The operators have no fault to find with the West Munham, which is similar to the other $509-ton ships built here, and placed in various trades. The West Munham is fitted with a turbine engine, which is said to make repaigs and overhauling in oriental parts on a statemer. not as satisfactory as a steamer with reciprocating engine, such as in the 2500-ton ships. All of the latter are from the G. M. Standifer Construction corporation's plant at Vancouver. They differ also from the $800-ton type

They differ also from the $890-ton type in that they are shelterdeck vessels, the former being welldeck ships.

"With support accorded the line by Portlanders and what freight is being drawn through the interest of eastern shippers in the Columbia river gateway, I feel there is every reason to class the line as a permanent factor in the Pacific trade," said Frank O'Control Pacific chase the line as a permanent factor in the Pacific trade," said Frank O'Connor, Portland agent for the Pacific Steamship company, yesterday. "The assignment of the most modern frelgaters by the shipping board indicates with what regard the service is held, and certainly the outlook for freight justifies the assembling of a fleet that will give us a monthly schedule. Under the former arrangement we would have had a vessel from Portland about every six weeks. The next of the line to load after the Waban will be that west Munham, which is due the latter part of the month and will be started back again in September, unless it is arranged that a fourth carrier of the 3500-ton chars be substituted."

It was reported that the atrike of reliroad employes in the east caused the cancellation of one or two shipments, but Mr. O'Connor said yesterday he believed an adjustment of the labor difficulties would mean the reached that a soling which was September.

The hudget of Czecho-Slovakia, as presented by the minister of finance to the national assembly, estimates the ordinary revenue at 2.306,620,682 crowns (the normal exchange value of the crown is $9.2026) and the ordinary expluse of 181,771,857 crowns.

the deep in northwest waters to be equipped with radio gear. No. 67 has resumed her station on Umatilia reef. so No. 92, the relief lighthip, came into the Columbia yesterday to remain until ready to relieve No. 88.

The installation of wireless aboard lightwessels is a safety-first step sought for years by shipping interests, but not until the war broke out was impetus given the work by the government. Meanwhile all lighthouse tenders have been supplied and, with lightships equipped, it is reasoned there will be many opportunities during winter weather for them to render assistance to vessels disabled or otherwise seeking aid from shore, while they can communicate on their own affairs with the district officers. Today communication is by means of tenders or one of the entrance tugs.

JOHN H. ROSSETER HERE TODAY

Director of Board Will Confer With Ship Builders.

Due in Portland today from Puget sound is John H. Rosseter, director of operation of the shipping board, who passed through the city from San Franpassed through the city from San Fran-cisco Friday, on his way north. He will be the guest of the Chamber of Commerce, breakfasting at the Benson hotel and then going into conference with shippers. Luncheon will be fea-tured by the members' forum, at the chamber, and this afternoon Mr. Roseter will be in conference with shipbuilders.

Marine and commercial interests have a number of matters to place before the head of the operating department, concerning assignment of vessels for future trade. Having been with W. R. Grace & Co. for years. Mr. Respeter is thoroughly familiar with Pacific coast conditions and his coming is rated of importance at this time.

SEATTLE SEEKS MORE SHIPS

Representative of Shipping Board

Called Into Conference. SEATTLE, Aug. 4.-John H. Rosseter.

SEATTLE, Aug 4.—John H. Rosseter, director of operations of the United States shipping board, held a conference with Seattle shipping men here teday and discussed the question of obtaining more sailings of government-owned ships from this port.

The local people told Mr. Rosseter that 22,000 tons of trans-Pacific cargo offered to Seattle this year had to be diverted to Vancouver, B. C. because there were not enough ships here to handle the business. They also exide more ships would be needed to handle the coming grain crop, which promises to show a big increase over the crop of the season now closing.
