OGRATS READY TO

Local Politicians Have Glad Hand for Leaders.

CAMPAIGN IS GOAL

"Non-Partisan" Meetings fo Women to Be Held Under Auspices of Party.

Details for the entertainment of Homer S. Cummings, democratic national chairman, including two "non-partisan" meeting for women, have been completed and Oregon democratis are ready to welcome him next Monday. Mr. Cummings, who comes on a political mission, is accompanied by J. B. Kremer, vice-chairman: W. R. Hollister, executive secretary; J. W. Cochran, publicity director; and Mrs. George Bass, chairman of the woman's auxiliary to the national committee. This party is touring the Pacific coast to lay the foundation for the 1920 presidential campaign and will devote two days to Portland.

Women's "Non-Partisan" Meeting.

Women's "Non-Partisan" Meeting. Mr. Cummings will arrive from California at 7:39 o'clock Monday morning. At noon he will speak on non-political matters at a luncheon at the chamber of commerce. During the noon hour a luncheon will be given at the Benson for Mrs. Bass, and to which more than 200 women have been invited. This is called a "non-partisan" meeting, albeit Mr. Cummings will be there and make a political talk to the there and make a political talk to the women. Mrs. Alexander Thompson, who is arranging this meeting, will be hairman.

From 2:30 to 5 o'clock a public re-ception will be held at the Hotel Port-and, when democrats and republicans land, when democrats and republicans will be welcomed.

At the Hellig theater at 8 o'clock a democratic meeting has been scheduled. State Chairman Starkweather will preside. Mrs. Bass will be introduced by Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden. There will be an address on "Our President" by Mrs. Thompson, and Mr. Cummings will speak on "Accomplishments of the Present Administration." A musical programme will be offered by Mary M. Meeley, soprano solo; Marcella Larkin, violin; and Mrs. Ella Connell Jesse, piano.

For Tuesday, the second day of the visitation, the visitors will be taken over the Columbia river highway, returning in time for a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock, at the Hotel Portland, where the "non-partisan" meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Louise Palmer Weber. This affair will be for women only. An elaborate banquet is intended to close the Tuesday proceedings. The meal will be served at the Hotel Portland at 7:20 o'clock, with Dr. J. W. Morrow, national committeeman for Oregon, as toastmaster. The speakers Visitors to See Highway.

taint of bolishevism and inhabited by happy and contented people by Mr. Kulish, who in private life is a banker at Omsk.

"Siberia is going to become a great country," he said in broken English. "We are making wonderful progress and our relations with the United States have been most cordial."

FARMERS' EXCURSION SET

Experiment Station at Puyaliup to Be Visited July 18.

SOUTH BEND, Wash., June 27.—The 1919 farmers' excursion from Pacific county to the state experiment sta-tion at Puyallup has been announced by County Agriculturalist George A. Nelson for Friday, July 18. It is planned to leave the various points in Pacific county the day before and spend the night in Tacoma, going to the experiment farm on the moraling of the 18th and remaining throughout of the 18th and remaining throughout

The state's farm experts at the sta-tion will discuss various problems brought up by the farmers.

SUPPORT PLEDGED TO DAM

Improvement of Portland-Lewiston Navigation Facilities Looms.

LEWISTON, Idaho, June 27 .- (Spe cial.)-Representative Addison T. Smith

cial.)—Representative Addison T. Smith of Idaho has notified the Commercial club that he will work for a federal appropriation of $25,000 for a survey and preparation of estimates looking toward the construction of a dam in the Snake river hear Pasco.

The purpose of this dam will be twofold. In addition to improving navigation facilities between Portland and Lewiston, it would furnish irrigation for reclaiming nearly 200,000 acres in Pranklin and Walla Walla counties, in Washington.

OREGON BOYS ARE HONORED

Roy Ventch and Ted Cramer to Attend Y. M. C. A. School. EUGENE, Or., June 27.—(Special.)— Roy eVatch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mariot Veatch of Eugene and a student of the Veatch of Eugene and a student of the University of Oregon, left this week for New York city, having been chosen by the Y. M. C. A. board of that city to take an eight weeks' course there this summer. A representative from each of the large colleges and universities of the country has been selected to take this course. Ted Cramer of Grants Pans will represent the Oregon Agricultural college.

Jess Willard (left), participant in world championship match scheduled for July 4. in his screen drama, "The Challenge of Chance," which opens today at the Star theater for a week's run.

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES.

Peoples—Elsie Ferguson, "The Avalanche." Columbia—Olive Thomas, "The Girl From Paris"; Elmo Lin-coln, "Elmo, the Mighty." Majestic—Geraldine Farrar, "The Turn in the Wheel." Liberty—Norma Talmadge, "The Turn in the Wheel."

