Acquaintance With Mother of Los Angeles Slayer Admitted.

SUPPOSED SON IS GUARDED

Fear Felt That Youth Who Killed Fiancee May End Own Life—Insanity Plea Is Probable.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Senator New of Indiana tonight issued the following statement regarding the arrest in Los Angeles on a charge of murder of Harry S. New, who says he is a son of the senator.

I have just this to say of the whole deplorable matter. More than 30 years ago, when I was in my 20s and unmarried, I knew Mrs. Burgess. There was never at any time a question of marriage between us. Conditions arose which I did not care to dispute which resulted in my doing everything in my power to make amends then and later. Whatever I did in that direction was of my own accord and no one else had anything whatever to do with it. The affair was ended 30 years ago. Since that time the people of my home city are the best judges of what my life has been. I never have shirked any responsibility and I never shall.

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—Insanity probably will be the defense of Harry S. New, who says he is the son of United States Senator New of Indiana, when he is placed on trial charged with murdering Freida Lesser, his fiancée, at a lonely spot in Topanga canyon last Friday night, his attorney, John Richardson, announced tonight. Mr. Richardson declared he was confident New was not in his right mind at the time of the tragedy.

Mrs. Lulu Berger, New's mother, who says she is the divorced wife of the Indiana senator, is being held in a cell in the city jail here today. A guard was placed in the cell with him, officers fearing he might attempt to take his own life.

An autopsy, followed by an inquest, will be held over the body of Miss Lesser tomorrow. At the time of his arrest New told officers his fiancée had informed him she was about to become a mother and intended to have a surgical operation performed. Surgeons later examined her body and declared this was not true. The autopsy will be held to settle the question.

TOO MANY WIVES, CHARGE

Tacoma Woman, Asking Divorce, Declares Husband Bigamist.

TACOMA, Wash., July 7.—(Special.)—On the grounds that she is one of three wives living, Mrs. Dorothy May Kelly today asked for an annulment of her marriage to Fred Wallace Kelly. She also asks for her maiden name, Miss Albaugh. Her husband has two other wives, she alleges, Fred Wallace Kelly and Francis W. Pettigrove.

Her divorce complaint reads like a plot of a novel. She alleges her husband has one wife in Alaska; another wife, Alice Kelly, in Portland, while he is serving a term in the United States army disciplinary barracks at Alcatraz, Cal.

He was tried February 20, 1919, at Camp Lewis and the complaint quotes a paragraph of a special order, alleging that he was tried for "unlawfully and feloniously" marrying one Mrs. W. Kelly Albaugh. Kelly was a bugler in the 26th company, 7th battalion, depot brigade, Camp Lewis. His sentence read that he should be reduced to the ranks and be dishonorably discharged and to serve the prison term.

MRS. MARGARET FUHRMAN. Captured as a spy by Germans, sentenced to be shot, finally imprisoned in a penitentiary where scores of women died about her and living conditions indescribable, such was the lot of Mrs. Margaret Fuhrman while in Germany.

Mrs. Fuhrman is the daughter of a Chicago publisher. She went to Germany to study art. She met the man she afterward married in Germany. "Not only was I starved," says Mrs. Fuhrman, "but we were not allowed to speak and had to work 11 hours a day mending gunny sacks."

Black bread, a beverage made of roasted turnips and half decayed salt fish was the food given them to eat.

JEWIS FIGHT BOLSHEWIKI

Reports that Trotsky's Co-Religionists Aid Revolution Are Declared False.

NEW YORK, July 7.—(Special.)—A. J. Beck, director of the Russian information bureau in the United States, today made public the following cable from M. M. Wavner, the recognized leader of the Russian army, and chairman of the central committee of the constitutional democratic party:

The entire Russian Jewry struggles against bolshevism. This is true with regard not only to the bourgeoisie but to the democratic classes of the Russian Jewry. It is sufficient to say that not a single Jewish socialist faction has joined the bolsheviks.

The great majority of the Jewish population, including many of the poor, are being classed by the bolsheviks with the so-called bourgeoisie, and every place where the bolshevik rule the Jewish population, not to speak of very insignificant exceptions, is suffering and starving. The bolshevik regime has destroyed the industries and the trades and the Jewish population, which made its living mostly through participation in the industrial and commercial life, is suffering probably more than others.

The anti-Semites are using very widely the fact that Trotsky is a Jew, but the participation of several Jews among the bolshevik leaders does not nullify the fact that the Russian army, in its overwhelming majority, actively struggles against bolshevism.

"The American Jewry would help the brethren living in Russia very much if they would help us in our work of building up an anti-bolshevist democratic Russia."

DIRIGIBLE TO START BACK ON WEDNESDAY

Delay Is Necessary to Get Engines in Proper Repair.

AIRSHIP SAFELY ANCHORED

Wind Dies Down and Huge Cruiser Swings Securely at Cables—Big Crowds Come to See Craft.

MINEOLA, N. Y., July 7.—The return cruise of the British dirigible R-34 across the Atlantic ocean will not start until shortly after dawn on Wednesday. The proposed plan to get the gigantic ship away at 5 A. M. on Tuesday was abandoned tonight after local weather conditions, which included adverse stormy winds, made it impossible for the dirigible's crew to overhaul the engines during the afternoon.

Without such overhauling it would be impracticable for the airship to take off on her venture, as quantities of carbon accumulated in the engines during the 188 hours in which the craft was aloft on the unprecedented journey which ended at Roosevelt field here on Sunday morning.

