

SENATOR JONES' AID ASKED FOR SOLDIER

Grays Harbor Comes to Defense of Lonnie Edwards.

TEN-YEAR SENTENCE GIVEN

Theft of Wine From Barn in Belgium Is Offense—Abolition of Courts-Martial Recommended.

HOQUIAM, Wash., July 28.—(Special.)—Expense of what he termed a "horrible miscarriage of justice in army circles" was made today by Hon. Alex Polson, head of the Polson Logging company and widely known throughout the northwest, when, acting as presiding officer at the luncheon given in honor of the United States Senator Wesley L. Jones by the Hoquiam Commercial club, he read a report from Attorney W. H. Abel of Montesano concerning the court-martial and sentence of Lonnie Edwards of Montesano, according to Attorney Abel's letter, Edwards, who served with company C, 247th M. G. B. M., 91st division, is now serving 10 years at Fort Leavenworth for court-martial in France of the theft of wine in a barn in Belgium.

Owner Is Recompensed.
Edwards, it is stated, was attached to a company which was billeted in a barn in Belgium after the signing of the armistice. The Belgian owner had hidden a quantity of wine in the hay, and this was discovered by the men during the night. They extracted 20 or 25 bottles and drank the contents. When the owner discovered this he complained to the officers. The officers recompensed the Belgian fully for his loss by refusing to prosecute, but the major in command of the battalion insisted on court-martial proceedings, and prosecuted Edwards and his companions to the limit, a sentence of ten years being meted out.

The report read by Mr. Polson says: "This young man was raised in Montesano. His parents are dead. He bears an excellent reputation. I understand that every man in this company has petitioned for the release of Edwards and also Ginder, his companion."

"These men were up at the front a number of times and were killed in it often, and we hear that Edwards, while engaged in carrying ammunition up to the front, had his arm shot from under him, but nevertheless carried on."

Senator Asked to Aid.
Addressing himself to Senator Jones, Mr. Polson said: "We of Grays Harbor county who know Edwards and have known him all these years believe the facts as stated by Mr. Abel to be correct, and we ask you to intercede with the relieving Edwards of this unjust and severe sentence. We want you, upon your return to Washington, to call upon the president and seek to have the executive take action to right this great wrong. I am calling on the Hoquiam Commercial club, a committee of the Chamber of Commerce to demand that every United States senator and every congressman support in having a thorough investigation made into this case. We must not allow our youth to have their ideals of a great republic tarnished to the extent where they will fight with a brand of 'criminal' for trivial offenses."

"We do not understand the president and the war department to misunderstand us in this petition. We are not asking for clemency for a son of the county. We are demanding justice for an American who proved himself worthy of the name, and of just the kind that made it possible for us to enjoy our liberty today."

Mr. Polson concluded by suggesting that the government pass a law abolishing courts-martial by officers, replacing this system by providing for a jury composed of men of equal rank with the man on trial.

FIRE VIEWED IN AIRPLANE

Yakima Flyers Plainly See Dense Smoke in Rattlesnake District.

YAKIMA, Wash., July 28.—(Special.)—Passengers who went aloft Saturday afternoon with Lieutenant R. P. Parrish, the aviator who is demonstrating aviation here, reported that they could plainly see, some 30 miles or more up the Naches valley, the huge clouds of smoke from the forest fire in the Rattlesnake creek district.

No definite news was obtained here yesterday regarding the extent or progress of the fire; the last word regarding it having been a telephone message from Forest Supervisor Allen as he was going to the fire. He reported that it appeared to be threatening.

"Bounce" Enjoys Spirited Day in Police Court.

Legal Battle for His Ownership Aroused but Languid Interest.

IF HE has really suffered all the ailments and been subjected to all the experiences about which testimony was offered yesterday in police court, certainly must be possessed of the proverbial nine lives.

He is a cat, a large gray, lazy-looking fellow, who has been the subject of excitement, if unimportant litigation, yesterday in police court.

About four years ago "Bounce," the family pet of the R. W. Anderson household, wandered away. For four years the family has mourned the passing of "Bounce" and has yearned for his homecoming.

Two weeks ago a member of the Anderson family saw a cat in the grocery store of Fred Mason. The Anderson clan at once decided he was their long-lost "Bounce." They demanded the return of the cat, but the Mason family refused to give up their pet.

Mrs. Anderson then procured a search warrant, alleging Mr. Mason was hiding their cat.

The Andersons and Masons and a veterinary or two and "Bounce" were all before Judge Rossman yesterday. The Andersons produced photographs taken in 1912 in an effort to identify the Mason cat as their own. The Masons, with the aid of a veterinary, showed that the cat they owned had been treated for ailments before the cat could have wandered away from the Mason home.

"Nor did 'Bounce' appear to be in the least interested when Judge Rossman decreed him to be the property of the Andersons. Maybe he will wander over to the Anderson home to live out one or more of his nine lives, suggested the court as he dismissed the case.

Proposed Trip Around World Started Four Years Ago Stopped by War.

Skipper Enlists.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Francis Drake of Seattle, who sailed into San Francisco from Nova Scotia, there the little schooner Sir Francis on a proposed trip around the world, tells how the vessel, with his design and how recently his vessel was destroyed.

