evident from the 10

 Published by The Oregenitan Publishing Co. 135 Sixth Street, Foriland, Gesgon, C. A. MORDEN, E. B. FIPER, Manager, Editor ning Coul

.$8.00

Bunday included, one year. (By Mail.) Sunday included, one year. Sunday included, three months Sunday included, three months Sunday included, one months without Sunday, one year without Sunday, one months, one year. one year and weekly (By Carrier.)

(Sy Carrier.) Sunday included, one year Sunday included, one month. Sunday included, three months. Without Sunday, one year without Sunday, one month.... How to Remit-Send postoffice money or-der, express or personal check on your logal bank. Blamps, coin or currency are at own-dr's tisk. Give postoffice address in full. In-cluding county and state.

Postage Rates-12 to 16 pages, 1 cent; 18 500 pages, 2 cents, 34 to 45 pages, 3 cents; 0 to 60 pages, 4 cents, 82 to 76 pages, 5 mits; 78 to 82 pages, 6 cents. Foreign post-

c. Goude rates. Easiert Business Office-Verres & Cont-business and the second second second second makin, Steper building, Chicago, Verres & Stalin, Pres Press building, Detroit, Mich it Francisco ropresentative, R. J. Bidwell sovereignly is the supreme power of sovereignly is the supreme power of the sente, then the campaign sovereign to a superior authority. But is it a surrender of sovereignly for the sovereign power to agree in certain of nature's marvels, and it is worth for the sente, then the campaign started in his behalf has a long, hard row to hoe. Even over in Washington we find this expression of admiration for the senter. sovereign power to agree in certain conditions to do, or not to do, certain things? If it is, the United States and other civilized government sur-

we should reserve the sovereign privi- the next presidential election. we should resorve the sovereign privi-lege of doing whatever it pleases us to do whenever we please to do it, without the consent or authority, or counsel, of any other nation whatso-ever? If we do as much, we shall be within our sovereign rights, exercising rights as a sovereign nation. If we do less, if may be plausibly argued that curtalled. But if, in the sovereign in-terest, the sovereign chooses to lay plete the roll of thirty-six states prior ing his country out of a European war ereignty odd sovereign states in the union. Now there is one soveerign government. We do not at all seek a parallel with the league of mations by showing that ultimately there will be but one sov-ereign league; only to show that a York, Ohio, Illinois, Pennsylvania, wide league to enforce arbitration of fetich may be made of sovereignty. Massachusetts, Texas, Iowa and Mis-as it was made, and great wrongs may souri. as it was made, and great wrongs may souri.

done in its name. The United States is now the sovereign, and the have rejected the amendment.

sovereign will. Nor in the great affairs of the league, where other nations are concerned, it does not desire to do what it has a controlling voice in determin-ing what it should do. The oft-repeated the Columbia river, and two great possibilities of humanising the sor risks is going a long way to see.

They

emonstration and fulfiliment of sov-reignty? the members will bear their own ex-penses a special session will be jus-against particular national friendships meant, but she knew from his tone states is the indissoluble links of an indivertight to women to vote either in yay out of the league is provided for full or in some particular, and are progress of transportation and its

Morning Oregonizant ESTIBLISHED BY HENRY L. PITTOCK.

STILL FAR TO GO.

less, it may be plausibly argued that lature to ratify the amendment would democrats revere as their political an-our American sovereignty is thereby exist in a reasonable showing that cestor. Washington, who had passed

There is much to achieve to make against political attachments to for- she wept and said she didn't know

Two states, Georgia and Alabama, States in his day been a world power. nobody need profess to say.

Federal government bas extended a blanket invitation to all to enjoy its forest in costical to the process of automobiles are not all to enjoy its forest in and half ago gave up the attempt to study latin, until he had made some pros-blanket invitation to all to enjoy its forest in the set of the protecting the German bases of the study latin, until he had made some pros-together to be envied. Not all of the most it and its in classical instruction. There slowly enough to enjoy themselves, the point to enjoy themselves, the point is encoded in the point in the point of view of the progressive storest of nature which the the point of view of the progressive scaled a perpetual anow meed not have selves to make selves to the transform the selves to the transform the province the selves to make selves to make selves to make selves to C. A. MORDENS, E. B. Figgs, The Origonian is a number of the Associated Frass is extended as trained Frass. The Associated Frass is extended as tion of all news dispatches credited in this paper and also the local news publiched herein, All rights of republication of special dispatches the family are nice reserved. Subscription Rates—invariable in Advances (By Mail.) Daily Sunday in public attor and the train in encessing in the mailton moun-tain are examples of these. And the federal government has extended as blanket invitation to all to enjoy its of republication of special dispatches the family are nice reserved. (By Mail.) Daily Sunday invited of an area of the family of

Become and the second of the second index of the second master.
 Become and the second for Mr. Poindexter in the Camas Post qualified by the statement that the Post is far from being for Poindexter reignty? Sixty years ago there were thirty-of one syllable.

will "the Grove."

le the prio

the lesson

Those Who Come and Go.

