

ITALY INVITES U. S. TRADE EXPLOITATION

Premier Nitti Holds Two Countries' Interests in Common.

BLIGHT OF CONFLICT FELT

Italian Debt of $16,000,000,000 Represented as Nation's Great Sacrifice of War.

ROME, Aug. 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—Francisco Nitti, the Italian premier, in an interview today, dealt at length with Italy's efforts in the war and her ambitions for the future.

Interest Held in Common. "There is no conflict of interest between us. We are today two democracies striving for still further realization of the benefits of free governments."

Continuing, the premier said: "It was in the aim to perpetuate free institutions that Italy sacrificed in her all. No country suffered more from the conflict or bore the sacrifice with greater will."

Italy's Debt $16,000,000,000. "Before the war our annual national debt amounted to $3,000,000,000; our debt into the war has seen it rise to $16,000,000,000."

DEHYDRATED FOODS PRIZED

Government Recognition Accorded Salem and Dallas Plants.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—The King Dehydrated Food Products company's plants at Salem and Dallas have been selected by the government as concerns through which a large portion of the $20,000 appropriated for experimental work in dehydration will be expended.

It is believed that the decision of the government to recognize the King company here fully proves the value of dehydrated products.

LUDENDORFF'S BOOK IS EAGERLY AWAITED

Intimate Knowledge of Kaiser's Part in War, and Estimate of Allies Expected to Be Set Out.

Copyright, 1919, by the Press Publishing Co. (the New York World) (Special Cable Dispatch to the World).

LONDON, July 23.—The approaching publication of Gen. Ludendorff's book on the great war, throughout the main part of which he was the dominating German military figure, is arousing tremendous interest here. For he alone can throw authoritative light on many obscure episodes of the highest importance in judging not only of the German military system at work, but of those of the different allied countries to which he was opposed.

Nobody can speak with more intimate knowledge of the real part played by the former Kaiser both in triumph and adversity and on the relations between the German civil and military power in times of crisis, for Ludendorff virtually became dictator in the most crucial period of his country's fortunes. His estimate of the capabilities of the allied military leaders as viewed from the enemy's experience of their work and achievements should be highly instructive when allowance is made for the critical hostility of their most formidable antagonist.

Above all, Gen. Ludendorff's book is expected to provoke a storm of controversy on many points; controversy which must be fruitful in startling revelations. In short, Ludendorff is in a position to write the book of the war, and it is understood, he has done so.
