

HUSBAND WAS SHOT IN HALF-TIME CHARGE

Emma J. Hogan Wins Decree From ex-Policeman.

MAN CARRIES QUEER NOTE

"If I'm Found Dead My Wife Killed Me," Mrs. J. E. Little Says Spouse Wrote.

"What's that? He was a special policeman in Vancouver when you married him in 1894 and he was drunk half of the time?" Presiding Judge Stapleton was taking a somewhat unusual interest in the divorce suit of Emma J. Hogan against Martin I. Hogan.

"Yes, Judge," replied Mrs. Hogan. "Funny I can't recall him," declared Judge Stapleton, who had been born of Vancouver, Wash., in the years 1854, 1856 and 1858, as he scratched his right ear reflectively.

"If I had found dead in my own home, my wife has reported her husband as being shot in the back of the head," said Miss Nellie M. Little, declared Jesse C. Little had continuously carried in his pocket, addressed to the public. Mrs. Little said her husband had been shot and did not support her. He forced her to go to her mother's home at 22 o'clock at night to get money with which to pay for milk for their baby rather than give her the money herself, she said.

"My next wife will be used a lot different than you were," Guy Hanna, at present with the army in France, wrote his wife, Florence Hanna, in a letter introduced in court yesterday in which Hanna placed his stamp of approval on divorce proceedings proposed by his wife. Mrs. Hanna declared her husband had been in the army for a year before she received an allotment from him and that she had to send her war department his photograph and their marriage license.

Ruth G. Brand insisted on telephoning to a former husband, complained Henry H. Brand. Other default divorces granted by Judge Stapleton were, Gertrude Norwood from Harry E. Norwood; William Hearn from Edgar Williams; William Hearn from Alice Hearn; Olive Bradley from T. E. Bradley; John L. McDonald from McDonald; and E. M. Leckie from Nellie B. Leckie.

Life Charges Drinking. Hilda Meyer declares her husband, Walter, druggist at 609 East Morrison street, has been drinking to excess since their marriage in Minnesota in 1902. In a divorce complaint filed yesterday.

"We regret," read the resolution, "that we must enter a most earnest protest against the indecent float, that was permitted to march in the parade with its half-clothed girls placed conspicuously to be a target for vulgar comments of the crowd, and which we regard as an insult to every pure-minded woman in our city. Furthermore, we express our disapproval of the use of our park blocks, for concessions of the character, that were represented in 'The Lane O' Laughter' which was judged by the jury of the grand jury, were evidently a chain of cheap, gambling affairs and money changers, not in keeping with the purpose and dignity of the festival, and which were contrary to the law." "And furthermore, we venture to suggest, on behalf of many of our citizens, that instead of making the park blocks a festival center, by destroying their grassy surface, they be left in all their natural beauty. That a tract of ground be secured as near the center of the city as possible, for a rose and flower garden, which shall be a permanent show-place, thus saving the expense of the flower show of the last few years and the destruction of our most delightful parks."

Nujol For Constipation. Spring Fever - What Is It? THREE o'clock in the afternoon - and absolutely no "pep." You call it spring fever, but is it? When you are constipated waste matter remains in the intestines, decays, forms poisons which are absorbed into your blood and carried by it to every cell in your body. When your cells are thus poisoned, of course you have no "pep." Pills, salts, mineral waters, castor oil, etc., merely force the bowels to act, and make constipation and self-poisoning a habit. Nujol is entirely different from drugs as it does not force or irritate the bowels. Nujol prevents stagnation by softening the food waste and encouraging the intestinal muscles to act naturally, thus removing the cause of constipation and self-poisoning. It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle of Nujol from your druggist today and watch your "pep" come back. Warning: Nujol is sold in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. All druggists insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.