There

ial business structures under way in Herpner within the next 30 dayk Bestrong

Eugeue Register. Hot weather in Oregon lasts just long enough to let us know how un-pleasant it would be if we had to put up with it regularly.

Dogs and Porcupine Mix.

Cottage Grove Sentinel. Several dogs belonging to Leslie Groat are said to have come off second best in a context with a porcupine, one of the animals doing from the wounds and all of the dogs suffering severely from thurse united by the outilits of and all of the dogs suffering severely from injuries inflicted by the quilts of animal in this section and the oldest inhabitants cao remember of but two or three ever being found.

Pendlelon Tribune. Bill Sloan, salesman at the Hub, has resigned his position and leaves today for Long Creek, where he will attempt to regain his health on the end of hay fork. Keep the "Bones" a-Rolling. Keep the "Banes" a normalized and the state of the state with a view of seep the too anxious about the state with a view of learning the best co-operative plans of we must not be too anxious about hoarding. Buy the necessities. Don't cinch a nickel until you make every-body around you red in the face. That kind of saving will bring back the dollars day means dollar-a-day wages.

SURFEGORTY AND ORLEGATIONS. A favorite and for demaining the segme of many segment for the segment for the segment of the seg Pendicton East Oregonian. Because he is a 100 per cent man he will sive 100 per cent service. Effi-ciency will be the greatest assot in our coming industrial life. Every man and every machine will have to work at 10 per ent capacity. Two hundred mil-llon days a year are lost to our indus tries through sickness alone. If your factory is to run to its full capacity you must employ healthy workers. The returning soldiers are the cream of the health of our nation.

the Doggerbank and sent him scur-rying to his hole with a ship lost and another in flames; through the titanic battle near Horn reef, from which the lamed German fleet skulked in the darkness to the observed a place where two manimum the famed German fleet skulked in the darkness to the shelter of its mines, to claim a victory which it had not won and which it had abandoned hope of winning; through the death struggle with the submarine, in which the American fleet gave welcome and "What's color and an its to be found at passed a place where two machines were in a ditch and two more were be-ing towed into town. One man had been seriously injured in the smashup and several others were badly bruised. "What's color and the state of the several others were badly bruised.

in public affairs than to more interest in public affairs than to miss three elections their right of suffrage is of no value or interest to them and it should be taken away from them. Such people should not be allowed to vote. At the election in June only 20 per cent of the registered vote voted. Something will have to be force to cure such instring and several others were badly bruis tion whenever they make a treaty with any other nation. Does our North Yakima friend think that no treaties or covenants should be made with other nations, but that "What's going on in town that all he hotels are growded?" domanded H. nded H. will have to be done to cure such in difference Mr

Welcome the New Citizens. For the sake of exactness it may unprecedented shame of the mutiny Mrs. Ross Burns and Dr. and Mrs. W. B Oregon City Enterprise. Let us extend the hand of welcome to those who have cast away all foreign ties and become one of us for the honor and glory of our land.

without being coaxed, but he discovered

America is no longer a pleasure re-sort for the rehabilitation of European paupers. We still have room for earnest men, who accept our govern-ment and who desire to become a loya! Henry Ford's feelings on being called an anarchist probably resem-bled those of Dr. Johnson's landlady attle, for which city he is bound. Leo down certain rules for the sovereign guidance, is it not then the highest can be made and assurance given that France seemed to many to summon a tirade by calling her an isosceles to the fourth of the Hardy Lumber company, the the fourth of the fourth of the fourth of the Hardy Lumber company, the the fourth of the Hardy Lumber company, the the fourth of t part of it so long as they do live; but those who come from ever the seas from now on must understand that this is a place to stay and grow up in, not merely a tenting place for a night. complete the journey. The two men are at the Benson. Mr. Pruitt is connected with a bottle manufacturing firm.

that it must be something awful, so To look at the Portland hotel register tone syllable. Every now and then the man tired the syllable in the syllable. In the syllable of civilization and longing for exist-ence on one of the South Sea island, and R. R. Bartlett and Frank Pation, and R. R. Barliett and Frank Patton, two merchants, who came to attend the government rate hearing. Proud possessor of a coat of tan that would do justice to an army mule is B E. La Due, publisher of the Walla Walla "where every prospect pleases," has the heart scared out of him by the higher prices and the whole standard is changed.

