

3000 ELKS ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

Portland Ritualistic Team Defeats Medford.

SILVER CUP IS AWARDED

Klamath Falls Attendance Swelled by Influx of Autoists and by Special Train's Arrival.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Aug. 14.—(Special.)—Klamath Falls is the mecca of Elks from Oregon today. Every road leading into the city was used by Elks who came by automobile. The special train brought in nearly 1000 of the antlered horde. So far, 2000 are attending the second annual convention of the Oregon state Elks' association.

Portland was the winner in the ritualistic contest, the first official event of the convention. Although Portland was returned the winner, the award was only by a small margin over Medford. Portland scored 95.4 points, while Medford obtained 92.1 points.

This contest was staged for a beautiful silver cup, donated by William F. McKenney of Portland, a man who has worked continuously for the success of the state association. Although Portland won the cup, it will be necessary for this lodge to win the cup next year to obtain permanent possession of the trophy.

Incidentally, Portland lodge will meet the winner of the ritualistic contest staged by the Washington Elks' association in Yakima, next week, in an inter-state contest between Oregon and Washington.

On every hand one hears compliments bestowed upon the Klamath Falls lodge for their hospitality. Hotels and private residences have been thrown open to the lodgers and their families. The committee, headed by E. B. Hall, manager of the White Pelican, arranged for the opening of the new courthouse, in which lodges were installed for the accommodation of the Elks.

Courteousness may be used. Another new courthouse, to be known as Klamath Falls has three courthouses, one in use and two others awaiting the decision of the circuit court for disposal, will be utilized as it becomes necessary.

Many of the visiting lodgers are camped in the grounds prepared by the local committee. Hot and cold water has been piped to them for the convenience of the visitors.

A review in brief of the accomplishments of the Elks' lodge during the progress of the war was given by George L. Baker, mayor of Portland, principal speaker at the opening of the White Pelican, arranged for the opening of the new courthouse, in which lodges were installed for the accommodation of the Elks.

Boishevist Warning Given. Two thousand Elks there assembled heard Mayor Baker sound a note of warning against the bolsheviks who are endeavoring, he said, to assume control of the government and run this country in the manner that wrecked Russia.

Mayor H. R. Struble of Klamath Falls, in an address, addressed welcomed the visitors. Although the city of the antlered horde who have assembled needed any such assurance, as the secretary of the Elks' lodge, he had already made this statement a fact.

The first business session of the convention will open Friday with President William S. Toole, Jr., of Salem, who is chairman of the delegation. Among matters of importance which will come before the convention is the report by Walter S. Toole, Jr., of Salem lodge No. 256, who is chairman of the memorial committee. Mr. Toole is father of Lieutenant Leslie B. Toole, who gave his life for his country in the battle of Argonne, a hero today showed Mr. Toole to be the only elk in attendance at the convention who had lost a world conflict and who had sons who were all officers in the United States army.

Bend Delegation Heard. No delegation of Elks in Klamath Falls is attracting the attention or making more noise than the delegation of Bend Elks, members of the "baby lodge" of the state led by "Pat" McCreary, banker of Bend. He is the ruler of the newly instituted lodge. This delegation is seen everywhere. Only two members of the lodge are not in attendance and they, too, were delegated to remain in Bend to carry on organization activities there.

HARRY G. Allen, secretary of the Oregon State Elks' association, is assisting to succeed Dr. Kennedy as president of the state association. R. Alexander, vice-president of the association, also is an applicant for the position. Mr. Salen seems to have the edge on the contest for the 1920 convention. Pending having decided to wait another year before making a contest for the annual meeting.

The convention will close early Sunday morning with a "ardi gran" dance on the streets and with a concert of parts between picked teams from the Roseburg, McMinnville and Portland lodges, assisted by the women.

Both organizations are endeavoring to interest the people of the city in improving their lawns and beautifying the grounds about their homes.

