

ALLEGED CONSPIRACY TRIAL DRAWS CROWD

Hearing of Tyler Case Against Attorneys Interesting.

WOMAN OF 86 PLAINTIFF

Clashes of Lawyers in Suit Charging Attempt to Rob Aged Woman of $24,000 Enliven Court.

Before an audience which packed the courtroom to the doors, the suit of Mrs. Permelia L. Tyler against attorneys George A. Hall and John N. Sievers, who are accused of conspiring to rob the 86-year-old woman of $24,000, continued yesterday.

There are certain things 'Cap' Tyler knows by rote, and he repeats them time and again, volunteering information without questions being asked, but he cannot tell anything about surrounding conditions.

Tyler Defers to Mother. The defense endeavored to learn why it was Tyler had not taken a more active part in the proceedings on January 27, 1918.

Settlement Not Protested. Tyler testified that Sievers made no protest against the settlement for $29,000 and that the woman thought that amount was turned over to Sievers that he might settle affairs with it.

Witness Shocked, He Says. "I thought a great deal of her," he admitted, "and because I cared for her, it was naturally a great shock to find that she had been married all the while to the man I thought her brother."

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Witness Shocked, He Says. "I thought a great deal of her," he admitted, "and because I cared for her, it was naturally a great shock to find that she had been married all the while to the man I thought her brother."

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

Refutation of the contentions of the defense that finding out that Mrs. Henderson was married was not a shock to Tyler, was given in the testimony of Mrs. E. E. Cook and Mrs. Anna Zetina, neighbors of one Mrs. Tyler, who asserted that they had always believed Harry Henderson to be the real brother of Ethel Henderson, and not her husband.

WEDDINGS

MRS. HARRY COLEMAN will give a luncheon at her home, 865 Vermont street, tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, honoring Mr. Coleman's mother, Mrs. Mary L. Coleman, who is her house guest for the summer.

Mrs. Constance King and Mrs. Elmer Young will entertain with a tea tomorrow afternoon, honoring Mrs. Earl D. Doran (Hazel Kurts), the house guest of Miss Marjorie Thomson.

The Lady Foresters of Holy Rosary parish will be hostesses for a dancing party Saturday evening in C. B. E. C. hall, Grand avenue and Clackamas street. Card tables will be arranged for those desiring to play.

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 26.—(Special.)—Earl Chapel, a member of the high school class of 1912, and Miss Corine Genevieve Herbert of Portland, were married here today by W. S. T. Derr, justice of the peace.

Women's Activities. Martha Washington chapter, No. 14, Oregon Eastern Star, will give a picnic for members and their families at Laurelhurst Park, Saturday at 1 o'clock.

CLARK ESTATE $550,000. WIDOW AND SONS INHERIT BULK OF ESTATE. Saddlery Company Stock Composes Big Part of Fortune—Friends Remembered in Will.

John Clark, head of the John Clark Saddlery company, who died in Portland June 12, left an estate valued at $550,000, according to the petition for probate of the will filed in the circuit court yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert V. Hauser, with their children, who have been visiting Eric V. Hauser of the Multnomah hotel, leaving this evening for St. Paul, stopping at Glacier National Park for a few days and being planned by the college girls in honor of Miss Catton.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Whiteside, accompanied by her brother, she has been at school in Boston for the past two years and will pass the summer vacation here with her parents.

Miss Marion Whiteside, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Whiteside, arrived in town last week from her school in Boston for the past two years and will pass the summer vacation here with her parents.

Mrs. Charles W. Jones was hostess at a luncheon theater party Wednesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. E. Kampfmueller, of Louisville, Ky., who is visiting her for the summer.

Mrs. Lloyd Robert Gray (Edith Olds) and little son, Robert Olds Gray, are in Portland to spend the summer with Mrs. Gray's mother, Mrs. J. C. Olds, while Lieutenant-Commander Gray is on a cruise to Alaska.

The Knights of Columbus will initiate a class of 50 candidates at the Cathedral hall next Monday evening. The candidates will assemble at the hall at 8 P. M., where dinner will be served.

STAGE ALL SET FOR SIGNING OF TREATY

Hundred French Workers Put Hall of Mirrors in Order.

CEREMONY TO BE SIMPLE

To Whom Weimar Cabinet Will Confide Thankless Task of Signing Not Yet Known.

PARIS, June 26.—(Special Cable.)—All eyes are turned toward Versailles, where in the Hall of Mirrors of Louis XIV, that grand monument to kingly grandeur, the envoys of the German republic, with bowed heads, will attest their country's humiliating capitulation.

A hundred French workmen, skilled in the science of rearranging and renovating ancient chateaux for modern uses, are putting a final polish on the slightly faded magnificence of royalty's most splendid residence.

German Embassy to Open. According to the protocol the German delegates cease to be enemies as soon as their signatures have been subscribed to the peace terms.

Official Signers in Doubt. To whom the Weimar cabinet will confide the delicate and thankless task of representing the fatherland in France is not yet known here.