Gleanings From State Press. In Other Days, boxes.

Four of a Kind Wins.

Bennner Gazette-Timet.

Out of the Sample Case.

Bill Goes Back to Nature.

The Service Man Preferred.

Punish the Election Slacker.

Blue Mountain Engle.

Must Buy a Lot and Build. Baker Democrat.

All Right Now.

Albany Democrai. The majority of the public seems to be in sympathy with the strikers. Then the public must be willing to pay the increases in salaries that the girls ask.

for the difference will eventually be added to rentals and tolls. The sentiment among the business men is pretty will be at least four substal

Twenty-five Years Age

The Oregonian of July 23, 1894. Charles Bullen, who went up to Boise about four weeks ago and was detained there by the strike, arrived home yestegiay. He says the Coxey-ites who were confined in a corral near the Snake river have all been released.

Rev. J. S. David preached at the A. Just 0. U. W. temple yesterday morning. He held that all angels were once men, born on some planetary sphere.

City Surveyor Hurlburt has just com-pleted for the board of fire commis-sioners a map of the city. It shows the location of city water mains, fire plugs, claterns, engine houses and alarm

Fifty Years Ago.

some of our best citizens by getting possession of a number of valuable watches, we learn has been recently caught at Victoria attempting to prac-

We understand that from 50 to 100 men will be set to work on the west side railroad next Monday and that the force will be increased as soon as pos-

Detroit .- The city authorities have decided to make no more contracts for stone pavement during the present sea-son because of alleged collusion among contractors, whereby they propose to obtain exorbitant prices for the work.

More Truth Than Poetry.

By James J. Montague. A MISTAKE.

Who fancied he was treated bad.

But what the man will blow up us.'

Setruffsky sailed across the sea To devastate the U.S.A. When I blow Yankees up." said he. There's going to be the deuce to pay."

His operations he began Behind a lonely alley wall, But just as he had stoffed a can With tri-nitrate of toluol. A big policeman hove in sight And selved him by the head and hair, And soon this Bolshevistic wight Was bound for the electric chair.

And from the death cell's cheeriess

And from the death cents that gloom for (A place that's neither bright nor nice) Getruffaky wrote the folks at home but The following very good advice:
"Dear Pa and Ma: I'm on my way, I'm due to leave here Friday week. P. S.-I've found the U. S. A. Is no place for a Bolshevik."

Safe, for the Present.

The flight of the British blimp was not such a brilliant success as to give us much worry about future Zeppelins.

She'll Have to Show.

Germany's hope for immediate admis sion into the league is vain. It will be a long time before she even gets into the second division.

It's an III Wind, Etc. One good thing about the dry law is that it will totally abolish barber shop harmony on the streets after 1 P. M. The Family Album.

By Grace E. Hall.

Getruffsky was a Bolshevik and it So, finding no one was annoyed m. Such When palaces he tumbled down, to vote. Or seemed to care if he destroyed such buildings as were left in town, Blue Mountain Eagle. The Eagle is going to advocate for the next two years the disfranchise-ment of all voters who fail to vote for three consecutive elections. When a man or a woman has no more interest tice the same trick.

Weiss, who so heautifully guiled

ing what it should do. The oft-repeated frage, are counted on to ratify on the statement, that America can be out- ground of polls of members of their newspapers and communities promises voted in the league, and coerced by legislatures. They are Maryland, New Great Britain or any other power, is Hampshire and Vermont.