Tonight the R-34 swung at ease above this flying ground, her graceful bulk scarcely moving in the breeze, illuminated by great searchlights which made her visible to thousands of spectators who had come here in motor cars and on foot to watch the early leaving.

In contrast with conditions as the darkness fell on Sunday, the dirigible was not riding in danger tonight. On both sides, well forward, and from the under surface, also well forward, three wire cables were connected with anchorages on the ground. The dirigible was suspended by what were breeze might still during the night. There was no possibility, Major G. H. Scott, the commander, said, that the stern would rise as it did Sunday night until her massive form assumed at times an almost perpendicular position. It was explained that on Sunday night the dirigible had, by mistake, been emptied from the stern. Tonight the amount of water ballast let go was equally distributed throughout the length.

Films to Be Censored. Orders that all motion picture films showing the R-34 be censored by navy officials before they are allowed to be exhibited anywhere were received here today from the Secretary of the Navy Daniels. It is understood that censorship was decided upon in response to a request from British officials to the American Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Weather conditions will be unfavorable for a return flight of the British dirigible R-34 during the next 48 hours, according to a weather report forwarded to the airship at Mineola, Long Island, late today by the navy department. The report said threatening weather would render over the air that head winds probably would be encountered as far east as Newfoundland.

NEW YORK, July 7.—Purchase by the United States of the R-34, the big British trans-Atlantic dirigible balloon, by its sister ship, the R-35, as a working model for dirigible development here, was urged by Henry Woodhouse, chairman of the dirigible balloon committee of the Aero club of America, in a statement issued here tonight. Mr. Woodhouse added that army and navy aeronautical experts favored the plan.

Model Airship Wanted. The R-34, if used as a pattern in building a larger airship in the United States and as a practice ship for training a nucleus of personnel for rigid airship service, "Heretofore the practice has been to send a commission to Europe to study the subject," Mr. Woodhouse said.

The commission was away from the army and navy administrations changed and when the commissions returned their reports were filed away and no action was taken.

It is recommended that from now on the policy be to bring the best possible dirigible to the United States, with competent experts if necessary, to cooperate with the American experts in producing even better dirigibles.

The army and navy authorities, like the civilian aeronautical authorities, now feel that the sure way of bringing the national procreation to an end is to purchase immediately a large dirigible from Great Britain and use it as a model for the construction of a larger one and to train engineers and experts in this country.

The army can finish the large hangar under construction at Langley field by the end of next month to house the R-34 or the R-35 and the navy is ready to construct a large shipyard for the naval stations for future rigids.

upheld conviction in the district court at Portland, Ore., of Charles L. Byron. Byron had been found guilty of using the mails to defraud would-be purchasers of northwestern lands and was sentenced to serve 15 months in prison and pay a fine of $1000.

Several of these operators were indicted, among them being Byron, whose conviction was secured by United States Attorney Hanes shortly after he took office. Mr. Hanes's predecessor, Clarence L. Reames, caused the indictment of a number of these individuals. There is an indictment in Seattle against Byron.

Business Session Approves Proposed Change in By-Laws. Many Addresses Planned.

The 26th annual convention of the Oregon State Dental association opened yesterday at the New Pacific Dental college with 200 of the most prominent dentists in the northwest in attendance. The meeting was called to order by Dr. C. M. Harrison, president of the association.

The morning session was given over largely to business. Change in the by-laws was discussed, so that the present election would assume office one year after election. The plan was favorably considered. Other changes were also discussed.

Dr. F. Ewing Roach of Chicago gave the principal address of the day. He is an authority on removable bridge work and dental dentures. He will deliver four more lectures during the convention. At the evening meeting, Dr. J. H. Bildeback of Portland, child specialist, spoke.

Captain L. G. McAloney, regimental dental surgeon of the 148th field artillery, who has just returned from the principal service in France, was one of the honor guests at yesterday's meetings. Captain McAloney passed through the major engagements of the Champagne-Marne defensive, Aisne-Marne offensive, St. Mihiel and Argonne-Meuse.

The women's entertainment committee under Mrs. W. C. Adams has arranged for a luncheon today at the Benson hotel for the wives of the visiting dentists. This will be followed by a theater party and automobile trips.

Among the speakers in the dental and other professions who will give lectures during the convention are Major R. L. Benson of Chicago, bacteriologist and pathologist, recently returned from overseas duty; Dr. A. Leland Le Gro of Detroit, an authority on porcelain jacket crown work; and Dr. C. A. "I've have told the men that 70 per cent of the commodities on which they have depended on the world outside of their lands to supply can be obtained here, and bought direct with the middle man being considered. That has been an objectionable system in their countries before, buying virtually everything through brokers. I found canned fruit on display, labeled as a California product, and inspecting the boxes in which they were shipped, discovered that they came from Hood River, Chehalis, Portland and such places, but the Scandinavian buyers knew only of California.

"We've produced data to prove to them what we raised and manufactured. I gave them an insight. Now I feel that it is up to us to convince them that trade once established in Oregon is dependable and by purchasing direct they are following economic lines."

Japan to Be Fought. In the shipping pool formed to take home American produce, as well as to ship those of Scandinavian lands abroad, C. K. Hanson of Copenhagen, Billburg Metcalf of Gottenburg, and Mr. Sagan of Christiania, are to use their own vessels, besides shipments being made on the vessels operated by Williams, Diamond & Co., it being likely that many Scandinavian tramp steamers will be sent to the Pacific in the future.
