CHARGES ARE NUMEROUS

Manipulation of Markets and Discrimination Against Independents Among Allegations.

WASHINGTON, July 18 .- Ability of the "big five" packers, Swift, Armour, Morris, Cudahy and Wilson, to deter-mine from day to day the general level of livestock prices was declared incon-trovertible in the third section of the trovertible in the third section of the federal trade commission's report on the inquiry made public tonight.

Information obtained in the commission's investigation was cited to show that the "big five" have an interest in 28 of the 50 principal market yards of the country and a total voting stock in 22 others. It was said they buy most of the livestock sold at these yards.

yards. "They discriminate against and put at great disadvantage independent buyers, who are their compelltors," the report said. "They manipulate on oc-casions the livestock market in such a casions the livestock market in such a way as to cause extreme and unwarranted fluctuations in the daily prices paid for livestock. They have eliminated many competitors and prevented new ones from coming in. They have restricted the meat supply of the nation by manipulating the daily livestock prices and thus discouraging the producers of livestock.

"Of the meat trade in the hands of interstate slaughterers in the United Interstate slaughterers in the United States, the five big packing companies have more than 72 per cent of the total. They have the prices of dressed meat and packing house products so well in hand that, within certain limi-tations, meat prices are made to respond to their wishes."

CHICAGO, July 28.—Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Co., said: "The federal trade commission is issuing its report piecemeal, apparently with the idea of keeping up a con-tinuous agitation against the packing industry. This latest broadside, according to such reports as I have seen, re-peats the same old charges, contains the same misrepresentations and does our industry the same injustice as in previous reports.

"In the ownership of the stockyards

we are proud of the fact that we have mproved marketing methods and thereby encouraged greater livestock pro-duction. As every impartial student of the problem knows, ownership of yards gives a packer no control of prices or trading methods.

whole contention of the commission that we control and manipulate sion that we control and manipulate prices is simply not based on facts. Our fluctuating profits average only a fraction of a cent per pound of meat and often becoming losses for weeks at a time, alone refute this contention.

"We have proved conclusively in congressional hearings at Washington that the trade commission can support its conclusions only by stooping to distor-tion of fact and suppression of vital evidence. It is a shame that we should have to submit to this sort of indignity from a department of the government."

MRS. FRANK VOGT PASSES AWAY AT THE DALLES.

Four Children and Ten Grandchildren Survive Early Resident of Columbia River Basin.

THE DALLES, Or., July 28.—(Special)—Mrs. Frank Vogt, one of the most respected pioneers of The Dalles, died in this cty last evening at the advanced age of 76 years. Mrs. Vogt became ill last week and underwent an operation from which she was unable to recover. Before her marriage to Frank Vogt at Arshburg, Germany, on May 11, 1857, she was Miss Elizabeth Henrietta Kock, and was born in the city of Arnsburg on February 11, 1843. Ten years after her marriage, in September, 1877, Mr.
