Speakers at Rotary Convention Discass Progress of Movement in Western World.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 18.-Pan-Americanism was the theme at today's sessions of the International As sociation of Rotary Clubs in annual convention here.

"All signs point to the conclusion that the future security of the world depends upon the solidarity of the western hemisphere and the Anglo-Saxon elements of the old world," declared John Barrett, director-general of the Pan-American union, in a paper read at the convention by Secretary Cheeley R. Perry. Mr. Barrett was unable to deliver his address in person.

Obituary.

LA CENTER, Wash., June 18.—
(Special)—Mrs. Mary A. Smith died at her home here on June 12, aged 92 years. She had been a resident of this community for many years, her husband, the late Daniel Smith, having been a well-known farmer of La Center. Mrs. Smith had been confined to a wheel chair for the past seven years as the result of a fall, but was very alert mentally, managing all her demestic and financial affairs. She is survived by three sons, O. M. Smith, of Tacoma; James M. Smith and Scott Smith, both of La Center, and also a daughter, Mrs. Henry Garver, of La Center.
