

MINIMUM PRICE FOR WHEAT IS PROTESTED

Northwest Farmers Oppose Barnes' Agreement.

OPEN BIDDING IS WANTED

Violation of Sound Economics and Heavy Loss to Growers Charged by Conference.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 13.—A cablegram, protesting against what was termed the "maladministration" of Federal Wheat Administrator Barnes in entering an agreement with millers, grain buyers and bakers to buy wheat only at the government guaranteed minimum, was directed sent to President Wilson by the northwest conference of farmers here today.

"Marketing of American wheat surplus for less than the fullest fair price that may be obtained on an American market free to the world's competitive bidding will violate sound national economic and result in unfair losses to American wheat farmers in hundreds of thousands of dollars," the cablegram declared.

It asks that the wheat administrator be forbidden from attempting to set a minimum price.

Daylight Saving Plan Opposed.

Resolutions adopted at the forenoon session included one declaring against the daylight saving plan and for "the observance of the laws of nature and the honoring of counties to pay for them, a temple of agriculture at Washington, a government land settlement policy, reduced freight and express rates on seeds, a branch of the bureau of animal industry for the northwest, the teaching of animal husbandry and domestic science in public and rural schools, better livestock laws, a 1920 wheat price to prevent loss and possible disaster to the agricultural interests of the country."

Federation to Be Formed.

It was decided that another conference, to be made up of delegates of all farm organizations, will be held here next October or November to perfect a northwest federation of all agricultural interests.

An option for the purchase for $50,000 of a four-story building in Washington, D. C. for use of the national farmers' organizations as headquarters until a permanent temple of agriculture is erected was announced today by A. A. Elmore, president of the Washington State Farmers' union and chairman of the conference. He said the farmers of Washington, Oregon and Idaho represented in the conference here had agreed to meet the entire cost. Subscriptions to the temple fund today reached between $25,000 and $30,000, it was announced.

Alleged I. W. W. Quarters Raided.

CENTRALIA, Wash., June 13.—The storeroom of Tom Lassiter, local agent for the Seattle Union Record and an alleged I. W. W., was raided again last night, presumably by returned soldiers. The furniture was scattered and broken and papers thrown into the street. Some of the literature picked up after the raid is said to be of an objectionable character.

Screen Gossip.

Betty Blythe vowed that when she completed her work in Select's "Hell on Earth," with Arthur Guy Empey, she intended to take a long rest before considering any contract, as she is contemplating an offer to appear in a stage production this fall. But before she could prepare an outfit for the seashore or mountains, World had prevailed upon her to spend a portion of her vacation in its Fort Lee studio. She expects to complete work by July 1 and then enjoy the first vacation she has had in two years.

Gladys Valerie, whose beauty and dramatic ability have won her a prominent place on the screen, has signed with the Alma Robens Producing company to play in the first of a series of special feature pictures now being filmed in the east. Miss Valerie is one of the youngest emotional actresses on the screen today and has recently appeared prominently in the support of Marguerite Clark in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," Alice Brady, Anita Stewart and many other noted screen stars.

Gladys Valerie, in the picture upon which she is now engaged, is given the opportunity of displaying histrionic ability and finesse, besides a chance to wear some very attractive gowns which enhance her blond beauty.

After David Griffith sees that "Broken Blossoms" is properly introduced to Chicago he is going west. Lillian Gish and Richard Barthelmess will also return to the coast for a short period. There are scenes in the next Griffith picture which must be finished in California. When these are filmed Mr. Griffith and his company will come back to New York to make their future pictures. Mrs. Gish has leased her house and in all probability the Dorothy Gish company will also come east for the summer.

Paul Scardon has just directed what the critics will probably call "a timely picture." Not that it deals with any subject that is at present in the public's mind, but because it should make a hit during the present hot weather. It presents some refreshing "snow" scenes. Paul admits he had the poor public in mind.

Ed Geers, the veteran light harness driver, active as ever in his 68th year, has 32 horses in his training stable at Memphis, preparing for the Grand circuit events this year.

TRAVELERS MEET IN PORTLAND NEXT YEAR

Oregon Men Jubilant as Result of Victory.

UNANIMOUS VOTE IS GIVEN

E. N. Mulkey of Sherman, Texas, Is Named President at New Orleans Sessions.

NEW ORLEANS, La., June 13.—(Special.)—Portland, Or., was unanimously selected as the next meeting place of the Travelers' Protective association today. Louisville, Ky., and Dubuque, Ia., the other two contenders, withdrew just before the question was placed to a vote.

The Portland men here are jubilant over their victory. E. N. Mulkey of Sherman, Tex., was named president; William O'Neil of Colorado, first vice-president; T. K. Falconer, Arkansas, second vice-president; R. E. Van Kirk, Minnesota, third vice-president, and T. S. Logan, secretary-treasurer.

Oregon delegates attending the national convention of the Travelers' Protective association yesterday telegraphed Director S. C. Pier the news that the meeting will be held next year in Portland. The date will probably be June 1.

Ten thousand delegates attended the convention in New Orleans, ten of

COUNCIL TO FIGHT HANSON

Seattle Mayor's Veto of Ordinance Raises Opposition.