If all the states aforementioned which have not yet acted shall ratify buncombe. It may not vote, indeed, when it is the principal in a controversy to be adjudicated by the league, the amendment will still require rati-Does North Yakima think it should sit fication by three states out of the in judgment in its own case? If so, it following thirteen:

repudiates the whole principle and Virginia, Kentucky, Louisiana, New scheme of arbitration, and proclaims Jersey, South Carolina, Florida, Dela-the infailible and sovereign isolation ware, Connecticut, New Mexico, North America against all others. Carolina, West Virginia, Mississippi, The Oregonian thinks the league Tennessee.

will be just as strong as the good This is in general the "off year" of faith of the nations comprising it- legislatures. In a few states annual the stronger nations. It is an experi- sessions are held, but customarily the ment, and it is worth making. The Oregonian has not been wholly sure the odd year. Out of this general unthat it will succeed-no one"can be- certainty, coupled with the necessity and has regarded as fallacious and for numerous special sessions to comeven absurd and Utoplan some of the claims made for it. But its doubts it has felt obliged to resolve in favor of amendment will be needed before the a trial, in concert with other nations, regular legislative session convenes in a common method to keep the 1921.

peace among them. If it shall be the means of keeping the peace even for a few years, it will be a gain.

DEFENDERS OF THE CLASSICS. The Oregonian is not greatly dis-turbed because it finds itself in harmony with a democratic president and the democratic minority in congress on the league of nations. They have said it is not a partisan issue. But it is much disturbed that many republican newspapers are opposed to the league and would commit the party to opposition. To what end? If the is defeated through the repubcontinued:

lican party it will, in our opinion, be disastrous, first, to the world, and, second, to the republican party. The Oregonian would avoid both disasters. But it would avoid the first in any case.

Sunday the quarter-centennial of the He received support from various posed to the French and Spanish formation of the prototype of their sources. The commissioner of educapresent organization. have in their tion of Pennsylvania, Thomas F. Fin- British navy at that time had in comif stime conferred lasting benefits up-negan, representing, as he reminded mission forty-seven capital ships and on a good many individuals. The the conference, one of the greatest fifty frigates in addition. mountain climber is a high type of industrial states of the union, pleaded pedestriau and nature lover combined. for continuance of the classical studies. or so weakened as to be reduced to By furnishing the supreme incentive | for outdoor adventure, he leads others action of school administrators, in would have lost command of the sea into ways that are good for them developing modern and industrial the British coasts would have been and for all with whom they come in courses, to mean that our love of blockaded, movement of troops and The lesser trails clubs, the culture and the humanities is to be supplies to all of the allies by mane exercise.

To be a full-fiedged Mazama one is courses.

required to have performed certain if times as are perilous for the invaded Britain. The inevitable con-specified feats, which nevertheless classics as the volume of protest sequence would have been subjuga-need not deter the less hardy and adnturous. There is a great deal to cate, it is worth while to inquire have been justified in running such said in favor of pedestrianism in whether methods of instruction are not awful risks in the bare hope of win-There is a great deal to venturous. general, and in behalf of lesser ex-plorations. It is not as well known ably not an accident that Latin, and Nelson's fleet had been lost, a more as it ought to be that the immediate even English, are commonly classed numerous fleet would have continued vicinity of Portland is singularly set as "dry" studies. Dean West has on the war.

apart in this regard. Both sides of previous occasions pointed out the That Jellicoe would have run such league covenant, the canvass of Oregon obsolete.

to provide further revelation for our journalistic friend across the Columbia.

WHY JELLICOE DID NOT PURSUE. Suppose we try it when they come As the popular imagination yearns for a dramatic finish to a battle, there home, is a lingering feeling of regret that the British field did not follow up the German fleet at Jutland and dispose sick world." but it is also an oratoryof it as completely as Nelson anni-hilated the French at Aboukir and debate the question: "Which is the side, where he passed a week, Trafalgar. From the outbreak of the greater evil-war or senatorial orawar the British people had looked forward to another Trafalgar, and had been encouraged by Winston Churchill's oratorical flourish about concrete and profit from her disaster.

hunting the German ships like rats Fire cannot down a good Oregon out of their holes. Admiral Jellicoe town. has even been twitted with overcaution in not pursuing the German fleet through the minefields to its bases. though this was precisely what the Germans wanted.

