DEL MONTE, Cal., June 27.—(Special.)—The ambitions of Mort Dutro, the young caddy master at Del Monte No. I course, to be a proficient golfer are taking definite form in the shape of strict training. Dutro is springing a number of stunts similar to Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard in preparation for their fistic encounter on July 4.

The youngster has been showing exceptionally fine form on the links, and has all the regulars here boosting his stock. In company with George B. Carpenter, the Medford, Or., amateur, Dutro has played the course the last three times out in 76, 69 and 69. This is conclusive evidence of the wonderful form he has been showing.
