PERSONAL.

WHO SENT THEM?

A fellow and his sweetheart
Once had a simple quarrel,
He took his hat and left her,
For he had in mird a moral.

She phoned to him the following day And thanked him for the flowers And that her words were heaty.

For the minutes seemed as hours. "Who sant those flowers?" he asked him-"Some guy may beat my tims."
He quickly did apologies,
Now both do act sublime.
