FALL FROCKS SHOWING NEW STYLE FEATURES

The new autumn dresses are so smart that one is only too anxious to give up the summer wardrobe and joyfully select the most becoming of these clever modes.

Street frocks in navy tricotine, serge and velour are most popular. Straight lines and Russian blouse effects predominate; trimmings of braid and embroidery make their attractiveness unusual.

Prices $19.50, $25, $27.50, $29.50, $35 and Up to $75

Three particularly handsome navy tricotine frocks are described:

Embroidery in triangular motifs is the distinguishing trimming of one. The back tunic, edged with military braid and string sash with button finish are features—$45.

The new basque effect is used in this chic gown. The skirt has flaring tiers at the sides, edged with satin folds—$59.50.

A straight-lined frock with front elaborately embroidered in black silk and gold threads is especially handsome—$52.50.

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Key West, Fla.—"For five years I suffered from irregularities, with terrible pains and an awful weakness in my back. The doctor gave me different medicines but they did me no good. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I found it to be the best medicine I ever tried because it made me well, and I can now do my housework. I am telling my friends about it."—Mrs. J. M. CAMUS, 728 Caroline St., Key West, Florida.

Many women at some period in their life suffer from ailments peculiar to their sex and which in most cases may be readily relieved by this famous root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, just as Mrs. Camus found it helped her after suffering for years and trying everything else in vain.

If you have any annoying symptoms about it.—Mrs. J. M. CAMUS, 728 Caroline St., Key West, Florida.
