

NONPARTISAN LEAGUE ACTIVITIES ARE BARED

Minnesota Army Draft Disturbed, Says Witness.

POLITICAL MOVE CHARGED

County Officials Give Testimony at Trial of A. C. Townley and Joseph Gilbert.

JACKSON, Minn., June 25.—Activities of Joseph Gilbert and Irving Freitag of the National Non-Partisan League, in Jackson county in 1918, were touched upon today by three witnesses called by the prosecution at the trial of A. C. Townley, president of the league, and Joseph Gilbert, a former league organizer, who are charged with conspiracy to commit disloyalty.

O. C. Thorsen, judge of probate court of Lakeland, and P. E. McKellar, county auditor, testified that Gilbert persisted in making an address at Lakeland, January 23, 1918, after the county officials had notified him that non-partisan meetings would not be permitted.

O. A. Collan, a farmer living at Heron Lake, testified that he became a member of the league at the solicitation of Freitag and Gilbert, a certificate of membership and literature bearing the stamped signature of President Townley was sent to him.

Draft Disturbed, Is Charge. Prosecuting Attorney H. E. Nicholas stated in his opening remarks to the jury that the state would attempt to show Townley was connected officially with activities in Jackson county of Freitag and Gilbert. Gilbert also is under indictment on a charge of having made unpatriotic utterances.

McKellar was clerk of the draft board for Jackson county and said the draft board had considerable influence in certain sections of the county and testified his principal objections to non-partisan league activities early in 1918 "was a disturbing effect at that time upon the community."

Attorney George Hoke of the defense questioned McKellar as to whether opposition to the non-partisan league was not of a political nature.

Townley Is Absent. "If you want to know the political situation which existed in Jackson county, I'll tell," said McKellar. "If you were for the non-partisan league, you got their vote 100 per cent, but if you were an out and out American, you didn't."

Judge Thorsen testified that he believed Jackson County farmers who were non-partisan league members were good citizens.

Townley did not arrive in Jackson today. His absence was not discussed at the trial. It was said by his associate he is still in North Dakota, where a state-wide referendum vote will be taken tomorrow on certain non-partisan league measures which were enacted into law by the 1919 North Dakota legislature.

EGYPT'S PRESENCE IN EGYPT IS WOUNDED

Jubilant Over General Allenby's Concessions Hurts.

ERRORS FREELY ADMITTED

Processions of Merry-Makers in Cairo Turned Into Scourging Mobs Bent on Murder.

BY WILLIAM T. ELLIS. (Copyright by the New York Herald Company. Published by Arrangement.) CAIRO.—Recent events in Egypt have wounded Great Britain in her most sensitive spot, her spirit of sportsmanship and fair play. In a critical hour a considerable number of the British in Egypt have proved to be bad losers and not loyal to their own leader.

Suddenly, within an hour, Cairo's unprecedented festival of jubilation was transformed into a scared, scurrying, resentful and murderous minded mob of men and women bent on bitter vengeance. What caused this dramatic change, ending as by magic, all the rejoicing and celebrations? Nothing less than the collapse locally of a glorious British tradition.

The lack of chivalry on the part of many of our British citizens in Cairo has cost their nation more dearly than any man can at present estimate. The historic British reputation for square dealing, which has hitherto been the empire's supreme asset in the world, is now being blanketed by the swift-flying news that when a great official Britisher has been struck blind in Egypt his subordinates and nationals refused to play the game and at the sight of a subject people's rejoicing over the good news, their fairness gave way by railings, curings, violence and killings, finally precipitating a situation which made the latter state of things worse than the first.

British Betray Traditions.

Such an incident is not easy to write. By conviction I am essentially pro-British, but I have seen work in the world, and while criticisms could be written of British manners, the British character, on the whole, has everywhere stood for even-handed justice and integrity of purpose. British rule has meant the substantial welfare and progress of the native people, even as here in Egypt, the British have seen their work in the world and while criticisms could be written of British manners, the British character, on the whole, has everywhere stood for even-handed justice and integrity of purpose.

New vs. Old

THE Brunswick Method of Reproduction has established new standards of tone projection, due to two outstanding features—two departures from old methods.

The Ultona reproducer enables you to play all records at their best. Just a turn of the hand presents to each type the proper point and diaphragm, its exact position on the record, and the precise degree of pressure.

As no one record maker has all the desirable singers and entertainers, the advantages of the Ultona are really appreciated.

The Brunswick Amplifier brings out tones hitherto lost and eliminates the usual metallic sounds, for it is built entirely of molded wood like a fine violin.

Let us explain all the features of The Brunswick to you. We shall gladly put it to any test you wish. But you shall be the judge of its superiorities.
