

LEWISTON, Idaho.. July 21 .- (Special.)-Local sportsmen are looking forward to August 15 with the expec-tation of the best bird hunting even experienced in this section. The warm experienced in this section. The warm weather and the dryness during the nesting season have been exceptionally favorable to the breeding of game birds and observers report large hatch-ings of grouse, quail, native and Chi-nese pheasants. The season for grouse and native pheasant opens August 15. The season was closed to quail last war hut will be onen this war from Water fow may be killed from September 15 to December 31, inclusive. DOG TEAM MAKES NEW RECORD Course of 36 Miles, 385 Yards Cov-Midsummer Sonnets. er It is his appearance or the odor that privades him or his name, he is given a wide berth, like that given a strange and suspictous looking ship in a crowd-and he ties up to none. "Pirate" some call him; others speak of him by names is spicturesque but more reproachful But after he is well known all other spoken of as the "Golf Hound." Midsummer Sonnets.

Jack Dempsey and Benny Leonard are the two biggest exceptions. Leonard would rather run around with a gang of newsboys than hobnob with the Prince of Wales and from all accounts Jack Dempsey is built the same way. The notion of Oilie Pecord, who ref-ereed the Willard-Dempsey brawl, to change his mind and order Dempsey back into the ring after having declared him winner over Big Jess cost Jack Keiller collected. Jack Kearns isn't giving serious thought to Willle Meehan. Jack dis-poses of Meehan by saying that if he suggested a Meehan-Dempsey fight in the east they'd lock him up for being crasy.
