AT SEATTLE—Seattle 6, Portland 1. At Los Angeles—Oakland 6, Los Angeles 4. At Sacramento—San Francisco 7, Sacramento 5. At San Francisco—San Francisco 5, Vernon 4.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 6.—(Special.)—One lonely hit was all the Seattle could gather off Portland, but that one single was enough to win the ball game. Ray French was the lad who delivered the decisive blow, and he chose a time when the bases were full for his little click, and the double beat the bustling crowd.

With their new pilot eyeing the conflict from the bench, the Rainiers fielded and ran bases like a real ball club. Charley Mullen's release from Toledo was not received until game time and the blonde manager will not assume his managerial duties until tomorrow afternoon.

Pitchers Lose Game. McCredie's pitchers in the Portland twirlers are wont to do, helped Ray French win the game. "Deacon" Jones, Walter's first choice for the heaving honors, filled the paths in the second with two hit batters and a walk and French did the rest. The youngster's aim over the plate was delivered when the count was 3 and 2 and took all the stretch out of McCredie's boys.

Macks Score Once. McCredie had squeezed a tally over in the first inning, but when the locals got their third base walk, Claude Thomas, who occupied the knoll for Seattle, saw to it that Skipper Walter got no more marbles. The pitcher, Claude Thomas, who occupied the knoll for Seattle, saw to it that Skipper Walter got no more marbles.

Seattle grabbed a couple more in the fifth, just to clinch it, some daring base running and a walk and an error accounting for the tallies. The score:

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 6.—Six matches, all of them championship caliber, were finished in the third round of singles at the Casino today before rain broke up play.

The only thing approaching an upset came when Maurice E. McLoughlin of San Francisco, former national champion, was defeated by S. H. Voshehl of New York, 6-2, 7-5, 6-2, 6-2.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 6.—Overcoming a lead of three runs, Oakland scored five men in the seventh inning of the game with Los Angeles, taking the contest, 8 to 4. A single, two infield hits, two errors and a walk succeeded in bringing Willie, Murphy, Bohne, Mize and Lane home for the five tallies. Score:

HOW TO PLAY GOLF

JOSHUA TAYLOR says: There are two points about women's golf that have always stood out to me as matters of great importance. They are the inability to get out of a bunker at the first time of asking, and a certain feeling of wanting to run before they can walk with regard to golf generally.

COX TAKES PRESS STAKE NEW ENGLAND DRIVER NABS $3000 PURSE.

Double G. Disappoints Followers in 2:12 Pace, Won by Tenna, an Outsider in Betting.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 6.—McGregor the Great, owned and driven by Walter R. Cox of Dover, N. H., won the $3000 press stake for 2:17 trotters, the feature event of today's grand circuit meeting at North Randall. Cox made it two straight when he drove Mignola to victory in the 2:07 class trot. Both horses completely outclassed the field and won in straight heats at prohibitive odds, their best time being respectively 2:08 1/4 and 2:06 1/4.

After winning the first heat of the 2:12 pace yesterday Double G., the favorite, succumbed today to Tenna, a rank outsider in the betting. Double G. finished a poor eighth in the second heat and Valentine was substituted for Sturgeon in the sulky in the third heat, but Double G. could not finish better than fourth. Tenna's best time was 2:05 1/4.

Gold Quartz was the third favorite to award, finishing first in the 2:17 pace in the first heat. Chaffin, which finished second in the first heat, was drawn after placing fourth in the second heat.

Gold Quartz's best time was in the second heat, paced in 2:10 1/4. Summary:
