FIRE PATROL PLANES AT SALEM FOR DUTY

Army Aviators to Be Assigned by Conference.

FLIERS SEPARATE IN FOG

Roseburg and Salem Are Expected to Be Bases of Airmen Hunting for Forest Blazes.

SALEM, Or. July 21 .- (Special.)-Licutenant Emil C. Kiel and Sergeant Frank McKee, assigned to forest fire patrol work in Oregon, arrived here by sirplane at 4:45 P. M. today from Jamp Lewis. They made the flight rom Portland to Salem in 45 minutes, overing the beaten path along the oute of the Southern Pacific rail-nad. The avaiters were accompanied on the trip by Miss Henrietta McKau-shan of Portland and R. H. Scaplor, forestry examiner. Although the conference between the overmor, aviators, state forester and ther officials had to be delayed until seburg plane will work south as far the California line and as far north is Eugene while the Salem plane will work south as far as Eugena and north as far as Portland.

Portland and Eugene are said to have bid for at least one of the planes, but borages of the cities' topographical location it is not believed planes will be assisted to another the contract of the cities' topographical location it is not believed planes will Barterum of this city, one of the sirplanes which left Tacoma for patrol work in the forest districts of Oregon will be used in the Umpqua forests of Douglas county. Maps of the region to be patrolled are at present being prepared in the local forestry offices, and these are planning for a flight of approximately 250 miles per day.

The plane is expected to come here at once, as the fire situation in the Cascades to the east is assuming serious.

CHEHALIS, Wash, July 31:—(Special)—Lieutenant Kiel and Sorgeant McKee, army aviators landed at the state training school station here at noon to repienish gas and oil. Lieu-tenant Kiel, when he resumed the trip to Salem became lost in heavy clouds and was forced to turn back, starting again later in the day.