WAR VETERANS CONTRARY Week's Balloting Favors Happy Life for Ex-Kaiser.

The past week has seen a most contrary-minded group of ex-service men casting their straw ballots at the general army recruiting station. Prohibition has been defeated for four consecutive days. The ex-kaiser has a better chance to live than he had to die and yesterday's vote gave him a three to one preference for a long, happy life.

Opposition to universal military training has grown very strong and the women would have less chance to cast their ballots at the polls if yesterday's count had anything to do with it. The new element in the week's voting is the discharged men of the 4th engineers who returned from Germany last week. They, as a majority, favor the discharge of the men of the 4th engineers, believe in giving the Kaiser the right to live, are split on universal military training and go fifty-fifty on woman suffrage.

STREET CAR RNS AMUCK

MOTORCYCLE AND AUTOMOBILE ARE RAMMED.

Cyclist May Die as Result of Injuries; Woman Sent to Hospital for Care.

Two persons were injured, one perhaps fatally, when an inbound Irvington streetcar crashed into a motorcycle and an automobile within two blocks of the city center, in charge of A. D. Kidd, motorman, crashed into the motorcycle at East Seventh and Multnomah street. The motorcycle was wrecked and it is doubtful if Mr. Harper will recover.

In less than two blocks from the point where it collided with the motorcycle, the same streetcar collided with an automobile driven by Mrs. L. E. Reed of Ridgefield, Wash., at Multnomah street and Grand avenue. The impact threw the streetcar off the track and it plunged completely over the front part of the automobile.

Mrs. Reed sustained a badly crushed hand, which necessitated a surgical operation at St. Vincent's hospital last night. Frank's motor cycle was wrecked and it is doubtful if Mr. Harper will recover.

Police were unable to get an account of the collision with the motorcycle. Mr. Harper was only semi-conscious and could give no details whatever. He lives at 1105 East Seventeenth street, north.

COURT HOLDS MAN IS DEAD Absentee Not Heard From in 20 Years Legally Deceased.

ALBANY, Or., Aug. 14.—(Special.)—Because nothing has been heard from him since he left Albany, 20 years ago, to go to Chicago, Harry McCully today was adjudged dead by County Judge W. E. Bly in probate court.

When McCully left Albany he owned a small farm with his brother, Grant McCully. The brother went to Spokane and died there in February, 1912, aged 15, and a daughter, 12 years old. These children inherited the estate of their father in Lincoln county, and J. J. Baker, with whom McCully resided, secured an order from the court today appointing himself administrator of the estate of both brothers. The farm is valued at about $1500.

Morris Bros. Buy Bond Bonds. BEND, Or., Aug. 14.—(Special.)—Bend's financial problems were solved last night when the city council voted to accept the offer of Morris Bros., of Portland for the city's $25,000 bond, 6 per cent note issue, A 1 per cent discount, and $75 attorney's fee, were allowed. The note issue was rejected earlier in the month by another Portland bond house on the grounds that the authority for issuance of the securities was lacking.

Man Bites Stepson, Fined $25. SALEM, Or., Aug. 14.—(Special.)—Emil Reyer, farm laborer employed near Salem, was arrested here today charged with biting his stepson, in connection with chastising his 11-year-old stepson. The complaint was filed by Reyer's wife. Reyer entered a plea of guilty in the justice court and was fined $25.

Kelso Postoffice Expands. KELSO, Wash., Aug. 14.—(Special.)—The plans for larger postoffice rooms in the Market building for the Kelso postoffice, which recently advanced to second-class standing and needs more floor space, was closed yesterday with the building. The lease runs for ten years from January 1, 1920.

Falling Sheet Iron Injures Man. SALEM, Or., Aug. 14.—(Special.)—Harry Taylor, employed by T. M. Barr in the manufacture of furnaces, was quite seriously injured today when he was pinned beneath a quantity of sheet iron. He was taken to a hospital, where it was found that several bones had been fractured.