From here Drake went through the Panama canal and made his way to Halifax, Nova Scotia. There the call of war took him to France. Although he was 50 years old and lame, he enlisted with the Canadians as an artilleryman. Twice he was wounded. Following the armistice Drake was discharged and returned to Halifax. He found his little vessel and with money saved from those countries most interested in the Roosevelt highway project are said to be anxious for a special session and reports reaching here today indicate they are organizing with a view of joining the suffragists in their campaign to call the lawmakers together at an early date.

SOLDIERS' AID HELD UP

ATTORNEY-GENERAL RULES NO EDUCATION MONEY READY.

Payments of Claims Before End of Year Will Necessitate Session of Emergency Board.

SALEM, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—Before any claims for administration of the soldiers', sailors' and marines' educational aid bill can be added by the secretary of state, prior to January 1, it will be necessary for the state emergency board to meet, according to an opinion given by Attorney-General Brown today at the request of Deputy Secretary of State Sam Keizer.

The bill, as enacted at the last session of the legislature, provides for an appropriation equal to two-tenths of one mill for each dollar of taxable property in the state. This amount, according to the estimate of the auditor, will approximate $260,000. Under the opinion of the attorney-general any millage tax levy shall be available for the purpose for which it is intended on and after January 1 of each year.

The case furnishes the biggest sensation the county has had recently, for the defendant is a bachelor and one of the leading business men of Myrtle Point.

DE VALERA NOT INVITED

Seattle Council Votes Down Resolution of Invitation, 4 to 3.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 28.—By a vote of 4 to 3 the city council today postponed indefinitely a resolution which, if passed, would have invited Eamonn de Valera, "president of the Irish republic," to visit Seattle merely as a citizen of Ireland to speak on Irish conditions.

Mr. De Valera, however, will visit Seattle the latter part of September, according to announcement today by E. J. Coen, former president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in this city. Coen says De Valera will make several speeches while here.

CHANGE IN HIGHWAY BILL IS ADVOCATED

Agitation for Special Session of Legislature Spreads.

MAINTENANCE CLAUSE ERRS

State Must Assume Responsibility in Order to Get Government Appropriation.

SALEM, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—An amendment correcting the maintenance clause in the Roosevelt highway bill and other legislation passed by the voters of Oregon at the special election held on June 3, is said to be slated for consideration in the event Governor Olcott yields to the requests for a special session of the legislature to ratify the woman's suffrage amendment to the federal constitution, according to word brought to the capital today.

Under the government road aid bill states receiving federal funds for construction of highways must provide for maintenance, and in this the Oregon legislation defects. Because of the fact the Oregon legislature does not assemble until 1921, the legislators from those counties most interested in the Roosevelt highway project are said to be anxious for a special session and reports reaching here today indicate they are organizing with a view of joining the suffragists in their campaign to call the lawmakers together at an early date.

It was partly because of the danger of an extended session and consideration of such legislation not connected with the ratification of the woman's suffrage amendment that Governor Olcott in his recent answer to a delegation of women from Portland, made it plain that he would not assemble the lawmakers unless it was agreed that they would waive their salary and per diem and confine their work to considering the amendment at issue. Another condition upon which the executive said he would convene the legislators was that they personally request such a session and furnish evidence of a sincere desire to pass the ratification.

Session Is Costly.

A special session of the legislature called by ex-Governor Frank W. Benson to pass a bill appropriating money with which to maintain and improve state institutions and correct errors in general law to the interests of the state lasted two days and cost the taxpayers more than $5000.

Only one request to call a special session of the legislature had been received by the governor tonight, this coming from Representative Eugene Smith, of Multnomah county. Eastern Oregon men here today had a sentiment in the section is adverse to calling a special session and that few of the legislators would respond unless paid the salary and per diem allowed by statute. Local officials are watching with considerable interest the attitude of the coast legislators, for it is known that they favor the session and will work to that end.

SHE HAD SUFFERED SINCE CHILDHOOD

Seattle Woman Gains Over Twenty Pounds by Taking Tanlac.

"For the first time in my life that I can remember I am free from stomach trouble and can sit down and eat a hearty meal without suffering afterwards," said Mrs. I. Y. LaVain, who lives at 6049 6th Ave. N. W., Seattle, the other day.

"Up to the time I commenced taking Tanlac I had been in such bad health ever since I was a child. I was unable to digest my food properly, and every time I ate anything I would suffer from indigestion afterwards. Nothing I ate seemed to do me a particle of good, or give me any strength at all. As I grew older this condition grew worse and worse all the time, and I finally got so low in health and was so weak and run-down that I had to give up and take to my bed. For over a month I was hardly able to move. I would often have racing headaches that would almost kill me, and I was so nervous that I would lie in bed night after night and not sleep a wink.

"That is the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac, and I had about come to the conclusion that I would never find a medicine that would do me any good. Well, I was so certain that I commenced to feel better the very next day after I started on Tanlac. Why, in little over a month I was able to get up, and I was so nervous that I am just simply enjoying perfect health. I have gained over twenty pounds in weight, and I feel that my food is doing me lots of good. I never lose confidence in Tanlac, and never lose an opportunity to speak a good word for it."

Tanlac is sold in Portland by the Owl Drug Co.—Adv.
