BEAVERS AND SEALS OPEN SERIES TODAY

Tom Seaton "Ace" of Visitors' Pitching Staff.

SEATTLE BEATEN. 4 TO

Jack Feeley, Succeeding Casey as Umpire, Proves Satisfactory to League Management

In San Francisco the scribes are tout-Seals to take the Beavers this week like Dempsey took in Willard, but if Walter McCredie's helated pitching staff can hold up its end the corps of hit registers on the Portland club should give a good enough account of themselves and win some games. Charley Graham, manager of the Seals. Secretary G. Washington Putman and 15 players arrived from Seattle yesterday after taking the Purple Sox down the line four out of six games.

Los Angeles is considered to have a pretty good pitching staff, but the Beavers nicked them for a total of 61 hits in seven games.

While San Francisco has a good pitching staff, the Seals are not burning up the league in hitting, which gives the Seavers an excellent chance to cop the series. Walter McCredie's infriere will not have to go up against any Sam Crawfords, Jacques Fourniers, Wade Killsfers or Fabriques this week, but will have to fathom Justin Fixgerald. Phil Koorner and Schick, a trio of heavy swatters. this week like Dempsey took in Wil-gerald. Phil Koerner and Schick, a trie of heavy swatters.

Tom Seaton, who first sprang into fame in a Portland uniform, is the "are" of the Seals' pitching staff. Tom won two games last week and is the most consistent pitcher in the Pacific Cohat league. Jim Scott, former White Sox star, is also going great, with Caser Smith, "Spider" Baum and Johnny Couch pitching as excellent bread of ball.

brand of bail.

After this week's series with San Francisco, new in third place, the Heavers will take the road for four weeks. This afternoon's game will clast at 2 delock as usual. Carroll Jones will likely be McCredie's selection to take the mound, with "Spider" Haum probably going in for the Scals. Pearl Casey may not do any more umpiring in the coast league for some time to come. Last week Pearl was hit on the arm by a foul tip in a game between Oakland and Sacramento and it is believed that his arm was broken. Casey has not made his appearance on the diamond since that time and his the diamond since that time and his place has been filled by Jack Feeley, formerly an umpire in the American association. Feeley is a friefid of Umpire Bill Guthrie and was given the job on Guthrie's recommendation. His work on Guthrie's recommendation. His work has been entirely catisfactory up to date, according to word from the south.

Joe Connelly, who held down a utility role with San Francisco, has been sent to Des Moines by Manager Graham to foin Hal Dimock and Herman Pillett. Joe did not prove fast enough to cope with either Herb Hunter or Schick, and with Carl Zamlock available for utility work he was not needed by the Seals.

cated the game on the grounds that immy Caveney in fielding a grounder samped into a base runner. President saum has thrown out the protest, so the Seals win the game

The Seals have proved a better road than the Angels, and Graham is satisfied with the showing of his With his pitching staff in shape. he is not worrying about anything in particular, but it is not likely that if a real classy twirler were to come in the San Francisco locker room and hang his hat on a nail that Graham would call a cop and have him ejected.

Jack Farmer, Beaver outfielder, is expected to get in the lineup again this week. George Maisel is also due, but may not join the team until they leave for Salt Lake.

After the Beas' showing against Vernon last week, taking five out of seven contests, one can see how they managed to trim the Angels five out of six in Sam Crawford of the Angels started stilling at a 150 gait at the beginning of the season, and the veteran has been keeping it up. He never slumped for more than one or two days at a time, and at the end of each series it will be found that he has been hitting around 280. Every pitcher in the coast league believes that Sam will wind up the season hitting better than 250.