In his book on the grand fleet Jellicoe brings out one of several fundamental differences between the situa-Dean Andrew F. West of Princeton tions at Jutland and Trafalgar which university, ardent champion of the show on how narrow a margin of su-There may be 30,000 horses on the Oregon ranges only fit for food, but a classics in education, returned to the periority the British were working lists the other day at Milwaukes, to maintain command of the sea. In fellow is not going to eat horsement if he knows it and can get anything when in opening the national classical number of capital ships the grand else. conference of the National Education fleet was vastly superior, but it association he declared that study of eral important respects the individual It would be well before accepting the classics must be maintained "be-cause they are vitally important to was chiefly due the heavy British loss Germany's offer of the biggest Zep to look the thing in the mouth, as it were. German generosity is suspicious own national language." He at Jutland. Most impressive of all the facts brought is that the British had chief learns in one lesson to pick a better collider next time. About "thirty Continued: Can party it will, in our opinion, be isustrous, first, to the world, and, econd, to the republican party. The tragonian would avoid both disasters. Sut it would avoid the first in any case. The MAZAMAS. The Mazamas, who celebrated on The Mazamas, who celebrated on the sake af mouse, place or power, but in order to develop our boys and girls to their highest mental and moral excellence, to make them masters in thought and expres-tion, and thus to sand them out coupped for lives of the highest usefulnes. The Mazamas who celebrated on the sake of mouse, place or power, but in order to develop our boys and girls to their highest mental and moral excellence, to make them masters in thought and expres-tion in the sake of mouse of the moust coupped in the sake of mouse of the moust coupped in the sake of mouse of the sake of the moust coupped in the sake of mouse of the sake of the moust excellence, to make them masters in thought and expres-sion, and thus to sand them out coupped in the sake of mouse of the sake of the sake of the master is thought and expres-sion, and thus to sand them out coupped in the sake of the night cruisers." By contrast Nei-son had at Trafalgar twenty-six capi-tal ships and nineteen frigates opbucks" relief of mind trouble, or a saunt of a day to the ocean to see the waves do all the work?

He received support from various posed to the French and If Jellicoe's fleet had been destroyed evil aspect yesterday. Perhaps that's "I do not." he said. "interpret the inferiority to that of Germany, Britain why dinner went wrong last night. It was not expected that Bryan was missing much on his Oregon trip until 588. he missed a train at Reseburg. biking societies and even the Boy Scouts themselves are the outgrowth of this growing sentiment in favor of any American boy or girl from oppor-that country would have been free te tunity to study the traditional academic draw supplies from neutral countries and could probably have starved and irm is by keeping away from the White House. "Dev" enforcement is drastic, is it?

We Oregonians should worry.

About the time H. L. Bown decided Dr. A. G. Prill for some large and lusounty any longer, the voters handed ilm a job as county judge and he has been serving in that capacity over since Suppose the Beavers do stay in the Judge Bown is registered from Eugene second division. They're our team and at the Oregon.

one sees good ball in spots. Perhaps a bit of loyalty will hearten them. Several years ago before the Mult nomah hotel changed hands Henry Bowers used to be manager. Since that time he has been occupying a similar position with the Donnelly of Tacoma Senators may well speak of "a war-

Mr. Bowers is again renewing ac-quaintances at the former hostelry while here on his way home from Sea-namely "port" and "land." They put the emphasis on the first syllable, yet it Yellowstone and Glacier national parks are places where Mr. and Mrs. D. S. parks are places where all and ars. D. S. Brassig and their two daughters have chosen to spend the summer. They have been in San Francisco and spent the night at the Portland while on their way through. Mr. Brassig is a New Just watch Forest Grove rebuild of look for us. Heppner shows that, and so York clothing manufacturer.

Hilisboro Independent. It is probable that while the income tax has never been received with en-thusiasm, the people will favor it as the lesser of two evils and it will be They didn't say what they were go We need a new policy in Mexico ing to catch-they simply went on a week's vacation. So the lobby of the When our troops go after bandits who Imperial must get along for a few days kill Americans, they need not be parwithout Harry Hamilton, chief clerk, and H. A. Metchan, who are at Bright-wood, the former's summer home in the ticular. Any old bandit will do for adopted. And when you come to think it over, it should be adopted, for the burden of taxation can be more evenly distributed if applied to what a man earns than if applied to what he earns mountains.

The name of Strauss has attached to The hame of Strauss has attached to it much distinction in connection with New York civic affairs. Charles Strauss, president of the board of water supply of the country's greatest city, arrived last night at the Multnomah. He is ac-

Jefferson Review. This administration has done every-thing possible to put the newspapers out of business, a fact that will be recompanied by Mrs. Strauss on his weatern trip. nembered in 1920.

