'MUSHY' LETTERS DERIDED

KANSAS WOMAN ADVISED BY RIVAL TO DESIST.

Local License Records Fail to Show That Shipyard Worker's Affections Were Transferred.

"We would appreciate it very much if you would discontinue sending such mushy letters to my husband. If you could see how he makes fun of them you would send no more. Try to get your money back that you paid for your marriage license, as it won't do you any good."

This is the letter Mrs. Mary E. Doherty, divorced, declares she received from Mrs. Beattie Stevens of Portland, who she had known in Wichita, Kan., referring to correspondence with Walter C. Marchand, who came to Portland from Wichita to work in the shipyards and prepare a home for Mrs. Doherty, whom he was pledged to marry, according to a letter received by County Clerk Beveridge yesterday from Mrs. Doherty, who is still in Kansas.

Mrs. Doherty desired to know if her husband and Mrs. Stevens had secured a marriage license in Portland and really were married, as the letter from Mrs. Stevens would have indicated. Mr. Beveridge searched the records for two years back and could find no trace of such a license being issued.

WALLA WALLA GREET MEN

Record Crowd Turns Out to Welcome Returning 146th Artillery.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 26.—The biggest crowd ever seen in Walla Walla gathered here today to do honor to the man of the 146th field artillery and other service men. The 146th arrived about noon and escorted by the boy scouts, Spanish War Veterans and G. A. R., the service men of all branches to the number of nearly 800 marched for a mile through streets thronged with people who wildly demonstrated their enthusiasm.

MODERN GARAGE TO RISE

Senator Judd of Chehalis, Purchases Fine Business Block. CHEHALIS, Wash., June 26.—(Special.)—The old Chehalis public school block in the heart of the city's business center, which has been unoccupied for several years, is to be the site of a fine new building. A garage will be erected by Senator A. E. Judd, who recently purchased the tract. The building will be modern in every way. The new building will be occupied by J. P. Korta, manager of the southwest Washington Auto company.

VANCOUVER TO BE BUSY

MANY EVENTS LISTED FOR JULY FOURTH CELEBRATION.

Day's Programme to Open With Industrial Parade and End With Dancing Near Park.

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 26.—(Special.)—A day of activity awaits Vancouver at the Fourth of July celebration. Committees have arranged a list of amusements which promises to keep the time of the visitor fully occupied. The day's events will start with an industrial and civic parade headed by Colonel F. J. Koster, commanding officer at the barracks. Immediately following the parade patriotic exercises will be held in the park, at which Mayor G. E. Percival will preside. Music will be furnished by the Prunarian band. Reading of the Declaration of Independence, singing and an address by Thomas G. Ryan of Portland are listed.

From 12 o'clock to 1:30 a band concert will be given in the park by the Prunarian band. Beginning at 1:30 a programme of sports will be held, consisting of a 100-yard dash, 50-yard dash, roller-skating race, three-legged race, bicycle race, broad jump, potato race and fat man's race. First and second prizes will be given in each event. At 2:30, at the Clarke county fair grounds, automobile and motorcycle races will be held under the auspices of the Liberty Auto company. At 2:30 at the city park a contest for the northwest riveting championship will be held. During the afternoon the crowds will be entertained by the Portland Ragpipe band. At 5:30 there

DEAD HERO TO BE HONORED

Seattle to Name Legion Post After Lieutenant Elmer Noble.

CENTRALIA, Wash., June 26.—(Special.)—Lieutenant Elmer Noble, a graduate of the Centralia high school and University of Washington athlete, who was killed in action in the Argonne forest in September, 1918, will be honored. The Seattle post of the American Legion will be named after him, according to word received by William Scates, chairman of the Centralia branch of the legion, from the secretary of the Seattle organization. The letter apologized to the Centralia veterans for having adopted the name of a Centralia comrade, but stated that Seattle also claimed the dead hero, owing to his prominence in university activities before he entered the army.

Alleged Murderer Taken. GRASS VALLEY, Cal., June 26.—Announcement that a man giving the name of Thomas Grotton, under arrest on a misdemeanor charge, is Dan Merrigan, wanted in Butte, Mont., in connection with a murder there, was made by Sheriff John R. Martin here today. A Butte officer was said to be on the way here.

Health Crusade Popular. CHEHALIS, Wash., June 26.—(Special.)—Approximately 1064 new members have been added to the Lewis county branch of the Anti-Tuberculosis league as the result of the recent drive. The funds obtained will be used to continue the work of the health cr-sade already started in the public schools. Children in the schools have taken great interest thus far in the health crusade.