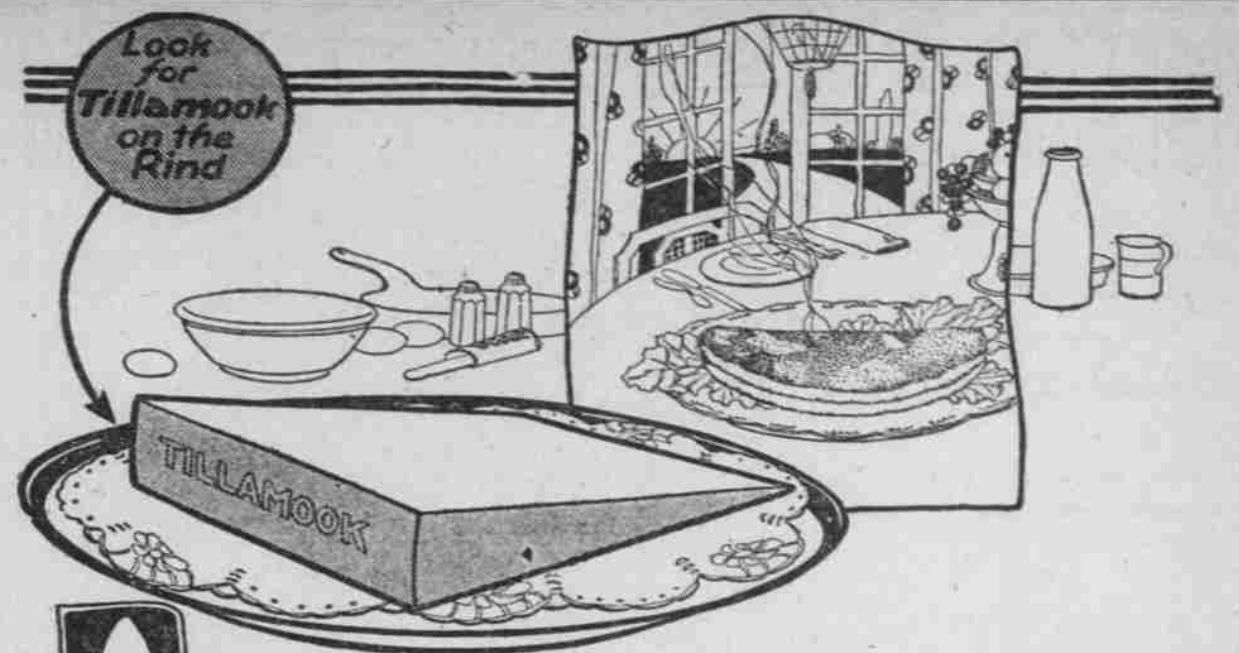

SEATTLE, Wash., June 13.—(Special.)—City councilmen who passed the social disease quarantine ordinance guaranteeing greater protection to inmates of the city's detention wards are preparing to launch a determined fight against Mayor Ole Hanson's veto of the measure.

The quarantine bill was passed following the council investigation, which showed ill-treatment of prisoners in quarantine and which produced evidence tending to prove that many prisoners had been taken in custody for the blood test through spite of individual police officers. The measure provided regulations making it impossible for a police officer to arrest a person for blood test purposes unless ordered to do so by the officer in charge at headquarters—exceptions to this rule being made only in the case of those engaged in commercialized vice, who could be arrested at any time. The bill also required a copy of particulars in each case to be furnished the corporation counsel at the city hall.

A Famous Chef's Recipe-

Tillamook Cheese Omelet a La Cream for Five People

By HENRY TRIBLE
Chef, Hotel Benson, Portland
Nine eggs, beat up well, 3 ounces of Tillamook Cheese, 1 ounce of butter, cayenne pepper, Worcester sauce, salt in casserole. Let cheese melt, add half-pint of cream and two tablespoons of beaten eggs. Make real smooth by working, then put pan on fire, put in a little butter and start to scramble your eggs. After the eggs are pretty well cooked, take 1/3 of the prepared cheese and spread over eggs in the pan and fold it up into the shape of an omelet. Let it get a little brown on one side and put on plate and garnish with the balance of the creamed cheese.

There are few dishes to compare with a "Tillamook" Cheese Omelet—serve instead of the meat course; it is delicious and satisfying.

This is only one of the many cheese dishes that is making "Tillamook" more and more famous.

"Tillamook" is full cream cheese—the milk that makes it is from tested herds that feed on the rich succulent grass of the famous Tillamook Valley the year round. "Tillamook" is sold by the slice, also individual sizes, 6 and 14 pounds, convenient for large families, boarding houses, etc.

Kelso People Attending Rose Show.

KELSO, Wash., June 13.—(Special.)—The Victory Rose Festival at Portland has attracted hundreds of residents of Kelso and vicinity the past few days, and every train to Portland carried heavy loads of passengers bound to the Rose Show. A steady stream of autoists also has passed through Kelso toward Portland on the Pacific highway, and the auto travel to the festival this year has been heavier than ever before.

Dryad Soldier Returns.

CENTRALIA, Wash., June 13.—(Special.)—Another Dryad boy, Bruce Lewis, has returned from overseas. The soldier was wounded during the fighting on the Meuse. He also took part in the battles of Argonne, Mont Blanc and Champagne. Benjamin F. Ritter, a brother of Mrs. Frank Parker of this city, has received his discharge from the army and arrived here yesterday to make his future home. Mr. Ritter served 18 months overseas with the 20th engineers.

Yakima Contractor Seeks Labor.

YAKIMA, Wash., June 13.—(Special.)—D. L. Thacker, one of the heaviest employers of labor in this city on construction work, has gone to Seattle to secure men for his jobs here. His action was prompted by the strike of hod carriers and mortar mixers, who are demanding $5 and $6 per day.

"PANTS WON THE WAR; THEREFORE, WEAR PANTS!"

Thus did the "new" women of Freemont, Pennsylvucky, slip a cog in their logic.—You may yearn to be a "new woman"—emancipated—twentieth century model—and all that sort of thing; but stop, look, listen. . . .

Let other men knit and tend babies, but not Abe Jones! Back from France a hero, Abe found his town in the grip of a female political ring and his job in the hands of a trousered woman. Then he declared another war.
