressed the opinion that whatever may develop in the peace conference, the Irish question has definitely emerged from the obscurity of a problem merely domestic.

REED STUDENTS ACT WELL

'COMEDY OF ERRORS' GIVEN EXCELLENT PRESENTATION.

Open Air Production of Play Highly Creditable to Young Performers.

Admirable acting, picturesque costuming and an outdoor setting were the outstanding features of Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors" as played by Reed college students yesterday afternoon. A large audience enjoyed the stage setting between two large fir trees, and the actors could be plainly heard from any part of the lawn. The cast entered into the spirit of the play with vim and kept the audience chuckling throughout.

James Hamilton and Donald Harris were the life of the play, with their clever by-play as the twin Dromios; Horace Willetts and Robert Osborn put over the roles of Antipholus in a humorous manner, and Marian Byrns as Adriana, and Maye Palmer as Luciana, won favor with the audience by well-spoken lines. Carl Wilson was a perfect merchant, Angelo, and Laura Dunstan won laughter as Phryne.

Such of the success of the drama is due to the direction of Harold Gray of the English department at Reed. Students taking other parts were Martin Peterson, Tom Brockway, Glen Ruseher, Will Stone, Robert McLean, Rowan Wheelton, Frank Flint and Ella Gunderson.

BATTLE AT JAUREZ NEAR

FEDERALS REPORTED KILLED IN SKIRMISH NEAR CITY.

Commander of Border Town Says He Is Ready for Fight—Cavalry Leaves on Scout Trip.

JUAREZ, Mexico, June 11.—Five hundred Mexican federal cavalry, well armed, left Juarez at 3:30 P. M., moving eastward.

Reliable information is to the effect that unarmed Villa and Angeles men have been trickling into Juarez during the evening.

At 8:30 tonight a Mexican Northwest-ern railway engine and several stock cars were moving south of the station. It was a military train, but information as to where it was going could not be obtained. The city on the face is quiet, but feeling is intense. The name of Villa is heard frequently on the streets, something unusual since the Villa-Carranza split. All officers, men, quartermasters and paymasters were their sidearms tonight.

With advance forces of General Felipe Angeles reported at San Augustin, 16 miles east of Juarez and midway between this city and Guadalupe, 22 miles east, where it is asserted the revolutionary leader has a large force of men, a battle for the possession of Juarez is expected during the night or early tomorrow.

At 4:15 o'clock this afternoon a skirmish was reported a few miles east of Juarez between Mexican federals and some Angeles men, probably a scouting party. Some federals were reported killed by snipers.

General Francisco Gonzales, commander at Juarez, said this afternoon that his men were ready for the fight.

BROWNSVILLE, TEX.

Information was received in official quarters today that 76 persons were killed in the Mexican city of Monterey in fighting that started Monday morning, after the election Sunday, and which was continuing last night.

The whisky shipment is one of the largest stopped in central Oregon this year. The drivers were so exhausted by their long journey that they were with difficulty awakened. They maintained that the liquor was for their own use.

HOME LOCATION SELECTED

MASONIC LODGE WILL BUILD NEAR FOREST GROVE.

Election of Officers Chief Business of Grand Lodge Sessions Today—Degrees Are Conferred.

Haines station, near Forest Grove, will be the location of the new Masonic home for aged members and orphans, according to report of the committee in charge of building operations yesterday at the session of the grand lodge of Oregon, meeting this week in the Masonic temple.

The site selected comprises 15 acres, offered by the Forest Grove lodge. It will be purchased, making a tract of 30 or 35 acres in all. The site is near both the Oregon electric and the Southern Pacific and is on the state highway, 23 miles from Portland on the pavement.

The new home will be modern in every way and will have advantage of water, gas, electric lighting and sewage system connections with Forest Grove. The committee in charge hopes to have construction under way within a short time.

The report of the Masonic home committee was the prominent event in yesterday's programme. Last night degrees were conferred by Portland lodge No. 35 and Hawthorne lodge No. 111. The sessions of the grand lodge will continue today and tomorrow, election of officers taking place this afternoon and installation tomorrow afternoon.

Dr. Garfield Visits Rainier.

TACOMA, Wash., June 11.—Dr. H. A. Garfield, former federal fuel administrator and now president of Williams college, Mass., arrived here today from Spokane and left almost immediately for a trip to Mount Rainier. The park itself will be formally opened next Saturday night.

Answering Senators Lodge, republican, of Massachusetts; Knox, republican, of Pennsylvania, and others who urged constitutional objections, the Montana senator declared their arguments were founded on theories long since disproved. He quoted many precedents to support his position that the covenant neither sets aside any constitutional prerogative nor assumes any new power in treaty making.

Past Treaties Recalled.

Charges that the league would be a "super-state," he declared to be a "mere declamation," since the organism in most of the provisions complained of could only "advise" or "recommend." The celebrated article 10, he continued, certainly would bind the United States to make war in certain instances, but added that the same obligation had been assumed by various treaties made by this government in the past.

Referring to assertions that the league would be a "super-government," the Senator quoted from the covenant at length and continued: "It is idle to assert that an organization thus equipped is government at all. It has no army and no treasury, and no means of securing either. Though it may render decisions, it cannot make laws, neither can it levy taxes."

Amendment Move Scored.

Senator Walsh said no one contended the league covenant was perfect. But it was a mere subterfuge," he declared in a talk of amending it. "What the senate may do," he continued, "is to propose amendments, which in substance are a rejection of the treaty with a condition of amending it. The whole subject is thus opened up and negotiation must be resumed. Doubtless other nations will propose amendments. The stipulations of the past six months are all undone, peace is as far away as it was last December."

The situation is not unlike that which was presented when our constitution was submitted to the states for ratification. Its opponents, open and secret, were full strong for the draft submitted. Washington was not deceived by this method of attack.

If another federal convention is attempted, so he wrote to Charles Carter of Fredericksburg, "its members will be more discordant; will agree upon no general plan. The constitution is the best that can be obtained at this time."

IRRIGATION FEES JUMP UP

Need of Repairs Causes Central Oregon Project to Ask Rise.

BEND, Or., June 11.—(Special.)—The need for repairs to the irrigation project, reconstruction and improvements on the central Oregon irrigation project, is given as the chief reason for an advance from 50 cents to $2 per acre, in maintenance fees charged settlers, the request for which is made in an application just filed by the irrigation company with the state public service commission.

All this would be foolish waste of printers' ink if not true—if it were not possible for you to verify it by ordering a pound of MAID O' CLOVER BUTTER from your grocer and putting it to the practical test.