Liberty—Norma Talmadge, "The New Moon", Prizma color pictures.
Star—Jess Willard, "The Challenge of Chance."
Globe—Nazimova, "An Eye for an Eye."
(Stole William Presell "Brass

Circle-William Russell, "Brass Buttons"; Mack Sennett com-edy, "When Love Is Blind."

Jess Willard, who is starring in "The Jess Willard, who is starring in "The Challenge of Chance," which will be exhibited at the Star theater today and during next week, is getting to be a sure enough movie actor and "lows" he likes it. Jess thinks that after his coming fight he will go into the pictures for good, as he says the outdoor work keeps him in excellent condition.

A parrot almost figured conspicuously with Jess Willard in the new film drama, "The challenge of Chance." The story goes that Director Revier was story goes that Director Revier was neglecting Jess in a big scene and was trying to get the parrot to do a small bit. Jess got mad and said, "Ah, heli, if you're going to monkey with that darned bird I'm going home." Of course store are made as usual, wrapped and packed for delivery as usual, but—the airplane is loaded with, the packages (even the baby carriage is included), rises and sails away in the air, to come down and deliver the packages at the very doors of the various destinations The number is called "The Bird of Com-

Marion Davies and her entire company worked Tuesday night at the Biograph studios from 7:30 o'clock in the evening until Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock. There were 300 persons in the company and the picture, which happens to be "April Folly," is being directed by Robert Leonard.

Mae Murray was an interested spectator of the scene, which was supposed to be a party on board ship. Miss Murray was faithful until 12 midnight.

ray was faithful until 12 midnight. Miss Murray is now a working wom-an, being engaged in making "The Woman in White."

Charlie Ray's baseball success has brought word that soon we are to see him as a prizefighter.

It is now definitely announced that Thomas Meighan will play the title role in the screen version of Sir James M. Barrie's famous satirical play, "The Admirable Crichton," which, however, will probably not be released under that

If you really want the puckery tannin-taste, don't buy tea. You can get more tannin from oak-

If you want the real tea-flavor, pay enough for your tea to get it.

There is some tea-taste -not very fine-in common tea; but the tannintaste smothers it.

Besides, fine tea is cheaper per cup than poor tea-a pound makes so many more cups.

Schilling Tea is the fine practical economical tea of this country.

There are four flavors of Schilling Tea-Japan, Ceylon-India, Oolong, English Breakfast. All one quality. In parchmyn-lined moisture-proof packages. At grocers everywhere.

A Schilling & Co San Francisco

INJURED GIRLS IMPROVE

MISS STANSFIELD PARTIALLY o'clock, All who will accept the hos-REGAINS CONSCIOUSNESS.

Frances Fisher, Who Suffered Fran tured Leg in Automobile Accident, Rests Easily.

pitality of the church are requested to send their names to the Rev. A. H. Thompson not later than Sunday night.

0

Look

for

TILLAMOOK

on the

Rind

C. G. SUTHERLAND ELECTED

Officers for Year Are Named by Portland Transportation Club.

"Look for Tillamook on the Rind"

"Tillamook" Cheese

and Macaroni

This favorite macaroni dish brings out the wonderful flavor of "Tillamook." Serve

"Tillamook" is sold by the slice, also individual sizes, 6 and 14 pounds, convenient for large

TILLAMOOK COUNTY CREAMERY ASSN.

24 Cheese-Kitchens, Owned and Operated Co-operatively by Tillamook Dairymen

its superiority.

it as a meat substitute.

2.0. 5. s. 6. s. 6

families, boarding houses, etc.

THE taste of "Tillamook," with its real milk richness and marvelous food values, is the true reason for

STUDY OF EARLY OREGON HIS-TORY TO BE ORGANIZED.

Committee Soon to Be Appointed and Professor Robert W. Prescott of the university urged more debating in

COUNCIL HONORS OFFICIAL

TILLAMOOK

City Commissioner Perkins Presented With Bouquet of Roses.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, June 27.—(Special.)—Organization of a system for the collection and distribution of information on early Oregon local history will be undertaken by a committee to be appointed by Dr. H. D. Steidon, president of the teachers' conference held here this week, under authorization given by the meeting all ast night. Dr. Sheldon has not yet announced the personnel of the committee.

This action followed the Themsight session is

A Nutritious Diet for All Ages Quick Lunch at Home or Office Avoid Imitations and Substitutes

We might use cheaper ingredients in Franz Butternut----but we don't! A penny or two a day saved does not justify the use of cheap bread in my family---especially where there are growing children. Ask for--and get Franz

BUTTERNUT

The Incomparable Loaf.

Chocol