OREGONIAN TO GIVE FIGHT NEWS QUICKEST AND MOST FULLY.

Associated Press returns from the world's championship battle at Toledo July 4 can only be bulletined at the offices of Associated Press newspapers. Nobody else will have them. The Associated Press does not permit its news to be displayed except at newspaper offices of its members. Therefore the best place to get the fight story promptly and accurately will be at The Oregonian corner, Sixth and Alder streets. From 12:30 P. M. on July 4 until the end of the fight a megaphone man will read the returns as fast as they come off of the Associated Press wires. Afterward The Oregonian will print in its regular editions of July 5 reports by specialists covering the fight from every angle. Harry Grayson, sporting editor of The Oregonian, who is at Toledo, will send a detailed story. Irvin S. Cobb, one of the world's most picturesque writers, will give a Cobbesque version of it. Igoe, famous sports expert of the New York World, will send a signed story, and there will be Associated Press dispatches covering every detail besides.

TOLEDO, O., July 2.—After sweeping down upon this city, situated on the shores of Lake Erie, by every means of modern transportation, thousands of boxing enthusiasts tonight sought places to lay their heads during the 48-odd hours that intervene before Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey enter the ring. Long lines of railroad trains, strings of steamboats, endless chains of automobiles and even an occasional airplane are depositing their burdens of human freight.

Every arrangement for the caring of the visitors is being tested to the limit and it appears certain that tomorrow night sleeping accommodations will not be available at any price. It was stated tonight every one of the 25,000 hotel cots and beds had been reserved, while the overflow was being shunted into private rooming places and huge vacant stores and office buildings filled with cots. On the outskirts and in the parks along the lake front, tents are being erected.

Vanguard Arrives Early.
The gathering of the vanguard began to make its presence felt early today. At twilight, it was almost impossible to move about the corridors of the leading hotels except at a slow, wiggling, dodging gait and the novice rubbed shoulders with sport celebrities from all parts of the continent. It is estimated that between 30,000 and 70,000 visitors will surge into Toledo during the final 24 hours.

Both boxers completed their training today and tomorrow will be a day of relaxation. Dempsey did only three minutes of shadow boxing. After this light workout, Dempsey was examined by the official physician of the local boxing commission, who pronounced Dempsey an exceptional athlete in every respect and ready to engage in the hardest kind of a contest without danger of injury and in the usual temporary exhaustion following violent exertion.

Willard went three three-minute rounds with both Jack Hines and Walter Monahan, wound up with an additional three-minute session of fast shadow boxing. While he wore the customary 16-ounce gloves, he used both sparring partners several times with powerful blows. In return Monahan reopened the cut on the champion's lip, bringing a slight flow of blood. Before entering the ring Willard said that he weighed 212½ pounds and Dempsey gave his weight at 194 pounds.

At the close of the training the camp attendants began to dismantle the canvas inclosures and the temporary rings. It was announced that the 15,000 spectators had paid to see the champion training and that the gross receipts were close to $15,000.

GOLFERS PLAN 3 DAYS' PLAY

PRESIDENT'S CUP TOURNAMENT HEADS LIST OF EVENTS.

Men's Two-Ball Tournament Handicap Medal Round Also Promises to Attract Many Friends.

Three days of tournament play will be in vogue at the Waverley Country club, beginning tomorrow and lasting through Saturday and Sunday. The qualifying round of the president's cup tournament, men's medal play handicap competition, 18 holes, will take place tomorrow afternoon, the eight best net scores, to qualify for the second round, to be played off Saturday afternoon. No entries will be taken after 12 o'clock noon tomorrow in the president's cup event.

There will also be a men's two-ball foursome handicap medal play, at 18 holes tomorrow afternoon. The entrants will be handicapped on a basis of three-eighths of their combined handicap. A rule which must be followed is that players with 14 handicaps and under must pick partners whose handicaps are more than 14.
Saturday the winning eight players in the qualifying round for the president's cup will meet and the winning four will play off on Sunday. It has been announced that the two men playing for the finals must meet and decide the match on or before July 12. Handicap in match play will be the number of holes up according to one-half the difference between handicaps of contestants.

By a remarkable unanimity, but without any collusion on the part of the respective captains, all three golf clubs of Seattle have agreed to identical terms of entertainment for tomorrow afternoon. At the Seattle Golf club, at Erlington, and at the municipal links, where the Jefferson Park Golf club holds sway, there will be in progress an Independence day handicap medal play against bogey.

In the case of the Seattle Golf club there will be an added feature in the shape of mixed foursomes in the afternoon. This is an invariable custom for Seattle's oldest golf club on July 4. At Erlington they have also included driving and approaching contests with fireworks to wind up the evening.

SPORT EVENTS ARE ON LIST

Vancouver to Offer Variety of Contests on Fourth of July.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 2.—(Special.)—There will be much doing in the sports line here on the Fourth. At the fair grounds there will be automobile and motorcycle races. At 5:30 a log-rolling contest will be held below the dock.

An attraction of importance which has been added to the programme is a ball game to be held between the Standifer and Camas teams, both of which are said to be fast. The contest will be for a prize of $150 and the championship of southwest Washington.
At 1:30 in the afternoon at Roller-makers' hall will be a wrestling match between White and Olson, and in the evening at 8 o'clock at the Victory theater there will be boxing matches.

Play on Local Course Is Extended to September 30.

Members of the Portland Golf club who have recorded only a few good holes on the election contest scheduled for May and June will be pleased to know that this event has been extended to September 30. The tournament committee has decided that play for the handsome trophy should be continued to give opportunity for competition by many players who failed to fully understand this event and have not participated thus far. Complete information is posted on the club bulletin board.
No special contests have been scheduled for July, as many members will be out of the city over the holiday. However, many matches will no doubt be played off that day in the summer handicap tournament in which 55 players qualified last Sunday.

The pairings were reported in The Oregonian Monday and all contestants should arrange with opponents to play off their first round by Sunday night. The second round play begins next Monday and is playable during the following six days by appointment with opponent. Pairings will be shown on bulletin board. September 1 handicaps will apply in this contest.

LINN STREAMS RESTOCKED

CARLOAD OF TROUT FRY PLANTED BY COMMISSION.

Officers of Santiam Fish and Game Association Direct Work of Distribution.

ALBANY, Or., July 2.—(Special.)—A carload of trout fry was placed in Linn county streams today under the direction of the Santiam Fish and Game association. The trout came from the state hatchery at Bonneville and were planted in small streams entering the South Santiam river above Cascadia.
L. G. Lewelling of this city, president, and Dr. J. G. Gill of Lebanon, vice-president of the Santiam Fish and Game association, and C. C. Hall of Albany, supervisor of the Santiam national forest, who is field superintendent of the association, were in charge of the work of planting the fish.

The car was taken to Lebanon and from there the cans of fish were taken on trucks as far as possible and then packed in to the streams in which the trout were placed.
Later two more cars of trout fry will be sent from the state hatchery for distribution under the direction of the Santiam Fish and Game association. One carload will be planted in streams tributary to the North Santiam river and the other in lakes in the eastern part of Linn county.

PHEASANT FARM IS TOPIC

Purchase of Land Near Eugene to Be Decided Today.

Whether the state is to purchase the Raddish farm near Eugene for pheasant breeding is the principal question to be decided this morning when the Oregon Fish and Game commission meets at 9:30. A number of sportsmen probably will attend to present their views, especially those opposed to the investment.
State Game Warden Shoemaker says he believes the farm is greatly needed for the propagation of the birds so that there may be a sufficient quantity to supply the increasing number of sportsmen. The proposed Lane county farm contains 48 acres.