About six years ago Gene Murphy was engaged in the hotel business in Portland, but forsook it for the sunny south. With Mrs. Murphy he drove in The victim of collision with a fire yesterday from Los Angeles and stopped at the Multnomah to rest after of prosperity. ong, hot trip. Robert Parker of the United States PORTLAND, July 11 .- (To the Ed-Ever try a ride on the river for shipping board office in San Francisco itor.)-It looks like the hop growers

If hogs go much higher the fellows who raise them may be inclined to provide better boudoirs for the animals. lege boys to learn enginering in the state highway department, was at the Seward yesterday. He stopped on his way from Salem to look over road

Although he is in the automobile business. J. N. Ross of Walls Walls didn't care to tackle the rough roads when he came to Portland yesterday with his wife. They are among the arivals at the Imperial.

Because his cattle couldn't get to the stock yards very well without his aid. J. J. Price came in from Prineville this There are no strings now on General Ansell and he is in position to make a few bureaucrats hop lively. week and is spending a few days at the Imperial. The sole way a senator can remain

G. H. Harvey and family of Boise are enjoying what they term a 'won-derful trip.' They are touring Oregon by automobile and passed the night at the hotel by the same name. "Yanesh." "And do you not know that you can reemplish more with animals

"Dry" enforcement is drastic, is it? Te Oregonians should worry. Foch get what was coming when the omen in London kissed him, "Dry" enforcement is drastic, is it? I the hotel by the same name. John F. Vaughn, who helps provide bread for the world is a Heppner vis-owner of a big wheat ranch. "Dry" enforcement is drastic, is it? John F. Vaughn, who helps provide when Ah speaks to him in de usual bim in de sign language." Spenking to them? "Yasab: but this critter am differ-ent. He am so deef he can't hear me when Ah speaks to him in de usual bim in de sign language." Spenking to them? "I know that, all right." said he, 'but shore I spent more than $200 a week."

family is obligated Tribune clous Bing cherries: also to George Merdian for Royal Annes and to Mrs Ellwood for new potatoes and peas.

Column Fillers. Scio Tribune

Pardonable Pun.

The Equitable Tax.

Its Great Linbility.

Fine Girl.

Hop Pickers Should Get 2 Cents.

Only Used Sign Language.

by

The Dalles Chronicle. The county fair is the handmaiden

A sad thought haunts me when I pause and calmiy speculate Upon the course of "natural laws" that e'er control our fate:

When, glancing far ahead I see the chil-

Bend Press. It is to be sincerely hoped that the preliminary work of the city council in the matter of improving the streets of Bend will seen take some concrete

And merriment, the things they findthose photos that were ME

Don't Forget Second Syllable. Malheur Enterprise, Valc. Portland is made up of two syllables. As through the album they shall go.

yet it It hurts a bit to know that I in time

t be worth a whoop if it was the second backing it up. It is shall seem so "queer," As on the card I calmiy lie and at them possible to increase the Oregon crop blankly lear! production $1,000,000 annually. Let's My baby's babes! It's hard to think years hence to them I'll seem Much like the long-sought "missis link" as from the page I beam! to ourselves and the world will missing-

ON BURYING THE HATCHET.

("When we finally bury the hatchet with Germany, it will be just as well to note carefully where it is buried."-Oregonian editorial, July 11.)

Tou bet your life you've struck it right; Tou've made a good suggestion. The bloody thing we'll put from sight. Nor leave its whereabouts in ques-

When treaties meet the common fate Of, simply, cheap old acraps paper:

When leagues of love are turned to

The hatchet only cures the caper.

When tyrants rule upon the threne. And grind their subjects with the ratchet.

You cannot force them to atene Unless you use the trusty hatchet.

nice, soft word or pleasant smile

May palliate your senses.

But, when mixed with gall of foxy guile.

The hatchet only clears the trenches.

So plant the hatchet good and deep; Be sure to save your recollection: to when the powers would make us

The blade shall have a resurrection.

It may be hadly nicked and rusted. The handle also broke or bent, ut when repaired it may be trusted And on its ugly mission sant. -W. T. RIGDON.

When the Wife Is Away.

Chicago News. Feter Finley Dunns said the other

Charleston Mail. Ephum Johnson was up before Judge Shimmerplate on a cruelty to animals Charge. 'Deed. Ab wahn't abusing that mule. judga." the old man demurred. "Did you not strike it repeatedly with a club." "It's folly to say that two can't live

"It's folly to say that two can't live as cheap as one-two can live far, far cheaper than one. "Did you send your wife to the shore hast August?" I asked a married man. "No," he answared. I can't afford it. It coars too much." ."But,' I said, 'your wife's tastes are simple. Surely she could sojourn at the shore without spending any great amount."