Stage Setting Is Complete. There has been no change in the setting of the scene for the signatory ceremony as described weeks ago in these dispatches.

Treaty Will Be Printed. Some 400,000 allied and German newspapers and perhaps 300 guests of the newly formed Weimar cabinet will witness the epochal spectacle from opposite ends of the Hall of Mirrors.

MISSION REACHES SEATTLE. Omsk Government Representatives on Way to Washington. SEATTLE, June 26.—On their way to Washington, London and Paris, O. Kullisch and A. Leya, financial commissioners of the Omsk government of Siberia, left here today after arriving from the orient yesterday.

Stamp Drive to Continue. CHEHALIS, Wash., June 26.—(Special.)—N. R. Coffman, Chehalis banker, has consented to handle the war savings campaign for Lewis county.

W. J. Page Receives Appointment. SALEM, Or., June 26.—(Special.)—W. J. Page was chosen yesterday by the industrial accident commission as head of the claims department, succeeding Creemettes The New American Macaroni. ENJOY the delights of discovery. Try this new American macaroni—and you'll marvel at the rich nut-like flavor and the tenderness of a mushroom.

THE CREMETTE COMPANY, MINNEAPOLIS. Cooks in one-third the time.

STAGE ALL SET FOR SIGNING OF TREATY

Hundred French Workers Put Hall of Mirrors in Order.

CEREMONY TO BE SIMPLE

To Whom Weimar Cabinet Will Confide Thankless Task of Signing Not Yet Known.

PARIS, June 26.—(Special Cable.)—All eyes are turned toward Versailles, where in the Hall of Mirrors of Louis XIV, that grand monument to kingly grandeur, the envoys of the German republic, with bowed heads, will attest their country's humiliating capitulation.

A hundred French workmen, skilled in the science of rearranging and renovating ancient chateaux for modern uses, are putting a final polish on the slightly faded magnificence of royalty's most splendid residence.

German Embassy to Open. According to the protocol the German delegates cease to be enemies as soon as their signatures have been subscribed to the peace terms.

Official Signers in Doubt. To whom the Weimar cabinet will confide the delicate and thankless task of representing the fatherland in France is not yet known here.

Stage Setting Is Complete. There has been no change in the setting of the scene for the signatory ceremony as described weeks ago in these dispatches.

Treaty Will Be Printed. Some 400,000 allied and German newspapers and perhaps 300 guests of the newly formed Weimar cabinet will witness the epochal spectacle from opposite ends of the Hall of Mirrors.

MISSION REACHES SEATTLE. Omsk Government Representatives on Way to Washington. SEATTLE, June 26.—On their way to Washington, London and Paris, O. Kullisch and A. Leya, financial commissioners of the Omsk government of Siberia, left here today after arriving from the orient yesterday.

Stamp Drive to Continue. CHEHALIS, Wash., June 26.—(Special.)—N. R. Coffman, Chehalis banker, has consented to handle the war savings campaign for Lewis county.

W. J. Page Receives Appointment. SALEM, Or., June 26.—(Special.)—W. J. Page was chosen yesterday by the industrial accident commission as head of the claims department, succeeding

Creemettes The New American Macaroni. ENJOY the delights of discovery. Try this new American macaroni—and you'll marvel at the rich nut-like flavor and the tenderness of a mushroom.

THE CREMETTE COMPANY, MINNEAPOLIS. Cooks in one-third the time.

At Liebes' Today a special Featuring of Sports Clothes and other garments for Summer days with prices so engagingly low as to warrant your eager and immediate attention. Wool Jersey Sport Suits $25 $29.50 $35. Youthfully styled, winsome Sport Coats—$19.50, $25, $35. All-season Sport Skirts $11.50 $16.50 $22.50. Street & Afternoon Dresses Specially Priced $21.75. New Tub Skirts $1.95, $2.50, $3.50. Liebes' Summer Blouses $4.95 $1.95 $3.95 to $7.50. H. Liebes & Co. Established 1864 149-151 Broadway FURS.

Will T. Kirk, who has just been named as a member of the commission. The appointment takes effect on July 1, at which time Mr. Kirk, with J. W. Ferguson of Portland, becomes a member of the commission.

Brownsville Sets Record. BROWNVILLE, Or., June 26.—(Special.)—A book of statistics issued by the treasury department shows that in this county the best record in subscriptions for certificates of indebtedness falls to Brownsville.

Florence People Work on Roads. EUGENE, Or., June 26.—(Special.)—A few days ago the people of Florence and the surrounding country "took a day off" and spent it working on the road at Mapleton hill, on the Eugene-Florence highway.

With Soups—and broths. You will find Snow Flakes satisfying in every particular. You will enjoy immensely their delicious salty crispness and rich texture. Don't ask for crackers, say Snow Flakes. Your grocer can supply you.

SNOW FLAKES. With Soups—and broths. You will find Snow Flakes satisfying in every particular. You will enjoy immensely their delicious salty crispness and rich texture. Don't ask for crackers, say Snow Flakes. Your grocer can supply you. Pacific Coast Biscuit Co.